Board Moves Forward on Golf Course and Gate Access Projects

McDonald Design Group Inc. was selected by the Leisure World Community Corporation (LWCC) board of directors at its Feb. 25 regular meeting to complete the Golf Course Enhancement Plan, which is targeted to begin in the fall of 2021.

If implemented, the plan would modernize the golf course’s design and functionality and improve play and accessibility.

The Golf and Greens Advisory Committee recommended the company, which presented its plan for repairs and enhancements to the golf course at a LWCC board meeting in December.

The Golf Course Enhancement Plan is one of two projects slated to round out the community’s Facilities Enhancement Plan (FEP), which was developed in 2013 as a strategic plan for renovating existing, and constructing new, Trust facilities.

Social Work at Leisure World

by Stacy Smith, Leisure World News

As the nation recognizes National Professional Social Work Month, Leisure World shines a spotlight on the often-overlooked role of its five licensed clinical social workers.

Department director Susan Montgomery, department veteran Wilma Braun, Sandy Hart, Ann Johnson and newly hired Miko Masterson are committed to helping residents maintain their physical, emotional and financial wellbeing.

The department has recently partnered more closely with county organizations as well as mutual property managers to more effectively meet the needs of a growing population of residents who use social work services.

“The advocacy of social work in pulling these resources together has been huge,” Braun said.

The services the department offers, which range from conducting in-home visits and assessments, to helping residents enroll in Medicare Part D insurance coverage, to crafting a medical power of attorney, are free, confidential and available to all residents.

Sometimes a resident’s need is more complex, and social workers are there to help “peel back the layers” of it, Montgomery said. A change in appearance may signal a person is struggling with their daily care routines; a person whose driving skills have atrophied may have an underlying medical condition.

Taking the time to develop relationships with residents helps peel back those layers.

“When you develop trust with people, they let you in more,” Braun said.

And with its offices located in the medical center, the department is able to act as an “integral part” of the MedStar Health operation, receiving referrals from doctors and nurses, Montgomery said.

The department also engages in community outreach by meeting with committees, organizations, clubs and mutuals to present information about its available resources and services.

Later this month the social workers will head to a continuing education workshop to sharpen their skills and learn more about their ever-expanding field.

“Our goal is to advocate for residents and to help them stay as safe and independent as possible,” Montgomery said.

“And I hope the word gets out that that’s what we do,” Hart added.

Leisure World’s social workers are located in the MedStar Health medical center, located at 3305 North Leisure World Blvd., and is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, call either Susan Montgomery at (301-598-1581), Wilma Braun at (301-438-6275), Sandy Hart at (301-598-1559), Ann Johnson at (301-598-1007) or Miko Masterson at (301-598-1559).

MEETING RESIDENTS’ NEEDS

Leisure World’s social work services are available to all residents and include, but are not limited to:

- providing information and referrals to agencies both inside and outside Leisure World, including Lifeline, FISH, Friendly Visitor Program, the Montgomery County Department of Aging and Disability and others
- assisting residents in obtaining in-home care for help with their daily living activities
- helping complete advance directives, health and financial powers of attorney and MOLST forms, as well as making referrals to eldercare attorneys
- assessing social and psychological concerns and making referrals to mental health professionals, support groups and bereavement groups
- providing counseling on Medicare and Medicaid and providing annual assistance with identifying and signing up for appropriate Medicare Part D prescription plans
- making home assessments for homebound residents to help identify needs and make appropriate referrals
Credit Union Offers Breakfast Every Friday

Sign-up Still Available for Strategic Planning Community Meetings

by Leisure World News

There’s still time to sign up for one of two strategic planning community meetings to share your views on a number of Leisure World-related topics and, in the process, help plan the community’s future.

Held by consultants from George Mason University (GMU), the meetings, along with the information collected from fall’s focus groups and summer’s resident survey, will help shape a long-term strategic plan for Leisure World’s future that is expected to be developed later this year.

The meetings are on Tuesday, March 10, from 1-3 p.m. and Monday, March 23, from 10 a.m.-noon. Both meetings will be held in Leisure World. Residents are asked to sign up for just one of the two meetings; space is limited to 100 participants per meeting.

Sign up for a meeting by emailing (sspc@lwmc.com) or calling (240-560-5794) and leaving a message with your full name, home address, name of your mutual, phone number, email address and the session you would like to attend.

Residents who reserve a spot at one of the meetings will be notified and will receive a ticket in the mail to bring for their admission to the meeting. Ticket holders are also required to bring their Leisure World ID to the meeting. Attendance at the meeting is non-transferable to anyone outside the resident’s household.

About the Meetings

When participants arrive at the meeting, they will be assigned randomly to one of about 10 small groups.

A facilitator will pose a series of Leisure World-related questions to the each group. Developed by consultants from GMU, the questions aim to better understand the information that has already been gathered from the focus groups, resident survey and other data collected in the strategic planning process. Every participant will be strongly encouraged to engage in the discussion, and the GMU anticipates these discussions will be lively.

The community meetings have a few ground rules:
• Any resident living at Leisure World, except for Special Strategic Planning Committee members and their families, may sign up to participate.
• Only one person per household may participate.
• Plan on arriving 15 minutes early to the meeting and staying for the whole two-hour session.

Residents who have questions about the community meetings may email (sspc@lwmc.com) or call (240-560-5794) and leave a message and someone will respond as soon as possible.

Good to Know:

MEMBERSHIPS AVAILABLE

by Leisure World News

Want to play some golf on Leisure World’s championship 18-hole course, but not yet sure if you want to commit to annual greens fees? Or, do you know someone outside Leisure World who’d like to become a Golf Course member? Special memberships are available in both cases.

Trial Membership

Residents who have never had a membership at the Golf Course may join for a three-month trial period for $200 fee. Residents enrolled in a trial membership also are eligible to play in dozens of Golf Club events or Maryland Interclub Senior Golf Association (MISGA) mixers if they pay appropriate dues.

If those three months of teeing off, ambling across fairways and celebrating sunken puts leave you wanting to continue through the end of the year, the additional cost is $67 times the number of months remaining in the calendar year. The past couple years have provided lengthy golf seasons that nearly stretched year-round, so players should have ample opportunity to take advantage of their full membership.

Associate Membership

A Leisure World resident or current associate can sponsor a non-resident for Golf Course associate membership. The sponsor is responsible for the actions and conduct of the associate, who must be at least 21 years old. The annual fee is $900, and the number of associate memberships is limited.

Associate members are entitled to unlimited golf and use of all golfing facilities — course, lounge, driving range, and practice chipping, sand trap and putting areas. They may reserve tee times and play with no restrictions, just as resident members do.

Associates over age 55 also may participate in dozens of Golf Club or MISGA events after paying appropriate dues.

Town Hall

and hear their thoughts and concerns.”

A pre-town hall meeting reception will also be held from 8-9 a.m. in Clubhouse II. In addition to the Montgomery County Council, representatives from the State’s Attorney’s Office, Office of Consumer Protection, Habitat for Humanity, Senior Connection, and Montgomery County Fire and Rescue Service will be available to provide information and answer residents’ questions. All residents and their guests are welcome to attend; sign-up is not required.

Language interpretation assistance is available upon request with at least three working days’ notice by calling (240-777-7931). Residents who need services to participate in the meeting should call the Council as far in advance as possible at (240-777-7900) or send an email to (County.Council@montgomerycountymd.gov).

The meeting will be video recorded for later broadcast on County Cable Montgomery (CCM cable channel 6 on Comcast Xfinity and RCN, channel 30 on Verizon).
Board

LWCC board approved a contract to purchase software and hardware from K9 All Systems Inc. for the community’s coming automated gate access system.

If implemented, residents’ vehicles would be fitted with transponders that transmit signals to the gates using radio-frequency identification (RFID) technology, allowing the vehicles automatic entrance.

The current plan includes having an unmanned, resident-only gate at the Norbeck Road entrance, while both residents and visitors would have access to the Main Gate and Connecticut Gate.

Some board members balked at accepting a contract before more policies and plans regarding the system’s implementation and maintenance are adopted, but others signaled that the new gate system would be tested significantly before it becomes operational, and that policies and procedures would be implemented but could change as needed.

The automated gates are not expected to be operational until the end of 2020.

Strategic Planning

Dr. Arthur Popper, Special Strategic Advisory Committee chairperson, provided an update to the board on the strategic planning process.

Consultants from George Mason University (GMU) are holding two community meetings at Leisure World in March, and all residents are invited to sign up to attend one of them.

Results from the meetings, as well as results from the resident survey, focus groups and other data, will help consultants develop a strategic plan for Leisure World’s future later this year, Popper said.

GMU consultant Dr. Terry Clower plans to brief the LWCC board on initial findings from the meetings and other research later this month, he added.

For more information about the meetings, see page 3 of this edition of Leisure World News.

MedStar

Kellia Giambroni, manager of operations at MedStar Health medical center, also provided updates to the board. Several medical professionals have recently joined the team, and patients now have direct access to physical therapy. For details on this program, see page 20.

Cash Flow

The board ended its meeting with a discussion on the possibility of increasing the community’s Resales Fee from two to three percent in an effort to both generate more revenue and keep down the cost of living at Leisure World.

The Resales Fee is a percentage of a home’s selling price paid by the buyer. Currently, these funds are used exclusively for FEP projects.

Board meeting agenda packets and meeting minutes are available online at (residents.lhmc.com).

The next regular meeting of the LWCC board of directors is on Tuesday, March 31, at 9:30 a.m. in Clubhouse I. Board meetings are open to all residents unless legally closed.

et-sized notebooks complete with edits and scribbles. When Perlmutter started them, he had a brain tumor and was depressed as his activities diminished.

A therapist asked him what he liked to do. Having had a long career in writing and editing, and having authored “A Practical Guide to Effective Writing,” published by Random House, Perlmutter replied that he liked to write.

Over the next years, Perlmutter kept up his cognitive ability and his spirits by writing more than 500 comedic observations of everyday life. A member of the Writers of Leisure World, he stood out among the Group for producing these witty pieces instead of the more common memoir essays, according to Reynolds.

Reynolds’s mother supported her husband’s pastime by helping him type up his writings, but they did not find a publisher. When the book was eventually published last year, she was “in awe,” according to Reynolds.

Promoting Laughter

Reynolds describes herself as “respectful but tenacious” in her entrepreneurial efforts. For her, publicizing the book is a way of sharing her father’s legacy. “Every day when I show [the book],” she says, “I think of him.”

Reynolds, who has worked in marketing, first presented the book to a Barnes & Noble store before the holidays in a Christmas stocking, noting its appropriate size and merry tone. The staff later invited her back for this month’s book signing.

Reynolds sees the “Glimpses” as widely relatable doses of humor that can appeal to any participant in modern American life, and specifically markets the book to populations that she feels could benefit from appreciating life’s simple joys.

“I’m looking at hospitals; I looked at [Veterans Affairs]. I’m looking at people who are also recovering from illnesses and injuries, to be able to pick up something and smile,” she says.

Reynolds points to the line from Perlmutter’s introduction to the book that professes “a deep respect and an abiding faith in America’s healers and helpers.” In that spirit, she has sought ways to use her writings to foster joy and health.

A portion of proceeds from the book’s sales is donated to SOME, or So Others Might Eat, a non-profit organization fighting poverty and homelessness in Washington, D.C.

A Laugh for Every Month

Reynolds also collected some of the “Glimpses” in a calendar for residents of assisted living facilities. The finished product was distributed at the neighboring retirement community Bedford Court.

She had heard coloring books could provide stimulation for people with cognitive impairments, so she hired an illustrator to design coloring pages to accompany each “Glimpse.” At the end of the calendar is a space encouraging recipients to write their own short pieces after Perlmutter’s manner.

Reynolds brought a copy of the calendar to her father’s grave. “I said, ‘Mom, let’s just go over there and show him what we did,’ she says with a chuckle. “I took the calendar over and said, ‘Can you believe this?’”

She thinks he would have been very proud.

“Glimpses of Happiness” is soon to be available at the library in Clubhouse I. In addition to the Barnes & Noble book signing later this month, Reynolds will appear at the Day of the Book Festival on Sunday, April 26, in Kensington; more information can be found at (Dayofthebook.com).

Protecting Yourself Against Coronavirus

by Leisure World News

As of March 4, there have been no confirmed cases of coronavirus COVID-19 in Maryland, but nonetheless residents are urged to take precautions to protect themselves from contracting it or other viruses.

Since it’s currently flu and respiratory disease season, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends getting a flu vaccine and taking flu antivirals as prescribed. To schedule a flu shot, call the MedStar Health medical center pharmacy at (301-598-1005).

The CDC offers the following guidance to help protect against contracting or passing on coronavirus:

- Regularly and thoroughly clean your hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. If soap and water are not readily available, use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer with at least 60 percent alcohol.
- Maintain at least three feet of distance between yourself and anyone who is coughing or sneezing.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth.
- Cover your mouth and nose with your bent elbow or tissue when you cough or sneeze, and then dispose of the tissue immediately.
- Clean and disinfect frequently touched objects and surfaces using regular household cleaning spray and wipe.
- If you have a fever, cough or difficulty breathing, seek medical attention and call in advance.

The Medical Center is following the CDC’s guidance on coronavirus so that any patients affected receive the care they need while protecting the safety and health of the community at large. For more information on how MedStar Health is preparing for coronavirus, visit (www.medstarhealth.org/mhs/about-medstar/covid-19-information/).

A Few Things to Remember

Relevance: Make sure that your submission is relevant to the LW community as a whole and not to just one person, mutual, or organization.

Respect: Remember that your opinion is about ideas, not individuals, and please avoid personal attacks.

Brevity: Being concise will ensure that your opinion will have maximum impact.

Accuracy: Document all factual assertions. Opinions that are backed up with facts are more powerful, but only if the facts are accurate.

Ownership: All submissions are subject to editing but you will have the opportunity to approve the edits before publication.

Opinions are strictly those of the writers. Thoughts and Opinions is maintained by the Communications Advisory Committee.

SUBMITTING AN ITEM TO THOUGHTS & OPINIONS

1. Submissions must be emailed to (aclwn@lwmc.com) or delivered to the LW News Office.

2. Receipt of submissions will be confirmed by email or telephone.

3. Submissions must state the writer’s name, address, telephone number, and email address, if any, but if the material is published, it will include only the writer’s name.

4. LW News cannot guarantee when or if a submission will be published.

5. To view the full Leisure World News Guidelines, sign into (residents.lwmc.com) and click on Documents, then select the Advisory and Special Committees folder, and click the Communications folder.

MAKING YOUR VOICE HEARD

The Communications Advisory Committee has been urging Leisure World News staff to feature more articles about residents and their achievements. After all, the masthead of the newspaper states that it is “published for the benefit of Leisure World residents...and to provide residents a forum for their opinions and an opportunity to contribute articles of general interest.”

So it was a great pleasure to see two articles prominently displayed on the front page and page 3 of the Feb. 21 issue on the accomplishments of two residents: Dr. Richard Fisher, former director of NASA’s Heliophysics Division, and Bob Morgans, a woodworking hobbyist, who crafts miniature models.

Many residents of Leisure World have had eventful careers and remarkable experiences. More articles of this kind will help to make all residents feel proud to be living among such accomplished neighbors.

Also, in several recent issues, this page on “Thoughts and Opinions” has had no letters to the editor – just rules for submitting letters. This could be a good sign, that is, residents have no complaints to make. It could also mean that readers are intimidated by the rules and are discouraged from writing.

Perhaps the page needs to be renamed “Residents Speak,” to show that it belongs to the residents and is intended to provide an opportunity for their submissions. Readers need not wait for complaints to arise. Occasionally, praise helps.

Residents should be encouraged to participate in making the newspaper a more colorful and informative publication.

— Bernie Ascher

BANK CLOSING

In the past several days I have received letters from Capital One Bank stating they are closing their door in Leisure World Plaza on Wednesday, May 20. How can we let this happen; is it because somewhere board members decided that certain locations could be closed since they assume people will bank online? Clearly they have no idea that this branch serves an age-restricted community. Many residents do not drive or drive only as far as Leisure World Plaza. I feel many do not bank online and will be left with only one convenient choice which is Wells Fargo. Other banks are way across the parking lot. We all need to contact Capital One headquarters and let them know how we feel, plus our Leisure World Community Corporation board of directors has to take immediate action since May 20 is not far off!

We must all be proactive, and think about how this closing may affect us at some point.

— Jeannette Sturman

GOOD TO KNOW: LEISURE WORLD NEWS DISTRIBUTION

by Leisure World News

This newspaper’s distribution is a volunteer effort made twice a month by a small but dedicated group of Leisure World residents.

On the Friday of the paper’s publication, a Leisure World News staff member delivers bundles of the paper to each of the volunteers, who then distribute them throughout each of their designated areas.

The exact day and time newspapers hit a neighborhood’s doorstep or fill a lobby’s mailbox varies by each mutual and volunteer. Volunteers are encouraged to deliver all of their newspapers by the end of the weekend after the Friday of publication.

Not Getting Your Newspaper?

When volunteer distributors are needed, the Communications Department publicizes announcements on television channel 972, and sometimes in the newspaper itself.

But it is up to each mutual to assist in finding its own volunteer to deliver the newspapers. Some residents who can no longer volunteer will find a replacement courier, such as a neighbor or friend.

Some mutual boards post notices seeking volunteers. In Montgomery Mutual, area coordinators sometimes help with recruitment.

Residents who are not receiving their newspaper should contact the Leisure World News office at (301-598-1310).

Become a Volunteer

Residents can volunteer to deliver newspapers to any mutual or multiple mutuals; volunteers do not have to be a resident of a particular mutual to deliver its newspapers.

When an opening is posted, residents interested in volunteering to deliver the newspaper to any of the mutuals should contact the Leisure World News office at (301-598-1310).

LWN is Online

Each new edition of the Leisure World News is available online at both the residents’ internal website (residents.lwmc.com) and the public website (www.leisureworldmaryland.com) on the Friday morning that the printed edition is first available.

March 28: A Diva Making History: What’s a Leg Got to Do with It?

On Saturday, March 28, the E&R department invites all residents to come hear Dr. Donna Walton, an award-winning speaker, describe her personal and professional journey from surviving to thriving. This Women’s History Month presentation is at 7 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Tickets for the presentation are $6 per person and are on sale in both club-house E&R offices. Please bring your Leisure World ID.

Walton’s story began in 1976 at the age of 18 when she was diagnosed with bone cancer. This ambitious, energetic young woman faced the loss of her leg in order to save her life.

The young amputee’s spirit was broken; her dreams of becoming a dancer/actress and moving to Hollywood shattered—until one day she looked in the mirror and asked herself, “What’s a leg got to do with it?” It’s a question that has become her motto!

Today, Walton is an African-American advocate, motivational speaker, life coach, diversity trainer and CEO-founder of LEGGTalk Inc., a company that reflects her personal story. Her company’s mission is to create nationwide movements for women of color with disabilities.

Walton received a bachelor’s degree in 1979 from American University, a master’s degree in 1985 in adult education from Syracuse University and, in 2005, a doctoral degree in counseling from The George Washington University. She is a former faculty member at The George Washington University, where she taught graduate level rehabilitation counseling courses using a distance education format.

She has also authored numerous articles and has just released her first book, “Shattered Dreams, Broken Pieces: A Journey of Faith, Reinvention and Resilience.”

Come be inspired and empowered by this speaker who uses humor, passion, tears and personal truths to share her story and to encourage all people with physical disabilities as well as those with other types of internal barriers that keep them from reaching their purpose in life.

Telehealth Provides Direct Access to Physical Therapy at Medical Center

by Stacy Smith, Leisure World News

Residents seeking an appointment with a physical therapist (PT) at MedStar Health medical center no longer need a primary care doctor’s referral, as is often required by Medicare and other insurance providers.

Instead, residents can make an appointment directly with the MedStar NRH Rehabilitation Network, which is located on the second floor of the medical center, by calling (301-438-6280).

During the appointment, a PT will examine the patient, and then both will use a laptop computer or tablet to telecommunicate with a physiatrist, a doctor who specializes in physical medicine and rehabilitation. The physiatrist will discuss the patient’s condition, confirm a diagnosis and create a treatment plan.

Known as telehealth, this communication between the physiatrist and patient replaces the need for the patient to obtain a primary care doctor’s referral. The goal of telehealth is to provide patients with direct access to physical therapy in an expedient and cost-effective way.

“Research is showing that the quicker we can start delivering physical therapy, the quicker our patients start feeling better, and the better their outcome is,” said Chris Parker, assistant vice president for outpatient rehabilitation at MedStar Health medical center.

The direct access program is open to all residents; they don’t have to be established MedStar Health patients to participate.

Come Learn the ABCs of Diabetes

The MedStar Health medical center hosts a free diabetes support group on the last Thursday of each month from 1-2 p.m. in then medical center.

Come learn the ABCs of diabetes, including knowing and controlling your hemoglobin A1c, blood pressure and LDL cholesterol.

Call (301-774-8881) to register to attend.

The meeting is at 1 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

Price will have sign-up forms from the Maryland State Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped for those who want to receive a player and access to the Bard website, which holds all of the books digitized by the Library. He will also talk about other technology that can make vision impairment less of a defining issue in people’s lives.

Once signed up with the Maryland State Library for the Blind and Handicapped, the meeting’s attendees will be sent information explaining this new technology and the Library’s programs.

March 27: Speaker Presents Diabetes Awareness and Prevention

by Fred Shapiro

One of the more common health concerns today is the prominence of diabetes; more than 100 million U.S. adults live with diabetes or prediabetes according to a 2017 report from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

To provide residents with information about this condition, the Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL) presents Olivia Johnson of Pleasant Hearts Private Care and Nurse Staffing to discuss “Diabetes Awareness and Prevention” on Friday, March 27, at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

Johnson’s presentation will include awareness and prevention information about living with diabetes, as well as health management and nutrition tips.

While the presentation is free, residents should register beginning Tuesday, March 10, at 8:30 a.m. by either stopping by the Clubhouse I E&R office or calling (301-598-1300) to ensure adequate seating.

About Diabetes

Diabetes is a disease that occurs when a person’s blood glucose, also called blood sugar, is too high. Blood glucose is a person’s main source of energy and comes from the food he or she eats.

Insulin, a hormone made by the pancreas, helps glucose from food get into the body’s cells to be used for energy.

Type 1 diabetes, also known as juvenile diabetes, occurs when the body fails to produce insulin. People with type 1 diabetes are insulin-dependent, which means they must take artificial insulin daily to stay alive.

Type 2 diabetes affects the way the body uses insulin. While the body still makes insulin unlike in type 1, the cells in the body do not respond to it as effectively as they once did.

Type 2 is the most common type of diabetes and is strongly linked to obesity, according to the National Institute of Diabetes and Kidney Diseases.

About the Speaker

Johnson joined the staff at Pleasant Hearts in 2015 to pursue her career in home care. She also does volunteer work with Vietnam era veterans.

If you have diabetes or are concerned about being affected as you age, register now for the presentation to learn what you should know when the time comes.

Club Helps Register Residents for Medical Cannabis

by Carminetta Verner

The Cannabis 101 Club is initiating a program to register residents with the Maryland Medical Cannabis Commission (MMCC) on an ongoing basis, since the Club is limited to registering a set number of residents on any given day.

To facilitate this new process, interested residents need to contact (Lwcan101@gmail.com) with their name, phone number and email address. The Club will send these residents a MMCC pre-registration form to complete and will set up an appointment with them.

In addition to the information required on the form, residents need the following documents to complete the registration process:

- unexpired driver’s license or MVA ID card with their current address
- a recent photograph; the Club will take your photo and upload it to the MMCC on the day you register

The MMCC charges $50 for a Maryland Medical Cannabis Patient ID card. Visa and MasterCard are the only credit cards accepted for payment. Residents whose driver’s licenses or MVA ID cards do not have their current address must provide the following:

- U.S. passport or military ID
- Two (2) additional documents, such as a utility, telephone or cable TV bill, MVA registration card or other MMCC acceptable documents (for a full list, visit (https://mmcc.maryland.gov/Pages/patients_regisadult.aspx)). All documents must be dated within the past 90 days.

Keep in mind that residents have the option of registering on their own at (mmcc.maryland.gov/Pages/PatientIDCard.aspx). Since many residents do not have their own at (mmcc.maryland.gov/Pages/PatientIDCard.aspx), the Club is providing this service.

For questions, contact Carminetta Verner at (630-699-1629) after 10 a.m. Call for details. ©2020 Assisting Hands® Home Care, Nampa, Idaho 83687. All Rights Reserved.

Better to Give Away Than Throw Away

by Beth Leanza

FISH accepts donations of assistive and medical equipment such as incontinence supplies, accessories for walkers, canes and elevated toilet seats. These are kept in the front area of the FISH office in Clubhouse II and are provided to residents at no charge. These free items are not limited to residents, so, for example, a health aide may take them for other clients.

FISH no longer accepts foot braces, oxygen tank tubes, diabetic equipment or CPAP machines. Household items are also not accepted. FISH asks that those making donations not leave anything outside the FISH area in the basement of Clubhouse II.

FISH Information

The FISH office is open Monday to Friday from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. FISH closes for major holidays and when Montgomery County Public Schools are closed.

If schools are delayed, FISH opens at 1 p.m. The president of FISH strongly advises volunteers not to come in if conditions look bad. So, when in doubt, call first at (301-598-1345).

Completely staffed by volunteers, FISH members do not usually have any medical training. They urge anyone with questions to speak to a therapist or home health aide. FISH’s volunteers strive to make sure the equipment donated is safe to use.

Volunteering

FISH is always looking for new members, so those interested should contact FISH president Beth Leanza at (301-598-4569). FISH suggests a training/orientation session with a current volunteer.

Charitable Collections

Some organizations such as the Kiwanis and Lions Clubs have collection boxes in the FISH office. Kiwanis helps Ronald McDonald House by collecting can tabs, and the Lions collect eyeglasses and hearing aids.

Those who want to start a collection, even for a short time, may contact FISH. Also, be sure to include (on the collection box) contact information for you or your group.

Lost and Found

FISH also houses lost and found items. Those looking for a lost item can stop by the office or call the E&R office at (301-598-1320).

We listen to your story.

March 11: Learn the Stories Behind Some of the World’s Most Famous Gemstones

by Frank Roddy

The Gem, Lapidary and Mineral Society (GLMS) holds its next meeting on Wednesday, March 11, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse II. The meeting’s speaker, Kate Peterson, will present stories about famous gemstones in a program entitled “Sinister Sparkle.”

Diamonods and rubies and sapphires, oh my! Precious gems are about more than glitz and glamour. Some also hold mystery and intrigue – and while some are famous, others are infamous for the misfortune they’re believed to attract to their owner, or notorious for the myths surrounding their history.

Tales of death and destruction seem to follow certain famous jewels. There are stories of ancient warlords fighting bloody battles, kings and queens suffering agonizing ends, Russian princesses leaping off buildings, fortunes ruined, careers dashed, companies bankrupted, marriages imploded – all because of sparkling stones known for their extraordinary beauty.

While certain gems do seem to be associated with misfortune, some of the dark histories behind famous gemstones continue to fascinate. Whether or not you believe in the idea of a “curse,” many of the tales just make great yarns – and great lessons.

Come spend an evening on a journey through a catalog of these gorgeous gemstones and the titillating tales they hold – the Orloff, Regent Diamond, Black Prince’s Ruby, Star of India and La Peregrina pearl!

About the Speaker

Peterson has many years’ experience in the jewelry business in retailing, sales management, operations and training in large and smaller operations. She has founded her own business, Performance Concepts. She is a member of the board of directors of the Diamond Council of America, a training consultant for jewelry organizations, and a business consultant to jewelers, manufacturers and trade organizations worldwide.

Peterson has made numerous presentations to the GLMS at Leisure World, including “Idar-Oberstein, Germany, a Gem-making Town”; “Diamonds”; “Jewelry Making through History”; “Man-made Gems”; “Cameos”; “History of the Wedding Ring”; and “Following a Gemstone from the Mine to the Finished Jewelry,” among others.

About the Group

The GLMS holds meetings monthly on the second Wednesday of the month at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse II, and all residents are welcome. Membership in the GLMS is $15 per year, with the Club year starting in September.

Lapidary laboratory facilities are extensive and for use of all members trained by shop steward Mark Parker. Make your own jewelry just as many others have done. The annual lab fee is $15 for residents. Parker can be contacted at (KB3WUK@gmail.com) or (240-723-5860).

Questions concerning membership should be directed to Frank Roddy, GLMS president, at (roddy. frank2014@comcast.net) or (301-598-3698).

Course Presents ‘Geography Up Close: Regional Landscapes of the U.S.’

by Fred Shapiro

One of the more popular Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL) instructors returns in April, Tom Conger. An experienced geographer and community planner, Conger will present “Geography Up Close: Regional Landscapes of the U.S.,”

See Classes and Seminars section for more details and registration information.

Across its vast spaces, the U.S. has great landscape diversity, due in part to physical factors such as landforms and climate impact. The landscape of any particular place is also inspired by the lives of the people who inhabit it.

Indeed, the various cultural heritages and environments in the U.S. combined with the ways lands have been used to produce and use wealth have created a mosaic of landscapes across the country’s 3.8 million square miles of land area.

One way that geographers are able to study and make sense out of all of the existing conditions is through a regional analysis. Conger’s course will examine the entire nation, looking at uniform regions, which will be multi-featured, representing an area’s combined physical and/or cultural elements.

About the Instructor

Having lived in numerous regions in the U.S., Conger has observed up close the beauty and wonder that is present in many different landscapes.

He has traveled all 50 states, observing its mix of cultural heritages and environments and allowing him to visualize a mosaic like nowhere else on Earth.

As Conger is quick to point out, the closer a geographer looks at, the more details they see in its landscape.

Conger has worked in a wide variety of physical environments. He holds a master’s degree in geography from the University of Cincinnati. He has taught geography in middle and high schools and at the Northern Arizona University and has taught classes at Leisure World on a variety of geographic subjects. He is an active CLL board member.

The completed application can be slipped into RAG Locker B4 (at the back of the art studio in Clubhouse I) or emailed to Judy at (Kirkland.JQ@gmail.com).

Next in the Guild’s popular workshops is the chance to create an original painting of Washington, D.C.’s iconic cherry trees. The workshop is on Tuesday, March 24, from 1:30-3:30 p.m. in the art studio. Even if you’re brand new to painting, Sulay Khin, a talented teaching artist from Silver Spring’s CREATE Arts Center, will guide you step by step.

The all-inclusive fee is $30 (checks only, payable to RAG) and includes everything: acrylic paint, brushes, canvas, how-to help and delicious refreshments. Just bring yourself (and a friend!) and relax.

The Guild’s workshops sell out quickly. Don’t miss this fun opportunity to try your hand at painting. Payment must be received by Tuesday, March 17, to reserve your place! Registration forms are available in the art studio foyer. Questions? Call Judy Kirkland at (301-938-3630).

Rossmoor Camera Club

March 24: Club’s Photo Competition Focuses on Architectural Details

by Fred Shapiro

The Rossmoor Camera Club’s next competition, architectural details, is on Tuesday, March 24, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse II. The judge for the competition is Joel Hoffman, an active member of the North Bethesda Camera Club for 30 years.

Photos for the architectural details competition should focus on the small details of a building’s interior or exterior, such as the decorated bases of columns, pedestals, elaborate doorframes and window frames, or gargoyles. Statues or furniture that are not part of the building are not acceptable.

Members can submit up to four photos for the competition – two print and two digital. Entries should be emailed to RossmoorLW@gmail.com by Tuesday, March 10.

Hoffman will judge photos’ architectural details from the perspective of lighting, composition and subject matter, the combination of which will be very important. The photo’s color (or black and white) will be less important unless it detracts from the photo or is valuable to the image.

About the Judge

Hoffman has an active photography business photographing weddings, bar mitzvahs, baptisms and other family and corporate events. Using an Argus C3 camera, he began taking photographs in the late 1950s and early 1960s shooting auto races at Marlboro Raceway in Prince George’s County.

In the mid to late ‘80s and early ’90s, he photographed for the Victorian Lyric Opera Company, shooting headshots and documenting Gilbert and Sullivan operettas. He has had the opportunity to photograph architectural interiors and exteriors for several architectural and engineering firms. He has also photographed fashion catalogues for Andriana Furs and has worked on numerous projects with a variety of graphic designers.

For the past 10 years, he has partnered with his favorite photography partner, Roy Sewall, to take on the daunting challenge of shooting every architectural structure on 16th Street in the District of Columbia from the Silver Spring, Maryland line to Lafayette Park in front of the White House.

Currently, he and Sewall are working with the Historical Society of Washington, D.C., to arrange a donation of their collection of several thousand images. They are also exploring ways to promote their project to the residents of 16th Street.

Membership

The Club has two levels of membership. Members who expect to compete in the monthly competitions pay dues of $25 for the year. Residents who wish to learn more about photography but are not interested in competing pay dues of $15.

To join, mail checks for dues to Woody Shields at (Rossmoor Camera Club, 3200 N. Leisure World Blvd., Apt. 817, Silver Spring, MD 20906). For more information, visit the Camera Club’s website at (www.rossmoorcameraclub.com).

New Members Display Their Wares

by Meriel Brewer

Being a member of the Ceramics Club offers an exciting outlet for one’s creative talents to blossom and develop. Just ask the Club’s new members who are proudly displaying some of their first pieces made in the studio.

Many new members came to be trained having no prior experience in ceramics. Some may have had art training in other areas such as watercolor or oils, or crafting. They all had one thing in common – the desire to create.

The following new members whose pieces are on display outside the E&R office in Clubhouse II were inspired by the finished pieces they saw in the Studio’s gift shop. They wanted to learn how to make similar pieces or had some ideas of their own, but they didn’t know how to start. Here is what they had to say about becoming a new member.

New Members

New member Elizabeth Nyang came to the Club about six months ago because she had a desire to meet new people and learn something new. She is enjoying the studio’s pleasant ambiance, and can be found almost every day working on her handmade projects, which she finds very relaxing.

Daisy Claudio is new to the world of ceramics. Now that she has retired she spends two to three days a week at the Studio learning the basics of working with the clay and bisque, and then the painting. Claudio says she is inspired and encouraged by Club instructor Janice to create some wonderful pieces.

Patty Chou joined the Ceramics Club about a year ago and frequently spends five days a week at the Studio. She enjoys making all things by hand, and has been greatly influenced in art by her parents along with Chinese painting and writing. In her endeavors, she favors nature and imagination because they are free and easy.

When Iris Schnall was looking for something to do upon retirement nine months ago, she opted for the Ceramics Club, where she spends several days a week pursuing this interest. She has managed to create many new pieces and says she is always happy with her finished projects.

Etsegenet “Genet” Michael came to the Club six months ago to learn the art of ceramics and to join the ceramics community. She is eager to create her own pieces and especially appreciates the support and encouragement from her teacher, Susan.

Six months ago, Ireina Vallario visited the Club, and was so impressed with the talented members and their work that she subsequently joined the community. Vallario says Janice has been her tireless and dedicated instructor who has encouraged her to create different pieces with more elaborate painting methods.

George Videll has been an artist most of his life, but found he needed a new outlet for his art. Although his background at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory and as an art director at ComSat kept him busy for many years, he excelled at illustrating and watercolor. Videll says it is a bit different working with ceramic paints as opposed to watercolors, but Janice is guiding him along.

Residents who have an interest in joining the Ceramics Club to create with other members should call (301-598-1312). Janice or Beth will be happy to make an appointment to meet with them to explain membership details ($10 per year) and how they can get started on their first project.

Club Members Enhance Their Dance Skills

by Ida Leong

The Club’s next monthly dance features The Tony Luciano Band on Saturday, March 28, from 7:30-10:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom. For details, see the Events and Entertainment section of this publication.

Enhancing Skills

During the Club’s February dance, band director Helmut Licht, a former dance instructor, gave an impromptu Dover strut circle dance lesson to the delighted attendees.

For more in-depth instruction, some Club members currently frequent local area centers, including Holiday Park Senior Center, Margaret Schweinhaut Senior Center, Le Papillon Dance, Glen Echo Park and Hollywood Ballroom Dance Center.

All of these locales offer beginning and intermediate level instruction in the Club’s standard ballroom dances, including slow and Viennese waltzes, fox trot, rumba, samba, tango, cha-cha, merengue, hustle, East Coast and West Coast swing, bolero and quickstep. Lastly, dance instructors and their students regularly attending the Club’s monthly events periodically “showcase” their skills.

Membership

Membership continues to grow in 2020 and is open to new members. Residents can simply stop by the membership table at any dance and provide a check for $10 per person, payable to Leisure World Ballroom Dance Club, which entitles members to a dance entry fee of $10 per monthly dance. The fee for non-residents and guests is $15 per monthly dance. Members are encouraged to invite their friends, neighbors and relatives to the monthly dances. All are welcome.

About the Dances

Dance to music from all eras including Broadway, country and ‘30s through current-day pop tunes. Attendees are welcome to ask the bands for favorite tunes and if the bands know it, they will play it.

Suggested attire for dances held from September through May is dressy, with jackets and ties for the gentlemen and dressy outfits for the ladies. Warm weather dances held in June through August are more casual, with no ties or jackets required for the men and business casual for the ladies (no jeans). The Club has themed dances during the year, including the August Hawaiian dance and the October Halloween dance. All dances are held on Saturdays from 7:30-10:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom. Reservations are strongly suggested to ensure a place at a table with friends, old and new. Contact Hal Freeman at either (bobbinhal@aol.com) or (301-438-7513).

Club members don red for February’s dance. The evening honored Valentine’s Day and Healthy Heart Month. Dancers also enjoyed healthy heart snacks, including fresh blueberries, during the intermission. Photo by Jim Leong

The Write Moment

by John Moens

On Feb. 20, the Writers of Leisure World met in Clubhouse I. Radha Pillai shared “Barcelona, Malta, and Gozo” in which she is transported by ferry to a tiny island near Sicily. Joanie Friedlander presented “Iowa Hospitality,” a memorable tale of romance.

A fictional short story, “The Cruise” by John Moens, takes a hospital patient with a unique travel agency on the trip of a lifetime. The “Worst of Times” shared by Woody Shields responds to a claim about our current era.

Tom Anessi read two captivating poems from his book, “Then and Now” – “Travel” written in 1952 and “Deathbed” written in 2009. “My Winter Adventure Trip” by Jean Anessi reads more like a trip to hell with bedbugs and rats. However, life turned out better. The trip, taken in 1957, was with her new groom, and they are still together.

“The Initial Shock” by Felicia Brannon, a new member, begins “one quiet morning” and details a mysterious health problem.

Mimi Schultz, another new member, captivated the Group with “The Ups and Downs of Learning to Ski.” By chance, the first down happened before her ski even touched the snow. Annoyed workers managed to stop and reverse the chairlift when she failed to get off at the top.

The riveting poem “Dinner” by Grace Cooper begins with a seated dinner for six and ends with a nibble by one.

Jerry Udell related an encounter aboard a plane with a man wearing a Super Bowl ring. The man said it was a gift from his son, Pittsburgh quarterback Terry Bradshaw.

Danuta Montorfano enchanted the Group with “Waiting for Spring.” In the poem, the love from Valentine’s Day is carried into the new season.

Writer’s Spotlight

Joanie Friedlander has been a member of the Writers of Leisure World for more than two years. She loves to hear other people tell their stories. Many of her stories are for a planned autobiography. She writes mainly prose now, although she used to prefer poetry.

In addition to writing, she loves to read. Impressed by Isaac Asimov, she sent him a poem and a sketch she created from his photo. He responded saying he liked the sketch. She later met him at a Star Trek convention.

Her favorite poet is Robert Frost. However, her favorite poetic image and quote is from her poetry teacher who, observing a flight of birds in a V formation, wrote, “The birds made a necklace on the sky.”

General Information

The Writers of Leisure World meet on the first and third Thursday of each month at 11 a.m. in Clubhouse I. All residents are welcome to attend. All residents are welcome to come read their work. The Group enjoys all levels of writing, so bring your poetry and essays to the next meeting.

Ever since Dustin Hoffman’s character in “The Graduate” was advised that the future is all about “plastics,” plastics of all kinds have invaded our world, resulting in unforeseen pollution and threats to wildlife and human health.

As LW Green members learned at the Group’s February meeting, there are an estimated one trillion plastic shopping bags used worldwide annually, according to a June 2018 article in National Geographic.

The National Resources Defense Council estimates that about five to eight percent of these are recycled, resulting in littered streets and streams, as well as gummed up machinery at municipal and private recycling plants.

Most environmental groups agree that the best solution to this litter and waste is to reduce the use of single-use plastic bags.

Reducing Plastics

As the Group also learned, several Maryland legislators, including all the representatives from Leisure World’s District 19, have introduced the “Plastic and Packaging Reduction Act,” (House Bill 209; Senate Bill 313) which prohibits retailers from providing plastic carryout bags to customers at point of sale, and requires retailers to charge at least 10 cents for a paper or other carryout bag. Retailers would have to track the customers’ bag charges on receipts but would keep the money to offset the cost of paper or other reusable bags.

As research in San Francisco, San Jose and Chicago shows, laws that include both banning plastic carryout bags and charging for any kind of carryout bag have been the most effective in reducing overall bag consumption, according to Jennie Romer’s 2017 article, “Why Carryout Bag Fees are More Effective Than Plastic Bag Bans,” which appeared in HuffPost.

Since the Maryland Act both bans single-use plastic bags and imposes a fee for other carryout bags, if passed, it may prove highly effective in reducing plastic bag litter and waste.

LW Green encourages all residents to let their state representatives know that this bill should be passed as soon as possible. For further information, visit (www.lw-green.org).

About the Group

LW Green is a group of residents who strive to be better stewards of the environment through education and advocacy.

Members are not experts; the Group brings the experts to its members!

All interested residents are invited to attend LW Green meetings, which are held on the fourth Wednesday of each month at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

Today’s Tip

Today’s ‘pre-cycling’ tip comes from the Environmental Defense Fund: pass on Styrofoam™. Choose cardboard egg cartons instead, which are usually made from recycled newsprint.

For paper boxes (such as cereal boxes), the rule of thumb is: if the unprinted side is gray and not white, it’s probably made from recycled materials.

March 11: County Trash and Recycling Uncovered

by Maxine Lewack

The Rossmoor chapter of the Montgomery County League of Women Voters meets on Wednesday, March 11, at 10:15 a.m. in Clubhouse I.

The topic of the discussion will be Montgomery County trash and recycling practices. How can county residents dispose of their refuse in a climate-friendly way? Is the county meeting its own goals? How do Montgomery County’s practices compare to neighboring counties and to other political entities in the state?

The county pays private businesses for trash removal and recycling. It owns no vehicles nor hires any personnel for this task. Primarily, unincorporated areas are served, but municipalities that sponsor their own collection services may use the transfer station and other facilities.

The Shady Grove Transfer Station is comprised of 45 acres in Derwood, Maryland. From there, the waste is sent by rail to the Montgomery County Resource Recovery Facility near Dickerson, Maryland, where the trash is used to generate electricity.

The Recycling Center uses 10 acres adjacent to the Transfer Station. The daily capacity can handle 346 tons of mixed paper and 150 tons of commingled containers. Also, there is a composting facility for yard trash.

In 2018 a task force to enable practices “Aiming For Zero Waste” was formed. Some suggestions included adding curbside service for other materials such as textiles, food waste, housewares and electronics and implementing a “Pay As You Throw” pricing in which the price a person pays is determined by the amount of trash he or she generates.

The NOW is dedicated to a multi-issue and multi-strategy approach to women’s rights and is the largest organization of feminist grassroots activists in the U.S. NOW has hundreds of chapters and hundreds of thousands of members and activists in all 50 states and Washington, D.C.

Since its founding in 1966, NOW’s purpose is to take action through intersectional grassroots activism to promote feminist ideals, lead societal change, eliminate discrimination and achieve and protect the equal rights of all women and girls in all aspects of social, political and economic life.

She is a former member of the Montgomery County Democratic Central Committee, supporter of Emerge Maryland and member of Montgomery County Business and Professional Women, who elected her as their 2017 Woman of the Year.

Since relocating to Washington, D.C., Mahoney earned her juris doctor at The American University’s Washington College of Law and recently retired from Ernst & Young’s General Counsel’s Office in Washington, D.C.

March 17: Club’s Meeting Focuses on Elections

by Fred Seelman

The next meeting of the Republican Club is on Tuesday, March 17, at 1:30 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

The Club’s main focus at the March meeting will be helping to choose the Republican candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives’s 8th congressional district in which Leisure World is located.

More attention than usual is being paid to this election because it has attracted an exceptionally large number of Republican candidates, namely Gregory Thomas Coll, Patricia Rogers, Nicholas Gladden, Shelly Skolnick, Michael Yadeta and Bridgette L. Cooper.

Two of the candidates, Coll and Rogers, spoke at the Club’s February meeting. The two speakers covered healthcare, the budget, immigration, veterans, military and defense and jobs and employment.

Attend the March 17 meeting to hear about and discuss the remaining four Republican congressional candidates. Information will be available about all of them, and some candidates may be present. Members who cannot come to the meeting but would like more information should contact Club president Fred Seelman at (fseelman@gmail.com).

In addition to covering the Congressional election, the Club will hold its own. The line-up of nominations includes Fred Seelman, president; Robert Kammer, first vice president; Irmgard Patrick, second vice president; Donna Reilly, secretary; and Woodrow Shields, treasurer.

Remember that the Club will participate in the Maryland primary elections on Tuesday, April 28. Besides voting, help out by working at one of the three Leisure World precincts: Clubhouse I, Clubhouse II or The Inter-Faith Chapel. Contact the Club if you’d like to volunteer.

Decisions will be made in Congress that will impact all our lives – not just for one year or four years, but quite possibly for decades. That is why the Chapter puts special emphasis on expanding its membership.

The Chapter always has good attendance at its meetings and appreciates the comments, suggestions and advice its members provide. The Chapter’s budget is in good shape.

Still, Chapter membership is only a small fraction of the total number of federal retirees living at Leisure World. If interested in joining Chapter 1143, contact John Lass at (301-288-4210). Let’s work together to protect all of us.

Additionally, 2020 is an election year, and Montgomery County always has room for people willing to work at polling places to ensure elections are fair and free.

April 5: Bob Levey Discusses the Golden Years of The Washington Post
by Jerome “Jerry” Cohen

The next Jewish War Veterans (JWV) Post 567 brunch is on Sunday, April 5, at 10 a.m. in Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom.

Bob Levey will speak about “The Golden Era at The Washington Post,” when the paper was under the leadership of executive editor Ben Bradlee and publisher Katharine Graham. He will speak about Watergate, the Pentagon Papers, the great political reporters of that era and much more.

For 23 years, Levey wrote a daily column, “Bob Levey’s Washington” for The Washington Post. Currently he writes a monthly column for The Beacon newspapers.

Seven times, Levey was named one of the most popular columnists in Washington, D.C., by Washingtonian magazine for his Post column. Earlier in his 36-year career at The Post, Levey covered presidential politics, congress, local news and sports.

Levey will also have copies of his recent book, “Larry Felder, Candidate,” available for sale. It is a novel that provides a close-up look at a big-time newspaper and contemporary Washington, D.C., area politics.

Post 567’s brunch events are open and available to all residents and to the public; membership in JWV is not required.

Brunch Details
The delicious buffet brunch includes eggs, tuna fish, lox, bagels, latkes, blintzes, pastries, fresh fruit, coffee, juices and more. Tables of eight-10 only may be reserved with payment for all table-mates. Include the names of all people attending with the reservation payment. Otherwise, open seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

The cost of the brunch is $17 per person. Mail checks, payable to JWV 567, to (JWV Post 567, 14030 Connecticut Ave., P.O. Box 9415, Silver Spring, MD 20906). Checks must be received by Monday, March 30. Rising costs have necessitated an increase in the price of the brunch.

The Post’s requested name change of “Jewish War Veterans Krieger-Loube Post 567” was officially approved by the National Executive Committee at their semi-annual meeting held at a conference facility in Crystal City, Virginia, in February.

Past commander of Post 567 Danny Bass was the driving force in initiating and arguing for the name change in the memory of his close friend, Milton “Macky” Loube. For years, Commander Loube and his family provided leadership and performed many of the Post’s administrative functions. Members’ business meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month from 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. in Clubhouse I. All regular members and patrons and those who are considering joining are invited to attend.

Two new categories of regular membership were recently added by the JWV national governing organization. Those who have served in the U.S. Public Health Service Commissioned Corps or in the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration Commissioned Officer Corps are legally recognized as veterans and are now eligible and encouraged to join the Post.

Those who would like additional information, have questions about membership, would like to be added to Post 567’s email notification and e-newsletter list or who wish to make donations to the Post in honor of or in memory of someone should contact Post Commander Jerry Cohen at (240)-970-5024 or (jeromeacohen67@outlook.com).
Nominations Needed for 2020-2021 Board of Directors

by Patricia Means

The first half of the 2019-2020 membership year flourished with outstanding events, including the celebration of 25 years of achievements, and the organization will continue to provide events throughout the remaining membership year that ends on Tuesday, June 30, 2020.

To sustain the organization, it is important that members participate in steering the affairs of the organization by becoming a board member for 2020-2021, which covers the period of Wednesday, July 1, 2020 through Wednesday, June 30, 2021.

Most LWAAAC members have had decision-making careers or volunteering experiences, and have community service skills that are ideal for board positions. Becoming an elected officer affords an opportunity to share experiences, explore possibilities and be creative.

The positions to be filled are president, vice president, recording secretary, correspondence secretary, financial secretary and treasurer.

Members may nominate any individual deemed to be a good candidate and who has been a LWAAAC member for one year. Members also are encouraged to be bold and step forward with self-nominations.

Nominations must be received by Friday, March 20, and may be submitted to Eleanor High, nominating committee chairperson, at (301-598-1258) or (bondhigh67@gmail.com).

Rossmoor Women Plan Spring Events

by Marcia L. Elbrand

Scholarship awards in May and a Severn River cruise in June are ahead for Rossmoor Women’s Club (RWC) members.

The annual scholarship luncheon, a Club calendar highlight, is on Wednesday, May 13, at noon at Manor Country Club. The event will include a presentation of scholarships to outstanding young women from Blake High School.

Winners will be chosen by education committee volunteers, under the direction of chairperson Rita Posner. A total of 15 applicants will be screened, and monetary awards will go to the four top applicants.

Anchors Aweigh

RWC takes a Severn River cruise on Friday, June 26. The trip is open to all. See Club Trips in this edition for details and registration information.

Camp No Limits

Fifty RWC members gathered recently for a potluck luncheon to hear guest speaker Michele Martin describe activities at Camp No Limits, a three-day program that gives children with limb deficiencies or amputations a chance to build lifelong friendships with other youngsters who have similar challenges.

RWC recently added this organization to the list of local groups it helps to support with an annual gift. The camp, which is located in Maryland, began more than a decade ago with four children in attendance and now has served more than 1,000 youngsters, with programming for their parents and siblings as well.

Such camp programs that teach life and coping skills, are rare in the U.S. Martin, a nurse from Frederick, Maryland, whose teenaged daughter Jesse has participated in the program three different times, shared pictures and posters showing some of the youngsters’ accomplishments.

The cost to attend the camp is $500, so donations to the non-profit foundation that supports the camp are welcome, Martin said.

Checks (payable to Camp No Limits) may be mailed care of the program’s director, Mary Leighton, at (Camp No Limits, 265 Centre Rd., Wales, ME 04280). Further information is available on the group’s website at (www.nolimitsfoundation.org).

Get Involved

“Involvement in Rossmoor Women’s Club means you are supporting more than a dozen local charities,” said Abigail Murton, Club president.

Among them are year-long support for the pre-school Head Start class at nearby Harmony Hills Elementary School, college scholarships and Fisher House Foundation, which runs a residence for those visiting hospitalized military men and women.

Other charities receiving help from RWC include the Betty Fisher House Foundation, which runs a residence for returning military men and women; the Annapolis Children’s Scholarship Fund; the Southern Maryland Heart Association; and the Ronald McDonald House, which runs a residence for those visiting hospitalized children in the area.

Membership in RWC is open to both residents and others living in nearby communities. Dues are $40 per year and may be mailed at any time to Aggie Eastham, membership chair, at (310 N. Leisure World Blvd., Apt. 126, Silver Spring, MD 20906).

Residents and their guests who would like to know more about RWC are welcome to attend a board meeting, which are regularly held on the second Monday of the month at 10:30 a.m. in Clubhouse I.

Club membership is now at 153 individuals, including 39 who have joined since May 2019.

March 20: Pickleball Club Holds Spring Meeting

by Dee Berkholtz

It’s hard to believe that the official start of spring is just weeks away, and the Pickleball Club is not letting any grass grow under its feet. Plans have already started taking shape to schedule spring and summer activities, including a ladder program, charitable fundraiser, tournaments and social activities.

To learn about the planned activities and to get an update on the outdoor courts, Club members are urged to attend the spring meeting on Friday, March 20, at 5 p.m. in Clubhouse II. The meeting is open to all residents who are interested in learning more about the sport or Club.

The first ever Pickleball Club directory is about to be published and will be shared only with those who have registered on the website (www.LWPickleball.net) and paid their dues to Steve Van Albert, available at (steve.vanalbert@gmail.com). At some point soon, only those fully registered with dues paid will continue to receive weekly email schedules and periodic email notices.

When members register online, they are given the opportunity to indicate how much contact information they want shared with other Club members. Any member who needs help registering online can send an email to (LWPickleballMD@gmail.com) to request assistance.

Beginner clinics were temporarily discontinued but will resume on Tuesday, March 17, at 2:30 p.m. in Clubhouse II. Anyone interested in signing up for a clinic with Scott Keenum can reach him at (sskeenum@gmail.com).

For more information about the sport or the Pickleball Club, visit (www.LWPickleball.net). Interested members can ask questions via the “Contact” link or sign up via the “Join the Club” link.

Out of this World Chess Play
by Bernie Ascher

Quietly, 250 miles above the Earth, the International Space Station (ISS) has been circling for more than two decades. It is the largest object placed in space by humans. Larger than a football field and weighing more than 924,000 pounds, it circles the Earth every 90 minutes at a speed of 17,500 miles per hour, completing 15.54 orbits each day.

Starting in November 1998, five space agencies assembled the ISS in orbit over a 30-year period, and still renovate and add to it. The size of a five-bedroom house, it has been occupied continuously since its completion, usually by three to six astronauts at a time, sometimes by as many as 12. More than 230 astronauts from 18 countries have visited and stayed there.

The Space Station is truly international. The U.S., Russian Federation, Canada, Japan and the European Space Agency cooperated in constructing the station, based on a 1998 agreement, at a total cost of about $150 billion.

The ISS serves as a research laboratory with more than 300 experiments currently in progress. For example, scientists are assessing the performance of an experimental drug to prevent or mitigate loss of muscle due to microgravity (low gravity). Anheuser-Busch scientists are studying the malting of barley in microgravity, which the company believes could lead to brewing beer in space.

In addition to observing how microgravity affects human health, other scientists are testing how fire interacts with immediate surroundings in confined space and in microgravity.

Crews in the ISS depend on supplies from rockets launched by space agencies. Supplies consist of food, water, bathroom tissue and other essentials, plus tools and parts for repairs.

What chess fans would like to know, however, is whether it is possible to play chess in space. Would the chessboard and the pieces float about the cabin aimlessly due to lack of gravity? Could our engineers design a set made with Velcro, or snaps or magnets?

It would appear that space would be ideal for playing chess. Astronauts could play in an atmosphere of peace and quiet and without kibitzers. Perhaps with a soft drink, snacks and some pleasant piped-in music.

The answer is yes, chess can be played in space and has been played in the ISS. In fact, the first Space vs. Earth chess game started in September 2008. Astronaut Greg Chamitoff played aboard the ISS against NASA’s ground team in Houston. Earth won the game in December 2008.

The solution follows this reminder that the Chess Club meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 1-4 p.m. in Clubhouse II. For further information, call Club president Bernie Ascher at (301-598-8577).

SOLUTION: White moves the Bishop from c1 to a3, checking the King. Black interposes the Queen at e7. White’s Queen captures the Black Queen and checks the King. The King moves to g8. White’s Queen moves to e8. Checkmate! So, do not wait for zero gravity. Do not wait for more experiments. Do not wait for transportation to the International Space Station. Play chess now!

Participants will watch and discuss the documentary film “One Woman, One Vote.” Also included is an optional trip to the National Archives Museum in Washington, D.C.

NEW – Geography Up Close: Regional Landscapes of the U.S., a CLL course: Across its vast spaces, the U.S. has great landscape diversity. This diversity is partly the result of physical factors, such as landforms and climate. But a place’s landscape is also made by the people who live there. Because this country lured many people of many cultural heritages, and these heritages blended with those of indigenous Native Americans, the landscapes they created drew on disparate histories and were subject to many distinct environmental conditions.

One way that geographers are able to study and make sense out of all of this is through regional analysis. In this course, participants will examine the entire nation, looking at uniform regions, which will be multi-featured, representing an area’s combined physical and/or cultural elements.

The regions to be covered include megalopolis, bypassed East, manufacturing core, Appalachia and the Ozarks, agricultural core, emerging South, southern coastlands, Great Plains, empty interior, Southwest border, Alaska and Hawaii, and California and the West Coast.

The course will be led by geographer/community planner Tom Conger.

Class meets Tuesday, April 14-May 19, 1-2 p.m. Fee: $15. Register at Clubhouse I.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE EDUCATION

Advanced Conversational Spanish, a CLL course: Discussion topics will include: what happened yesterday, last week or last year; vacation activities and what was done in the past; activities that occurred in the past; sports; buying clothes; and living in the city. Participants will also discuss the cultural aspects of the Spanish-speaking world.

The class, taught by resident Judy Frumkin, is conversation-based and meets Tuesdays, March 10-April 21, 10-11:30 a.m. Fee: $25 (includes materials fee). Register at Clubhouse I.

Spanish for Travelers, a CLL course: This course is geared for those who plan to travel to Spanish-speaking countries and wish to gain more proficiency in Spanish terms to facilitate travel. Topics to be discussed include: greeting and farewells, introductions; questions words; number and telling time; at the airport; checking into or out of a hotels and problems that could be encountered at a hotel; general terms and phrases about eating and drinking; how to order food and beverages at a restaurant; travelling around; meeting people; shopping; and health and safety.
