Wood Shop and Chapel Team Up to Make Pews Wheelchair Accessible

The Inter-Faith Chapel strives to be “A House of Prayer for All People” and, thanks to the crafty help of some volunteers from the wood shop, it’s continuing to live up to its moniker.

Rick Kaiser, Bob Namovicz, Dave Miller and Paul Scheible, four volunteers from the wood shop, are working together to remodel a few of the Chapel’s pews to provide handicap accessibility for up to six congregants, so that those in wheelchairs or scooters can easily find seating.

“We wanted to make it feel inclusive,” Kaiser said, adding that currently handicapped congregants must either sit in the back of the Chapel or in the aisle.

To achieve their goal, the volunteers are shortening the length of some of the pews and constructing new wooden end caps for them, before reinstalling them near the center of both the right and left sides of the Chapel’s sanctuary.

Redesign Project

The modified pews are just one part of a larger redesign project planned for the Chapel’s sanctuary and vestibule,

Board Approves Cloud-Based Field Service Software for Physical Properties Department

by Stacy Smith, Leisure World News

The Leisure World Community Corporation (LWCC) board of directors unanimously approved the recommendation of the Budget and Finance Advisory Committee, Physical Properties Department (PPD) Advisory Committee and management to purchase AgileField software licenses for PPD at its regular meeting on July 31.

The motion states that the 2018 Contingency Fund will provide $62,500 for AgileField’s software and equipment.

PPD technicians will use AgileField’s cloud computing software and equipment, such as tablets, as part of their field service management system.

Switching from current field service product, Optsy, to a cloud-based product like AgileField has benefits that include shared folders and document recovery, automatic software updates and increased security, among many others, according to a report provided to the LWCC board by Dave Merritt, senior business/systems analyst for Leisure World of Maryland Corporation.

Aztec Calendar Stone Reproduction Ensconced in Montgomery Mutual's Boardwalk

by Kimberly Y. Choi

It may be that no one adheres to its cosmology any longer, nor worships the deity depicted in its center, but the 800-pound likeness of the famous Aztec Calendar Stone continues to adorn the Boardwalk in Montgomery Mutual.

The stone reproduction belonged to John Harlan, who lived in Montgomery Mutual during the community's early years.

In an interview published in a 1971 edition of Rossmoor News (the forerunner to Leisure World News), Harlan explained that he received the reproduction as a gift from the Mexican government for his legal services to Mexican industry.

"I had expected a much smaller copy of the calendar, perhaps six inches in diameter," he said. "I was stunned when this one arrived on a railroad car."

The stone is so large that Harlan ended up renting a moving van just to transport it to his home in Bethesda. When he and his wife later prepared to move to Leisure World, they considered donating it to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. But they found it too difficult to part with.

The Foundation of Leisure World was enthusiastic to have the special gift on Leisure World grounds and funded the transport of the three and a half-foot stone.

Historical Context

Three and a half feet is yet small in comparison to the imposing original, which measures almost 12 feet in diameter. It is on display at the National Anthropology Museum in Mexico City, Mexico.

The Stone was found underground in 1790 during work on a cathedral in Mexico's Plaza Principal, according to 20th century archaeologist Enrique Juan Palacios.

The discoverers planned to rebury it, but the viceroy ordered that it be given to researchers and put on public display.

At the center of the Aztec Calendar Stone, also called the Stone of the Sun, is an Aztec deity, which, according to the Getty Research Institute website, is the god of either the sun or the earth.

The Stone's surrounding concentric circles represent the movement of astronomical bodies and are inscribed with dates.

Although it displays 20 days of the 260-day Aztec year, the Stone was not used as a calendar, according to the Getty Research Institute. Rather, it was an altar for the Aztecs' well-known ritual sacrifices.

Leisure World's unbloodied reproduction, on the other hand, merely sits in silence near one of the community's peaceful walking paths.

Board

Several software vendors were considered, but AgileField won out over its competitors because of the automatic inventory it can provide PPD's warehouse, according to Thomas Snyder, assistant general manager of PPD facilities and services.

Bulk Internet

The LWCC board also passed a motion asking management to seek an arrangement during negotiations with any future internet provider that would allow the community to be charged a master fee, which would then be billed to those residents who use the service.

Proponents of billing only residents who use the internet service said that some segments of the Leisure World population are already part of another internet plan/package, or don't use internet service at all, and therefore would be unduly charged.

Management is currently reviewing approximately 1,500 resident responses to a survey concerning internet/broadband service utilization that was sent to all Leisure World residences in late June.

The survey's results will help the LWCC board evaluate the potential advantages of seeking bulk-rate internet service for the community.

Strategic Planning

The Special Strategic Planning Committee (SSPC) has received a proposal from a consulting company and anticipates receiving more before Friday, Aug. 3, the committee's due date for proposals, said SSPC chairperson Arthur Popper.

The LWCC board tasked the SSPC in April 2017 with developing a long-range strategic plan for the Trust. Approximately two months ago, the SSPC submitted a request for proposal from 17 consulting companies who have expertise in strategic planning for communities.

Upon completion of the bidding process, the SSPC will recommend its preferred consultant to the LWCC board of directors for approval, and a contract issued for work on the strategic plan is tentatively expected by Thursday, Nov. 1.

Mutual 11 Crosswalk

A request by the Mutual 11 board through the Security and Transportation Advisory Committee (STAC) to approve the installation of a crosswalk at the intersection of Adderley Court and South Leisure World Boulevard was recently submitted to the LWCC board.

At its July 31 meeting, the board passed a motion to postpone a vote on a resolution that directs Mutual 11's request be sent back to the STAC for further information on pricing and distance from other crosswalks.

Other Updates

- Flooring work to help convert the old fitness center in Clubhouse II into a room for ping pong tables is expected to begin in early August. The ping pong tables are currently located in the Multi-Purpose Room in Clubhouse II.
- Roof and sprinkler pipe work at the MedStar Health medical center has been delayed because of inclement weather. Work will be performed on nights and weekends, weather permitting, and will not impact use of the facility.

The next meeting of the LWCC board of directors is Tuesday, Aug. 28. The board will start the meeting at 9 a.m. and anticipates going into closed session. The open session is scheduled to begin at 9:45 a.m. Unless they are legally closed, meetings are open to all residents.

surrounding hallways and the meditation chapel that includes reupholstered choir chairs, new carpeting, electrical work and updated outdoor signage.

"What we are trying to do is update the setting to keep it engaging, while maintaining the traditional character of this special place of worship," said Dr. Woodie Rea, senior minister.

Instead of the bright shade of crimson that pops out from the Chapel's pews and floors, congregants will see more muted colors that complement one another.

"It's going to be more relaxing," Kaiser said. "More meditative and contemplative."

Initial improvements to the Chapel, which included new lighting in the sanctuary and a sound system, began about a year and a half ago and coincided with the celebration of the Chapel's 50th anniversary, when many Chapel members and friends made donations.

This is the first major renovation to the Chapel to include carpeting and pews, according to Rea.

Divine Inspiration

Kaiser, who does design work for churches on the side, offered his volunteer services to the Chapel after feeling inspired by the hours he himself has spent sitting in its pews.

"You come here and there's a choir, great musical program [and] both pastors are amazing," he said.

The Inter-Faith Chapel's redesign project is scheduled to be complete by Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 3.

Explanation of 2019 Leisure World Annual Budget

by the Budget and Finance
Advisory Committee

Residents of Leisure World of Maryland (LW) pay monthly fees for the upkeep of the community. Therefore, it might be helpful to have a basic understanding of what’s in the budget, because that’s what the fees are based on.

Two budgets affect each homeowner: (1) the Leisure World Community Corporation (LWCC) budget, and (2) the budget of each resident’s mutual. “Mutuals” are the 29 individual common ownership communities – 27 condo associations, a co-op, and a homeowners association – that make up the Leisure World Trust.

The LWCC budget contains the income and expenses of the common, or “Trust,” property, including the clubhouses, Administration Building, golf course and other properties. Similarly, each mutual budget covers its own operating expenses, such as landscaping and painting.

To handle the day-to-day work in Leisure World, LWCC created the Leisure World of Maryland Corporation (LWMC), which currently has about 230 full- and part-time employees. LWMC is headed by a general manager (GM), who is accountable to the LWCC board of directors.

LWMC has also been hired by each of the 29 mutuals to be its agent, so LWMC works for your individual mutual as well as for the LW Trust.

Each year, the GM and his staff prepare a proposed budget for LWMC. The LWMC proposed budget is reviewed by many of the LWCC advisory committees such as the Physical Properties Department (PPD) Advisory Committee, Education and Recreation (E&R) Advisory Committee, and the Security and Transportation Advisory Committee (S&T).

The Budget and Finance Advisory Committee also reviews the proposed budget, and a forum is held for resident input. The LWMC budget is then submitted to the LWCC board of directors for approval.

Likewise, the proposed budgets for the individual mutuals are submitted for approval to each mutual’s board of directors. Of course, each mutual budget is different from all the others, so each mutual’s monthly fees vary, as well.

The LW budget is made up of a Community Facilities (CF) component and a Mutual Operating (MO) component.

CF includes services provided directly to the residents, and fees are charged on a per unit basis, so each unit owner pays the same amount, regardless of the size, age or location of their unit.

MO includes services that are provided to the mutuals, and fees are charged based on a contract with each mutual. The “Revenue Components” section of this article provides further details.

The operations of Leisure World are divided into “cost centers” such as E&R and PPD. Each of these cost centers usually has some source of income and some expenses. For example, PPD should take in as much in revenue as it pays out in employee salaries and equipment, but that doesn’t always work in practice.

Therefore, each resident has to pay a share of the PPD net loss, if any. The same is true for the cost of LW administration, the golf course and all the other facilities in the community. Careful monitoring of the cost centers is critical to the budget process.

The LW budget and the mutual budgets are extremely important to review and understand. Each resident has a say in what should be included in the budgets—acting through mutual or advisory committee representatives and/or attending meetings and expressing opinions directly to the decision makers. The more that is included, such as a proposal to add something new, the higher monthly resident fees must be. The more that is either eliminated or streamlined—or that increases income, such as higher user fees for the indoor swimming pools—the lower resident monthly fees could be.

REVENUE COMPONENTS

Community Facilities Fees: The Leisure World Community Facilities Fees and Expenses amount to $174.75 per unit, per month in 2019. The chart at the top of page 5 shows the breakdown for 2018 and proposed amount for 2019 as a percent of the total and the allocation per unit, per month.

Again, keep in mind that this represents the net revenue required to fund that category, so if there is income (such as golf course greens fees or pool fees), it has already been deducted.

A specific example would be the indoor swimming fees expected to be collected in 2019; all fees collected are used to reduce costs for that cost center (in this case, the E&R part of the budget). Total expenses in excess of the revenues are the residents’ cost. This cost is divided by the number of billing units and are included in the Community Facilities Fee portion of your monthly mutual payment.

Once again, this Community Facilities Fee is only part of a resident’s monthly mutual fee. The remainder of the monthly fee is made up of direct mutual costs.

Mutual Operating Fees: This revenue is generated from direct expenses charged to the mutuals based on their Management and Operating Agreements with LWMC. It includes such costs as payroll and overhead costs incurred by LWMC in their work for the mutuals. It also includes such items as lawn mowing and snow removal. The fees for each mutual vary, depending on the services used.

PPD Services: This represents fees earned by the PPD from direct charges to residents and mutuals for work performed. It includes such things as maintenance agreement contracts with residents and specific work requested by a mutual or resident.

Other User Fees: This category includes revenue generated by other fees such as golf course greens fees, indoor swimming pool fees and registration fees for classes.

Employees: Personnel expense is the largest single expense associated with managing the community (employees are those retained by LWMC, not by any outside contractors). The chart at the bottom of page 5 summarizes personnel in each department. The employee numbers are expressed in FTEs (full-time equivalents), meaning part-time employees are added together and converted to equivalent full-time positions.

Keeping Up with the Board of Directors

by Stacy Smith, Leisure World News

Leisure World is a self-governed community, so several discussions and decisions occur at its monthly Leisure World Community Corporation (LWCC) board of directors meetings that residents may find informative.

Comprised of residents who represent each of the 29 mutuals, the LWCC board of directors is a voting body that controls the annual budget, makes decisions regarding major contracts and projects and determines Trust policies, programs and services.

Each mutual sends at least one representative from its board to sit on the LWCC board of directors. Board members volunteer their time and leadership to sustain the community.

But every resident has a responsibility to stay abreast of the community's governance activities.

Attend a Board Meeting

The LWCC board of directors meetings are open to all residents. The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 28, at 9:45 a.m. in Clubhouse I.

Residents may attend to listen to the proceedings or to comment on agenda items upon which no action was taken, community policies, or the operations of the LWCC facilities during the meeting's open forum section.

Residents may also comment on an agenda item before the board votes on it. Residents who can't attend may have their say by sending an email to (board@lwmc.com).

Correspondence between residents and the board is included in the agenda packet of the following board of directors meeting.

Upcoming board of directors meeting dates, times and locations are listed on:

- the Governance Meeting Schedules section on the Calendar of Events page of the Leisure World News

- the resident website (residents.lwmc.com) community calendar
- Channel 974's broadcast calendar

Agendas and Minutes

Meeting agendas and minutes are available at (residents.lwmc.com). After signing in to the website, click on the drop down arrow next to Resident Documents and select Resident Document Locator.

The Board of Directors folder therein contains the meeting agendas and minutes for 2017 and 2018, which may be downloaded, printed or viewed online. An upcoming meeting's agenda is typically posted on the website a few days before the meeting is held.

Residents who have not signed up on (residents.lwmc.com) can still receive a hard copy of an agenda, minutes or other document by contacting their mutual's manager or assistant, or by inquiring at the Administration Building.

Video Broadcast

Residents who are unable to attend a meeting can catch its playback on channel 974 the following week. Board of directors meetings are broadcast on Monday, Wednesday and Friday the week after the meeting. All broadcasts are at 4 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Get to Know Your Board Representative

Residents can contact their board representative by email, letter, phone, or in-person. Residents can find the name and contact information for the board of director for their mutual by contacting their mutual manager or assistant, or by calling (301-598-1000).

Elected board members represent their mutual's constituents and should be happy to address their concerns or questions.

Idling

I thank LW Green for their informative article in the June 15, 2018 edition of the Leisure World News on the many real costs of idling a car or truck. Reducing idling seems like an issue that the intelligent residents of Leisure World can successfully tackle. Our demand for more and more fuel for gas-powered vehicles, which increases the demand for crude oil, is used to justify drilling and fracking.

Drilling is now threatening pristine forests, waters, other wildlife habitats and all adjacent coastlines and fisheries. Fracking has been shown to cause illness among the human populations where it is done and most likely also produces earthquakes where the ground is so deeply disturbed.

There is no escape from this loop of damage and illness except to reduce demand and stop burning up so much fossil fuel on our lovely planet. In this case, less will get us more!

Leisure World Board and Management Showing Contempt for Residents

On Nov. 30, 2017, the Leisure World

Community Corporation (LWCC) board of directors and management asked the Montgomery County Planning Board to approve their plans for a new Administration Building, despite much opposition from the residents of Leisure World.

The Planning Board refused to do what the LWCC board and management wanted. Instead, they deferred action and the Planning Board members told the LWCC board and management the following:

One Commissioner said, “It doesn’t seem like there’s consensus in the community. It’s difficult for us to move ahead,” and “Have better discussions and consensus,” and the project was “not meeting the needs of the residents” who are paying the bills.

Another Commissioner said, “Our most successful projects are when the applicant truly engages the community,” and “Talk to the people who live there and make consensus,” and “It’s just bad that you don’t have your community behind you. It’s your job to make sure you have engagement.”

The Planning Board Chair said that the project was “not well considered.”

So what did the LWCC board and management do? They ignored all this good advice from the Planning Board. Instead, they made very slight changes in the plans for the Administration Building, and then met with small groups of mutual board members, ignoring the vast majority of Leisure World residents.

According to a report handed out at the May 2018 LWCC board meeting, “The primary focus of the presentation [to mutual boards] was to update residents on the status of the site plan.” How can such one-way communication possibly fulfill the Planning Board’s recommendations?

Soon, the LWCC board and management will go back to the Planning Board. I suspect they will claim they complied with what the Planning Board members requested them to do last November. If so, they will not be telling the truth.

It’s not too late. If the members of the LWCC board and management really cared about the residents of Leisure World, they could schedule a town hall meeting. They could seriously consider compromises, such as making the new building a third Clubhouse for the use of residents. They have already changed the plans for the new building many times. They can make this change to benefit Leisure World residents.

The LWCC board and management claim their plans will make it easier for residents to walk to Clubhouse I from the parking lot. If they made the new building a third Clubhouse, it would be far easier for residents to park anywhere in the parking lot and walk just a few feet to the clubhouse. Then, all or part of the existing Clubhouse I could be used to make more room for staff.

That – more room for staff – is the real goal of building the new Administration Building, as stated by management in the February 2017 LWCC board agenda packet.

I suspect the LWCC board and management will continue to ignore the huge number of Leisure World residents who do not want a new Administration Building to be built, and instead want a new clubhouse for the benefit of Leisure World residents.

I believe this will prove that the LWCC board and management have contempt for Leisure World residents.

Communication for Leisure World Residents

A letter of mine about communications appeared in Thoughts and Opinions on June 1, 2018. In that letter, I argued for improving communications at Leisure World between residents, leadership and administration. Excellent

SUBMITTING AN ITEM TO THOUGHTS & OPINIONS

2. Receipt of submissions will be confirmed by email or telephone.
3. Submissions must state the writer’s name, address, telephone number, and email address, if any, but if the material is published, it will include only the writer’s name.

5. To view the full Leisure World News Guidelines, login to (residents.lwmc.com) and click on Documents, then select the Advisory and Special Committees folder, and click the Communications folder.

communications in both directions is critically important for the future of our community!

I pointed out that it was very hard for residents to find contact information to enable them to easily get in touch with various administrators to share thoughts. I pointed out that there was no listing of individual department heads.

Moreover, even though a growing proportion of Leisure World residents communicate via email, there was no listing of email addresses for various Leisure World units to enable easy contact with people in Leisure World administration.

Within days of my letter I received a very nice email (note, email!) from general manager Kevin Flannery telling me that email addresses would be available very shortly both in Leisure World News and on the web in order to facilitate communications. And, as promised, the Leisure World News has a listing of new general email addresses for five administrative offices. These have also been added to (residents. lwmc.com).

I do appreciate this effort, but it does not go nearly as far as I think is needed to enhance Leisure World communications. What residents need is not an email address that goes to "administration," but a direct email to specific individuals in each administrative unit (e.g., the head of the unit) with their names and job titles.

Moreover, I am concerned about who receives the emails sent to these new general addresses. How does one ensure that the material ever gets to the head of the administrative group? Indeed, the motivation for my earlier letter was that I specifically wanted to write to the head of the Physical Properties Department (PPD) to praise several staff members.

While we now have a generic email for PPD, we still have no idea if the administrator really ever sees the material. And, what if I wanted to criticize someone and that is the very person who first gets the email to the anonymous address?

In contrast to the seeming lack of interest in direct and easy email communication with residents, other organizations seem to encourage communication from vastly larger groups of people. As an example, last week I wanted to complain about something to do with (www.amazon.com). I quickly and easily discovered that Jeff Bezos, the CEO of Amazon, not only has his email address widely available on the web, but that he writes that he wants people to send him issues so that his immediate staff can ensure that the issues are addressed.

I have found similar things with (believe it or not) the CEO of Comcast (and I had my issue resolved unbelievably quickly), Dell Computer, and many other major corporations. If Jeff Bezos can publish his email address, why can't the general manager and the heads of the Leisure World departments?

I appreciate that management does not have a large staff to respond to emails. However, I suspect that they will not get inundated with emails. At the same time, since two-way communication would greatly enhance the living experience at Leisure World, I trust that creative ways can be found to deal with email. Moreover, perhaps getting emails and hearing from more residents will give our administrators and others a better sense of the community. And this communication will let residents feel they are more aware of what is happening in our community.

Right now, a very good baby step has been taken to improve communications, but bigger steps can be taken quickly by just listing names and contacts for critical people and enabling residents to know who works for them, and that they have a route to share thoughts and opinions and get help.

Aug. 12: TransAtlantic Duo Perform Klezmer to Classical

You might think that there is not much in common between Bach and Klezmer, or between traditional Russian music and jazz.

Yet the TransAtlantic Duo – Alexander Paperny (balalaika) and Vladimir Fridman (guitar and vocals) – command their instruments with virtuosity to seamlessly bring together these diverse styles in their exploration of the world's musical heritage.

Sponsored by the E&R Department, the Duo returns to Leisure World on Sunday, Aug. 12, and will perform at 7 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Tickets for this event are $7 per person and on sale in both clubhouse E&R offices. Please bring your Leisure World ID. Don't miss your chance to hear them!

The program includes Jewish and Klezmer music, as well as Russian, Brazilian, Argentinean and popular classical pieces.

About the Musicians

Paperny and Fridman have worked together for many years. In Moscow, Russia, between 1988 and 1998, they played in an eccentric show group, Jazz Balalaika, with which they toured all over the world and recorded several CDs.

Paperny lives in Hamburg, Germany, while Fridman lives in Gaithersburg

Maryland. Yet this distance does not separate these two musicians. Since 2005, the two have annually toured in the U.S. and Europe as the TransAtlantic Duo. In the U.S., they have performed at the John. F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C., and many other great venues.

Coming in 2018

Aug. 16: Donate to the School Supply Drive

by Bonnie Bonner

On Thursday, Aug. 16, from 8:30 a.m.-noon, volunteers from the Interfaith Committee for the Homeless and Working Poor will collect school supplies for local elementary school students.

Crayons, glue sticks, children's scissors, plastic pocket folders, color pencils, black dry erase markers and zipper pencil pouches are welcome. Quart- and gallon-sized zipper bags, facial tissues, paper towels, hand sanitizers and cleaning wipes are also needed.

Residents may drop off their donations curbside at Clubhouse I. Residents may also make a donation by check, payable to The Inter-Faith Chapel. Make sure to write "school supplies" on the memo line.

All donated supplies and funds will be given to the teachers at Georgian Forest Elementary School in Silver Spring, Maryland.

When school funds are depleted, teachers often spend their own money to buy supplies for students. Nearly all teachers in a national survey – 99.5 percent – reported covering the cost of some classroom materials, according to the National School Supply and Equipment Association.

Let's help these hard-working professionals provide for their students.

Aug. 18: Still Surfin': Tribute to the Beach Boys

There'll be "Good Vibrations" when Still Surfin' rocks the stage in Clubhouse II on Saturday, Aug. 18 – twice in one day!

Show times are at 4:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. Pick the show that is perfect for you. Tickets are $15 per person and on sale in both clubhouse E&R offices. Please bring your Leisure World ID.

Based in Washington, D.C., Still Surfin' is a well-known Beach Boys tribute and surf band that has been performing together for almost 20 years. Members are

Matthew Grose (lead vocals, guitar); Cal Everett (vocals, Fender bass); Rob Isele (vocals, keyboard); Matt Miller (vocals, drums, percussion); and Jonathan Mudd (vocals, guitar) and all are huge fans of The Beach

Boys.

None of the group members is a career musician, yet each brings a different musical background that has enabled the band to master the five-part harmonies and surprisingly difficult arrangements of The Beach Boys' music. And while not trying to look like particular members of The Beach Boys, their performance is truly reminiscent of the original live tours.

Remember the first time you heard The Beach Boys on the radio, singing "Little Surfer Girl"? What about "I Get Around," "California Girls," "Help Me Rhonda" or "God Only Knows." And no one can forget "Barbara Ann" or "Surfin' USA."

These are just a few of the songs Still Surfin' will have you reliving. You are sure to hear all your favorites.

Aug. 25: Hawaiian-Themed Dance Features Mike Surratt and the ECB

All non-resident guests must be invited by a Leisure World resident. Residents may still join the Club for $10 annually, which entitles them to pay $10 per person for each dance.

Non-members and guests pay $15 per person for each dance.

Residents new to the community are encouraged to attend a monthly dance to see what the Club is all about. Live bands play all varieties of ballroom music, including waltzes, foxtrots, quickstep, tango, swing, hustle, all types of Latin and a few polkas for good measure. All music is played in strict ballroom tempo.

Put on your dancing shoes, make reservations and come dance with the Club on Aug. 25. The Sept. 22 dance features The Retro Rockets, another Leisure World favorite.

At the meeting, Computer Learning Center president Dave Merritt will discuss the low and impaired vision technology available at the Computer Learning Center in Clubhouse II.

The Group is fortunate that the Computer Learning Center has more than 20 computers, with one Mac and two PC's reserved for people with low and impaired vision. The Center is run by volunteer monitors with varying degrees of knowledge and experience who offer their assistance to visitors.

General Information

The Low Vision Support Group is for residents who have low or impaired vision and want to share tips or insight on living with the condition. It's not unlike the joke, "How do I get to Carnegie Hall? The answer is: practice. People with low or impaired vision can do anything with the right direction and practice.

■ FISH (Friends in Sickness and Health)

FISH Accepts Donations and Lends Equipment

by Beth Leanza

FISH is a volunteer, service organization that lends assistive equipment, such as walkers and wheelchairs, to Leisure World residents and employees.

In practice, the organization does not pursue its loans. If a person continues to need an item, FISH is happy to let them keep using it.

Borrowed Items

Residents who have stored away an item that they are no longer using, such as a commode, walker or even wheelchair, are asked to return it to the FISH office in Clubhouse II.

Borrowers are also asked to remind other members of their household that an item belongs to FISH. Items that belong to FISH have a sticker on them that reads "property of FISH" and an inventory number.

Donations

All of FISH's medical equipment is donated. FISH also accepts other useful medical items that it gives away.

Giveaway items are stored in the Clubhouse II basement, to the left of the FISH storage area. Residents and employees may take these items without returning them.

General Information

FISH is an acronym that stands for Friends In Sickness and Health. Located in Clubhouse II, the FISH office is open Monday to Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. The office phone number is (301-598-1345).

Residents who call the FISH office when it's closed or when the volunteer is assisting another resident are transferred to the E&R office. E&R staff can assist residents before and after hours.

Sept. 5: Confronting End-of-Life Choices

by Rosalind Kipping

Compassion and Choices holds its next meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 5, at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

The meeting includes the documentary film “Facing Death: Confronting End-of-Life Choices,” followed by a discussion about end-of-life choices for the self and loved ones.

How far would you go to sustain the life of someone you love, or your own? When the moment comes and you’re confronted with the prospect of “pulling the plug,” do you know how you will respond? The real decisions of how people die are made quietly behind closed doors, increasingly on the floors of America’s intensive care units (ICU).

In this film, Frontline gains access to the ICU of one of New York’s biggest hospitals to examine the complicated reality of today’s modern, medicalized death.

Doctors and nurses struggle to guide families through the maze of end-of-life choices they now confront, such as whether to pull feeding and breathing tubes, when to perform expensive surgeries and therapies and when to consider hospice care.

The film also offers an unusually intimate portrait of patients facing the prospect of dying in ways that they might never have wanted or imagined.

For more information about the film, see the Events and Entertainment section of this publication.

General Information

The Group’s resource tables provide information on a wide variety of end-of-life issues.

Annual dues are $2, and the fiscal year begins on Oct. 1.

To renew a membership or to become a member, bring $2 to the Sept. 5 meeting, and receive a high-quality Compassion and Choices shopping sack. Extra donations are welcome to help keep the resource tables full of important information.

Compassion and Choices meetings are open to all residents and their guests. Rosalind Kipping is available at (rozkippling@comcast.net) or (301-598-4171).

■ Ceramics Club

Ceramicist of the Month

Ceramics items made by Becky Rizvi, ceramicist of the month. Photo by Janice Handley

by Maggi Lindley

The Club's August ceramicist of the month is Becky Rizvi. She moved to Leisure World in 2015 and soon discovered its well-equipped ceramics studio.

Rizvi joined the Club, having experienced painting ceramics in commercial studios a few times over the past years, and was delighted to take advantage of what the studio has to offer. She finds pleasure in working with the various materials and being with the friends she has made at the studio.

Rizvi is an enthusiastic needlewoman and now enjoys the crossover between ceramics and needlework. Textiles inspire most of her ceramics designs.

"To me, the ceramics studio is one of the greatest treasures in Leisure World," she said.

Rizvi also loves the woodshop, where she is an active member.

General Information

The ceramics studio is located in Clubhouse II and serves as both a workshop and sales room. Looking for a gift? Come visit the Club's gift shop to find a little gem. All proceeds from the gift shop go to charity.

The Club welcomes visitors to the studio any time it is open. Friendly Club members are happy to show visitors around and answer any questions they may have.

Sept. 4: First Meeting of the Season Features Panel of Club Photographers

Photos by Camera Club members Frank Roddy (buck, eagle) and Woody Shields (winter trees, doe) capture nature at its most beautiful and quirky.

by Fred Shapiro

At the Camera's Club's first meeting of the season on Tuesday, Sept. 4, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse II, a panel of Club members expand on their approach to taking photographs.

The panel includes members Lou Paley, Frank Roddy and Woody Shields.

Each will talk about how they approach taking a photograph and will illustrate the discussion with a few of their images.

Considering the technical advancements in both digital cameras and iPhones, it is necessary for photographers to understand not only the technology, but also how the technology should influence their photography process.

Hearing successful photographers explain how they visualize a scene before they take the photo can help other photographers improve their own photographs.

All panel members have been awarded in the Club's competitions, and have had their photographs displayed in Clubhouse I library and hall-ways, and at The Inter-Faith Chapel.

The panel is another effort by the Club to entice residents to join and learn how to improve their photography skills. Whether using a point and shoot camera, digital reflex camera, iPhone or Android, the Sept. 4 meeting is a good opportunity to learn how to improve your skills.

Newly elected Rossmoor Art Guild (RAG) board member Marilyn Davis will serve as the Guild's co-vice president.

Fees

Nothing ever stays the same, and Rossmoor Art Guild (RAG) is no exception. RAG fees are set to increase for the next fiscal year starting in September.

Annual RAG membership can be paid in September for $15. Membership fees are due at whatever time of the year the resident joins.

Each six-week class costs $65 for residents and $70 for non-residents. Annual locker rental for art supply storage are $10 for the larger lockers, and $5 for smaller lockers. Make sure to check to see which lockers are available.

Plastic covers for the tables can be purchased for $1.25, or members can bring a suitable cover at no expense. Open Studio costs $3 each Saturday, or $15 for the six-week session.

Open House

The Open House, scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 13, marks the beginning of the fiscal year for the Club, at which time new fees go into effect. It is from 1-3:30 p.m. in the art studio in Clubhouse I, and includes a modest sale of art supplies and books.

Light refreshments will be served, and all residents are welcome to come and meet the RAG teachers and enroll in an art class or two.

Shows and Exhibits

With paintbrush in hand, talented Guild members are venturing out to exhibit their works.

RAG members showing their works at a juried show at the Artists and Makers Studios in Rockville, Maryland, include Ingrid Barnes, Ann Bolt, Kathleen Hopkins, Sherry Jose, Barbara McCool, RAG teacher Sharon Minor and Ann Pielert.

The show's reception is on Friday, Aug. 3, from 6-9 p.m. in the studio located at 11810 Parklawn Drive in Rockville, Maryland.

Open Studio Project

The Open Studio project for September and October is meant to reflect something that happened during those months. A list of historical events is posted in the studio foyer to stimulate ideas beyond falling leaves and pumpkins.

The current Open Studio exhibit features mixed media and continues through August.

Reminders

Just a few session days remain, and then members enjoy a break before the Open House. A new exhibit has been installed in Clubhouse I for the month of August.

The Guild is always looking for new exhibitors. RAG includes beginners, semi-professionals and just plain lucky ones who show their original works. Come join the ones who have found their inner artist.

Aug. 6: Get Your Tickets to See the Comic Operetta 'The Pirates of Penzance'

by Maggi Lindley

Thespians of the Gilbert and Sullivan Society of Leisure World have five weeks remaining before the house lights dim, the spotlights go up and the overture to Gilbert and Sullivan's much beloved "The Pirates of Penzance" resounds in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

The Society has been working hard on the music during the past weeks and is now having fun with the staging of the operetta.

The sets have been designed and building has begun under the expert eyes of J.J. and Betty Boulin.

Costumes are on order for some and being assembled for others.

Soon, the Society's sound techs, led by Euclid Coukoumu, and lighting experts, headed by Michael Heyman, will expertly transform the actors' appearances on stage.

Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10 a.m.-noon in the Clubhouse I lobby, and from 1-3 p.m. in Clubhouse II lobby. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, tickets are sold from 10 a.m.-noon in Clubhouse II lobby, and from 1-3 p.m. in Clubhouse I lobby. Tickets are $8 each and seating in the auditorium is on a first-come basis.

The Society hopes that residents will come and watch this topsy-turvy, funny musical treat involving a major general, his bevy of daughters, pirates and a handful of bumbling policemen. Please come and "let us entertain you!"

Tickets and Performance Dates

"The Pirates of Penzance" performance dates are Friday, Aug. 24, and Saturday, Aug. 25, at 7 p.m., and Sunday, Aug. 26 at 2 p.m.

Sept. 5: New Season of Theater Begins

by Hannette Allen

The first meeting and show of the season is on Wednesday, Sept. 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium. The show, directed by Clydis Kellough, features "The World of Dance."

Current members can receive their ID cards if they are already paid-up; others can join at the door. New members are welcome. Membership for the entire season is $10 and includes admission to all Wednesday meetings and shows. For guests, one-time admission is $5.

Thirteen years ago, Kellough moved to Leisure World. Shortly after, she began taking dancing lessons and soon after that, she met others who had found their performing niche, combining music and movement.

She is primarily a tap dancer and teacher, but she has developed a love of all types of dancing. For years, Kellough has wanted to put on a program that was primarily about dance, and is excited that it is finally underway. The program also contains some excellent songs.

All performers are enthusiastically rehearsing and excited to welcome everyone to the Fun and Fancy September show.

Baseball Corner

America is halfway through the 2018 baseball season, but Fun and Fancy is looking forward to November, when The Washington Senators and those "Damn Yankees" return for six "games."

You don't want to miss the song and dance version of that spectacular pennant race, which features Fun and Fancy's own talented performers. Performance dates are Friday, Nov. 9, through Sunday, Nov. 11, and Friday, Nov. 16, through Sunday, Nov. 18.

The Sunday, Nov. 11 and 18 are afternoon "games," and the rest are night "games." The Group predicts that this show will be a solid homerun. Ticket sale dates are forthcoming.

Correction: The Fun and Fancy article in the July 20 edition of Leisure World News erroneously listed Hannette Allen as the author. The author is Carol Hillmann.

Aug. 15: Group Holds Annual Garden Potluck Dinner

by Cindy Hensen

The Group gathers for its annual garden potluck dinner on Wednesday, Aug. 15, at 6 p.m. in Clubhouse II. Everyone is asked to bring a dish that includes something they have grown in their garden.

From tomato cake to cucumber salad, gardeners have found many inventive ways to use their crops, and they all sound delicious. Attend the potluck and let's all share in the hard work we have done to accomplish such terrific dishes.

Weeds

The fastest growing crop this year seems to be weeds, according to Elena Peterson, field supervisor inspector. Gardeners are asked to remove their garden's weeds as needed. If left alone, they take over and spread into other gardens.

Some gardeners seem to have their weeds under control, but unfortunately, the weeds seem to have the upper hand in the majority of the garden plots.

Remember to weed both inside and outside your fence line. McFall & Berry Inc. doesn't want to get too close to the plots' fences for fear of cutting them.

not permitted to grow small trees and bushes in the garden plots. Small bushes, such as roses, should be trimmed and kept within the confines of the plot's fences.

Gardeners should also prune bushes so that they do not cast a shadow or shade another garden. Planting should not exceed five feet.

Remember that under current garden plot rules, 75 percent of the garden should be in ground planting. Approximately four-six planters are acceptable. A couple of pots, used as planting boxes, are also acceptable, as long as they drain well and are planted and not left barren.

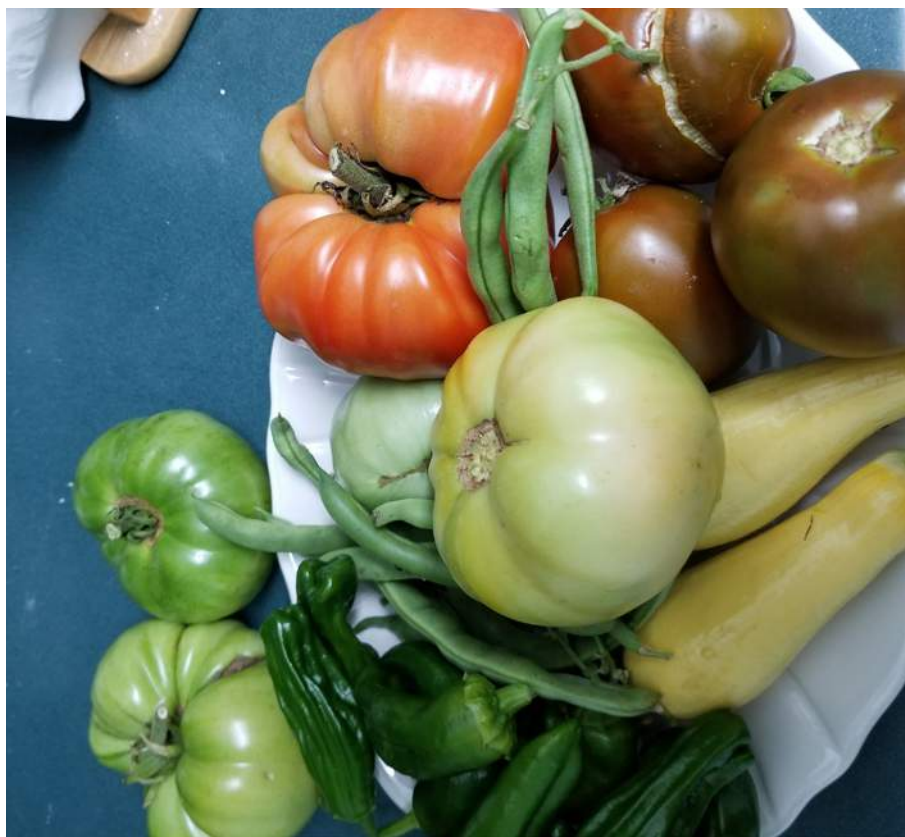

Occasionally a basket or other planting container can be used as long as the item follows these potting guidelines.

Unused planting boxes and pots should be turned over so that water does not accumulate. Do not store several unused bins, pots and buckets in the garden plots.

Place excess fencing, posts and even empty pots next to one of the sheds so that they are available to other gardeners.

Gardening Star

maintains a garden to help feed the needy.

She is willing to pick any gardener's extra or unwanted vegetables and will deliver them to the Shepard's Table mission in Silver Spring, Maryland.

She was donated kale and was able to make 300 salads!

Her contact information is in the sheds, and she is in her garden most Mondays and Fridays. There is no reason to let vegetables go to waste when there are people to feed.

General Information

The gardens are producing, and gardeners are sharing tips and stories and meeting new people. The Garden Plot Group meets the first Tuesday of the month at 9:30 a.m. in Clubhouse I. The next meeting is Aug. 7.

Remember to keep the plots watered during this hot season, and to drink plenty of water when gardening.

Sept. 13: Jewish Veteran Presents the Film ‘True Honor’ – the Story of Jewish Medal of Honor Recipients

by Fred Shapiro

On Thursday, Sept. 13, the Jewish War Veterans Post 567 presents Lt. Col. Sheldon A. Goldberg, who will show and discuss a video entitled “True Honor” – the story of Jewish Medal of Honor recipients.

The program is at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I and coincides with the celebration of Patriot Day. Tickets are $10 per person, (check only, payable to JWV Post 567), and available beginning Tuesday, Aug. 7, at 8:30 a.m. in the Clubhouse I E&R office.

The Medal of Honor was created during the American Civil War and is the highest military decoration that can be presented by the U.S. government to a member of its armed forces. A recipient must distinguish themselves at the risk of their own life above and beyond the call of duty in action against an enemy of the U.S.

Since its inception, 3,473 have received the medal in total. At least 27 of its recipients have been American Jews.

The first Jewish recipient was Benjamin Levy, just 17-years-old, of the 1st New York Infantry Regiment, for his service at the Battle of Glendale on June 30, 1862.

The citation for his Medal read, “This soldier, a drummer boy, took the gun of a sick comrade, went into the fight, and when the color bearers were shot down, carried the colors and saved them from capture.”

Henry Heller and David Orbansky also received the Medal for their actions during the American Civil War. Samuel Gross, who served in Fort Riviere, Haiti, was the only Jewish-American Marine to receive the Medal.

The last Jewish-American to receive the Medal was Korean War veteran Tibor Rubin in 2005. He was believed to have been overlooked for 55 years because of discrimination.

Lt. Col. Sheldon A. Goldberg. Photo courtesy of Maryland Public Television

Speaker Information

Goldberg is a 30-year veteran of the U.S. Air Force. Initially an enlisted bandsman, he subsequently applied for Officer Candidate School, was commissioned as a 2nd lieutenant in 1961 and became a navigator, flying cargo transports.

Later he became a weapons systems officer, flying both the F-4 Phantom the F-111 Aardvark, earning two Distinguished Flying Crosses for valor and 17 Air Medals.

Upon his retirement from the Air Force in 1985, he joined the CIA, retiring after 16 years in 2002 and earning a Career Commendation Medal.

Not yet ready to retire, he went back to school, earning a doctorate in modern European history from the University of Maryland in 2012, which subsequently led to his being named docent/historian at the National Museum of American Jewish Military History in Washington, D.C., where he lectures on the participation of American Jews in the U.S. military since pre-Colonial times.

He is active and an officer in several veterans’ organizations. He will soon begin his third tour as the Department of Maryland’s National Executive Committee representative for the Jewish War Veterans of the U.S.

Club Collects Back to School Supplies for Local Elementary Students

by Jack Colvis

To help begin the fall school semester, the Kiwanis Club invites residents to donate school supplies for Harmony Hills Elementary School students.

The school supplies collection box is located on a table in the Clubhouse I lobby through August. Supplies needed include tissues, pencils, pencil sharpeners, paper tablets, folders, glue, scissors, erasers, crayons and rulers.

Last year, the Kiwanis Club delivered 21 bags full of donated school supplies to the school.

Project Kindness

The Kiwanis Club launches its Project Kindness on Wednesday, Aug. 8, at 1 p.m. in Clubhouse I. Kiwanis members and resident volunteers will decorate small rocks with kind words of inspiration. Later this month, look around the neighborhood and see if you can find one of these tokens of appreciation lying around to take home with you.

General Information

Residents who would like to spend some of their time serving the local community and children should consider joining the Kiwanis Club of Leisure World.

Visit the Kiwanis Club meetings on the first Wednesday or third Friday of each month in Clubhouse I or, for more information, contact Heather Benjamin-Alexis at (240-433-0948) or Jack Colvis at (301-598-5380).

Tournament Raises $2,000 for Children's National Medical Center

by Maxine Hooker

Seventy-two golfers and the Southern Maryland Junior Golf Association participated in the Lions Club's third annual Celebrity Golf Tournament in support of the prevention of pediatric diabetes on July 20.

Golfers came as far as Charlotte, North Carolina, and as near as right here in Leisure World, with residents and Golf Club members joining in the fun.

Dr. Fran Cogen, diabetologist from Children's National Medical Center in Washington, D.C., was the award luncheon keynote speaker. She spoke on childhood diabetes – its causes, effects and treatment. The information she provided increased the audience's awareness and knowledge of the illness.

The Lions Club presented Cogen with a $2,000 donation to support the Children's National Health System's Division of Endocrinology and Diabetes. An additional $500 was given to the Southern Maryland Junior Golf Association to assist in their teaching and development of youth golf.

It was a wonderful day for golf at Leisure World and another "roaring" Lions Club success!

Group Members Share Their Prose and Poetry

by Gladys Blank

At the last meeting of the Group, members read several interesting essays, poems and articles on a variety of subjects.

Jane Hawes recalled a few days spent with her husband in Asia where they sampled typical Far East food specialties, among other delights. Verna Denny recalled seeing a $10 bill flutter to the ground a few feet ahead of her, and she wondered exactly what to do with it.

Woody Shields read an article about antler restrictions, and Radha Pillai recounted the big, old banyan tree in that sat in town square in India, and how treasured it was by everyone. Grace Cooper once again charmed the Group by reading two of her lovely poems about love.

Gladys Blank, a long-time baseball fan, read an essay about the 89th All-Star baseball game, and connected it with of her upcoming 89th year. Thomas Anessi read two of his profound, thoughtful poems – "Waiting" and "Morbid Thought." Several new members read their entries as well.

The Writers of Leisure World meet on the first and third Thursday of each month at 11 a.m. in Clubhouse I. All residents are welcome to attend.

Club's Trips are Open to Married and Single Residents Alike

by Elizabeth Brooks-Evans

The Going It Alone Club (GIAC) is a social club of fun and fellowship for single residents of Leisure World.

Residents whose spouses are incapacitated are welcome as well. Club trips are open to all residents, whether married or single.

The Club meets every Saturday (known as Saturday Afternoon Live - SAL!) beginning with armchair travel at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse II.

Armchair Travel

Well-known travel guide Rick Steves has been doing an excellent job of guiding GIAC armchair travelers through Europe by way of widescreen video every Saturday at 2 p.m.

On Saturday, Aug. 4, after going fishing for anchovies off Cefalù in Sicily, land in rough-and-tumble Palermo. Marvel at the eerie skeletons in a Capuchin crypt, airy mosaics of Monreale, enchanting ruins of Segesta, and climb to the fiery rim of Mount Etna volcano.

On Saturday, Aug. 11, it's on to quintessential Germany, and that means Bavaria and its frothy beer halls, Europe's most famous fairytale castles, the exciting city of Munich, fun in the breathtaking Alps and finishing at Germany's highest peak.

Games

Bingo is enjoyed on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month from 2:30-4 p.m. in Clubhouse II.

The games are free and participants may play as many Bingo cards as they can handle. The winner of the last game of the day, known as "Blackout," receives a special gift.

GIAC needs someone to assist in calling the Bingo games. Anyone interested should contact Sylvia Pachenker at (301-598-5325).

Pokeno is played on non-Bingo Saturdays. Bridge and other board games are played every Saturday.

If enough members are interested, poker will be added.

Trips

Trips are scheduled to Harris' Crab House plus the Amish Market on Thursday, Sept. 20, and Harrington Casino on Wednesday, Nov. 7.

More detailed information on GIAC trips can be found in the Club Trips section of this publication.

Sign-ups up for trips take place during SAL! from 1:30-3 p.m. in Clubhouse II when a representative from the program committee is available to receive payments and answer questions.

The GIAC newsletter, which has more trip information, is also available at that time.

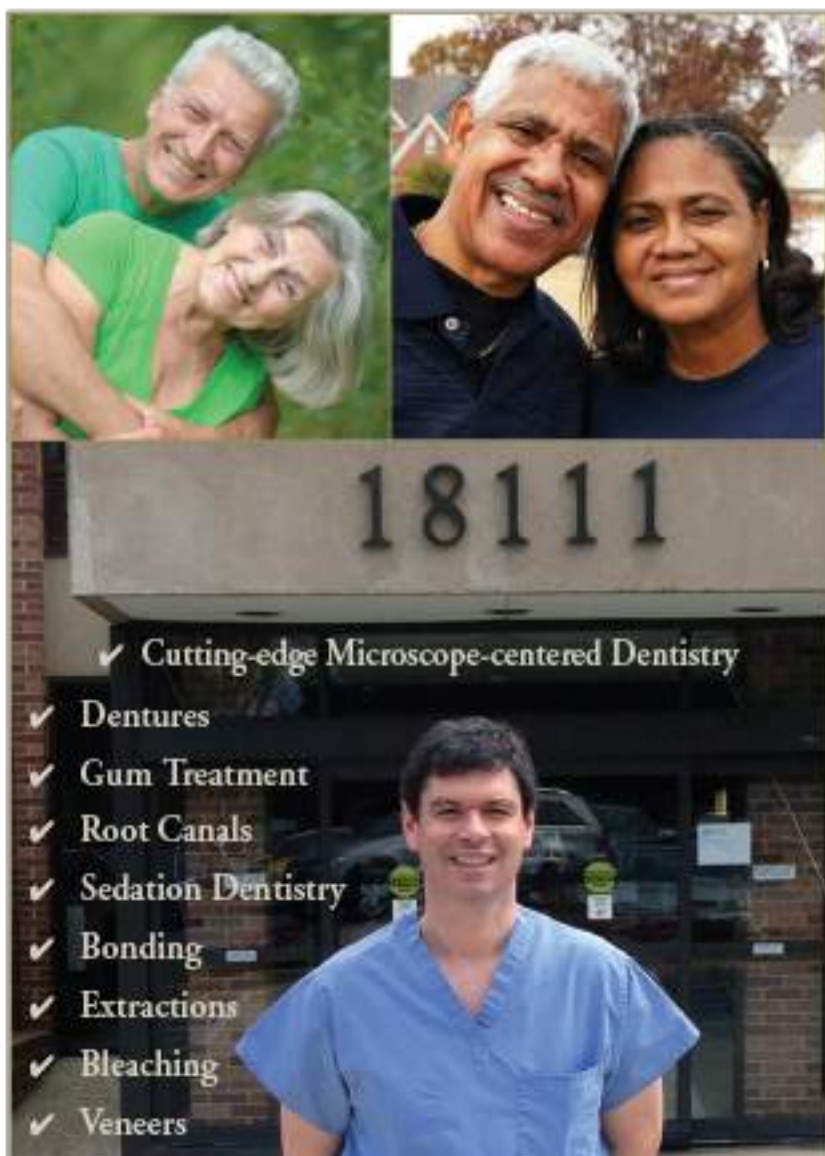

For questions about trips, call Joe Parker at (301-598-3457) or Sylvia Pachenker at (301-598-5325).

Membership

Anyone wishing to sign up for GIAC membership or renew his or her membership can do so every SAL! from 1:30-3 p.m. in Clubhouse II.

The fee is a nominal $7 per year, and the income from dues is used to pay Club expenses and enhance its activities.

For more information about membership, contact Sylvia Pachenker at (301-598-5325).

Boomers Picnic at the Pavilion and Look Ahead to Three Upcoming Musicals

by Beth Leanza

The Club's next picnic is Sunday, Aug. 12, at noon in East Norbeck Park. For a small fee, enjoy a choice of hot dogs, burgers (beef, turkey or veggie), salad and watermelon.

The Club encourages members to bring salads or desserts to share. Soda and water is provided. Alcohol is not permitted in Montgomery County parks. The park has a restroom and pavilion that provides protection from the elements.

The Club wants to get an accurate headcount for the picnic, so be sure to reply to the upcoming email.

Movies and Musicals

Club members also enjoy watching movies in the Clubhouse II auditorium, and going out to dinner and a movie at a theater in Rockville, Maryland.

The Club is looking forward to three upcoming musicals at Toby's Dinner Theatre in Columbia, Maryland. Toby's provides a buffet and ice cream bar, followed by a great musical performance.

Mah-jongg

A group of residents who know how to play mah-jongg get together on Tuesday or Wednesday nights at 7 p.m.

in Clubhouse II. For more information, contact Donna Copeland at (dc@grandma-thegeek.com).

Friday Hikes with Joyce

For a three-mile walk once a week, join Joyce and other walkers. Some walkers turn around halfway for a shorter walk. Many walkers meet at the walk site, but those who would like to carpool should contact Joyce Richardson at (301-598-7098) or (777cheekie333@gmail.com) by Thursday evening.

- Aug. 10 – Northwest Branch Trail (Wheaton). Meet at the Brookside Gardens Nature Center at 10:15 a.m. Bring water and a lunch. Drive through the Connecticut Avenue gate and make a left onto Bel Pre Road. Turn right onto Layhill Road and continue for approximately two miles. Turn left onto Glenallan Road. The Nature Center will be on the right in approximately one mile.
- Aug. 17 – Wheaton Regional Park (Silver Spring) Meet in the parking lot near the train station at 10:15 p.m. Bring water and a lunch. Drive through the Connecticut Gate and turn left onto Georgia Avenue. Drive approximately three miles, and then turn left onto Shorefield Road. Continue for several blocks to the parking lot, which is on the right.

Sunday Morning Walks

For a three-mile walk right here in Leisure World, walkers can meet up on Sunday mornings at 8:30 a.m. near the corner of Leisure World Boulevard and Arden Court (across from Kelmscot Drive). The group walks the entire Leisure World Boulevard circle. Usually, the walkers go out to breakfast after the walk.

Weeknight Walks

For a shorter walk on weekday evenings, meet at 7:15 p.m. in the Clubhouse I lobby. The group walks around the Broadwalk in Montgomery Mutual. No one makes an announcement, so be sure to ask around if new to the group.

Beginning on Monday, Aug. 20, weeknight walks start at 5:15 p.m.

Volkssport Walks

One Club member also belongs to the American Volkssport Association (AVA). He posts AVA walk information on (bbclw@googlegroups.com). Click on Walks, below the Calendar.

How to Join

To join the Baby Boomer Club, send a check for $5, payable to Baby Boomer Club, to membership chair Susan Landesberg at (3505 Twin Branches Ct. 37-C, Silver Spring, MD 20906).

Include your address and phone number (if not on the check) and email address. Members who do not have email should keep in contact with a member who does, because the Club mostly communicates by email.

The Club keeps its emails limited to activities that members might enjoy.

Club members who have joined but are not receiving emails are asked to contact Beth Leanza at (301-598-4569) or (bethlea12020@gmail.com).

EMERGENCY APPOINTMENTS AVAILABLE

Can't Read the Screen? Accessibility Can Help

by Ron Masi

Apple has special settings designed to make computer use accessible to as many people as possible, including those with physical limitations.

Accessibility is already on the iMac, which can significantly improve many residents' lives. Help your friends and neighbors with low or impaired vision by bringing this to their attention. As always, it is best to follow along on the iMac as you read.

Here are two quick fixes that may suit your needs:

- Several programs (Pages, Numbers, etc.) have a dropdown Zoom box in the top left corner. Click on it to select a zoom of the window between 25-400 percent.

- Another option is to select the text and hit command + (plus) or command - (minus) to make incremental changes in font size.

Full Screen Zoom

Is the entire screen (not just the window) too small to read? To enlarge the view of the whole screen, including the tool-bars at the top, click the Apple logo at top left > Click System Preferences > Click Accessibility (blue circle with person icon).

Click Zoom on left side. Then on the right side, check the box "Use keyboard shortcuts to zoom." Make sure Zoom style is Full Screen, and then exit Accessibility. You have just enabled the following three short cuts:

- Command Option 8 – Toggles Zoom on and off of the entire screen
- Command Option = (equal) – Progressively Zooms in
- Command Option (minus) – Zooms out

Adjusting Full Screen Zoom

Users can enable the default full screen Zoom using Command+Opt+8, but what if the zoom is too little or too much? Here's how to personalize the magnification:

Apple logo > System Preferences. > Accessibility > Zoom. Then select Options (bottom right, next to Fullscreen).

Drag the sliders at top of the new window to customize the minimum and maximum zoom, and then click OK. Now the user can automatically zoom in that far when they press Command+Option+8.

Magnifying Glass

Then on the right side, check the box, "Use keyboard shortcuts to zoom then, in the popup menu at the bottom, select "Picture-in-Picture." Command+Option+8 toggles the magnifying glass on and off.

Visit the Club at (mac. Computerctr.org) and access past articles and upcoming events.

The Italian Social and Cultural Club invites all residents to enjoy a game of bocce on the first and second Friday of every month (weather permitting) at 10 a.m. at the bocce courts, located outside the Clubhouse I Terrace Room restaurant.

Two Countries United by One Game

by Bernie Ascher

Expecting immense crowds for the big July 14-15 weekend, France placed 110,000 police on duty to maintain order. On July 14, France celebrated Bastille Day, its national holiday. The next day, it celebrated a 4-2 victory over Croatia in the World Cup final.

Commemorating the day in 1789 when 900 people stormed the infamous Bastille prison, Bastille Day was celebrated by the French with a military march of thousands, with thousands more lining the Champs-Élysées. The seizure of the Bastille symbolized freedom from the monarchy and independence for France.

In the parade, about 4,300 soldiers marched along with 220 vehicles and 250 horses. In the sky, 64 jets released red, white and blue smoke, the colors of the French flag. Also, 30 helicopters flew overhead.

Two mishaps occurred. At Place de la Concorde, where President Emmanuel Macron reviewed the parade, two motorcycles collided, and in the flyover, one of the jets released red smoke instead of blue.

The next day, massive and sometimes unruly crowds in the streets of Paris watched on TV screens as the French soccer team defeated the Croatian team in Russia, winning the World Cup for the first time in 20 years.

Soccer is like American football, except that players cannot use their hands or tackle one another, and there are no goalposts. The ball is round and the players run continuously up and down the field, chasing and kicking the ball and often kicking each other – and trying to kick the ball past the opponent's goalie who guards a netted cage. In the scoring, a goal is worth only one point, not six.

Croatia also celebrated the World Cup. It was a moral victory for a small, new country. Croatia is slightly smaller than West Virginia, created in 1994 with the breakup of Yugoslavia. The country is crescent shaped (almost gerrymandered) with a long coastline on the Adriatic, across the sea from Italy.

Its population is only 4.5 million compared to France's 66.5 million, making France 15 times larger. If the final score were proportionate to the respective populations, France should have won 30-2.

So, Croatian fans celebrated. They will have to wait until October to celebrate their national holiday though, which commemorates the invention of the necktie, for which Croatia takes credit.

July 14 also happens to be a non-official holiday – International Nudity Day – celebrated in New Zealand and about 30 other countries. Since public nudity is illegal in most places, people celebrate this holiday by staying at home in the nude or by visiting nude beaches.

Some celebrate by wearing "Nude T-Shirts" with clever sayings, such as "We can bare it." Nude T-shirts – that's an oxymoron, isn't it?

Advocates of nudity claim it has health benefits, such as maintaining higher levels of vitamin D in the body due to more sun exposure; better blood circulation unrestricted by clothing; and lower risk of Alzheimer's disease because walking barefoot stimulates neurons in the brain.

In Leisure World, chess players are always fully clothed and the game does not involve kicking. The game pictured on this page is fairly even: Black is winning by one Pawn. It is Black's turn to move. What is Black's best move?

The answer follows this message that the Chess Club meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1-4 p.m. in Clubhouse II. Membership is free. At a recent meeting, the Club decided to schedule a luncheon for members and guests on Wednesday, Sept. 12. For further information, call Bernie Ascher at (301-598-8577).

ANSWER: Black moves the Bishop to d6. Checkmate!

So, do not wait for a military parade and flyover. Do not wait for a "Nude T-Shirt." Do not wait for Croatia to win its first World Cup. Play chess now!

EDUCATION

NEW – The Gospel of Jesus: Leader Phyllis Lovett returns with another session of religious studies and discussions covering the Book of Romans in the New Testament, in which the central theme is the gospel of Jesus Christ. Participants will discuss the difference between relying on one's own power or on the grace of God to follow Christ. Various interpretations of scripture will be discussed.

Class meets Tuesdays, Sept. 11-Oct. 30, 10-11:30 a.m. Fee: $15. Register at Clubhouse I.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

NEW – ¡Habla Conmigo!

Part 3, a CLL course: Using the text, "Spanish is Fun," participants will learn about Spanish and the culture of the Spanish-speaking world. They will discuss activities, feeling and emotions, days and months, the body, weather, the house and food.

The class is taught by Leisure World resident Judy Frumkin and meets Tuesdays, Sept. 4-Dec. 18 (no class Sept. 11, 25 or Oct. 23, 30), 1-2:30 p.m. Fee: $15 plus $10 materials fee. Register at Clubhouse I.

NEW – ¡Habla Conmigo! Part 4, a CLL course: Using the text, "Spanish is Fun," participants will learn about Spanish and the culture of the Spanish-speaking world. They will discuss location of objects, pastimes, parties and recreational activities, clothing and animals, and will be able to talk about activities that occurred in the past.

The class is taught by Leisure World resident Judy Frumkin and meets Tuesdays, Sept. 4-Dec. 18 (no class Sept. 11, 25 or Oct. 23, 30), 10-11:30 a.m. Fee: $15 plus $10 materials fee. Register at Clubhouse I.

EXERCISE

NEW – Gentle Yoga – Wednesdays and Saturdays with Marilyn: Yoga is a holistic system that combines movement, posture, breath, and relaxation techniques to improve overall health and well-being physically, mentally, and spiritually. A consistent yoga practice has been shown to increase mobility, strength, and flexibility, and to provide skills to cultivate a peaceful mind in the face of life's stresses and challenges.

This class is designed for individuals with some ability to get up and down off the floor and can be adapted according to the need of the practitioner. Beginners and ongoing students are welcome. Bring a yoga mat or blanket to the first class.

Class meets Wednesdays, Sept. 12-Nov. 14 and/or Saturdays, Sept. 8-Nov. 10, 9-10 a.m. Fee: $80/1 day, $140/2 days per week. Register at Clubhouse I.

NEW – Tap Dancing in a Chair with Carol Neckar:

This is great way to have fun, learn something new and exercise! If you are an experienced tapper and miss it, or a beginner who always wanted to tap, but your body says "no," this is the class for you. For experienced tappers, this will be a "remember when" and an "ain't this great!" review. For beginners, it will be an easy start with the basics, moving to delightful music that will make your feet want to dance. It's going to be a lot of fun.

Experienced tappers who don't need a chair are welcome to take the class, but all students work from a chair.

No tap shoes are required, but participants must bring a pair of hard sole shoes.

Carol began taking tap lessons at age four, continuing through high school when she taught tap to offset the cost of lessons, and performed in recitals and community theater. In college, she taught dance for the Physical Education Department and, in the summer, continued to perform in local theater. While her career took her in another direction, her love affair with dance has never ended.

If you have questions, call Carol at (301-598-5980).

Class meets Thursdays, Sept. 13-Oct. 18, 4-4:45 p.m. Fee: $38. Register at Clubhouse II.
