Potter Prepares Work for Art Show, Arts and Crafts Bazaar

by Kimberly Y. Choi,
Leisure World News

The complete idea — the fired ceramic in attractive form, the colors in their proper places — does not exist from the beginning. Lenore Conenello starts a piece of pottery merely by asking herself what sort of object it will end up as: a bowl, a jar, a wine cooler.

After deciding, she sets a slab of clay on the wheel, and that is when, little by little, her vision and the piece take shape at the same time.

Conenello, who started learning how to make pottery 16 years ago, is preparing to exhibit at Leisure World's Art Show on Nov. 1 as well as sell at the Arts and Crafts Bazaar on Nov. 10.

An Idea Emerges

Wheel-throwing requires that she consider how broadly to open the spinning clay: a plate needs a wider base than a bowl, for example. From that point, the shaping is a bit of an improvisation, and even when the form is finished, the idea is still incomplete.

Sometimes the piece's form inspires her glazing choices. The wavy edges of one bowl led her to glaze it like a beach, starting with the color of sand and adding darker and darker greens to suggest swash upon the land.

In another of her designs, which she calls the "wave bowl," one edge of the bowl is folded over like a cresting wave. Accordingly, the bowl is glazed blue with white

Board Authorizes Consulting Firm to Negotiate Broadband Services

by Stacy Smith, Leisure World News

The Leisure World Community Corporation (LWCC) board of directors unanimously passed a motion at a special meeting on Oct. 12 authorizing management to enter into an agreement with Columbia Telecommunications Corporation (CTC) for broadband technical consulting services.

The LWCC board retained CTC's services in 2017, and CTC sent out a Request for Information (RFI) inviting respondents to submit their thoughts about potential services they could provide to Leisure World residents in a multi-year, bulk broadband (TV and internet) services contract.

CTC is "prepared to support [Leisure World of Maryland Corporation (LWMC)] in selecting a finalist from among its RFI respondents, and to begin negotiating an agreement with that potential partner in collaboration with LWMC," according to a written proposal dated Sept. 10, 2018 that CTC sent to general

CCOC GRANTS RELIEF FROM STAY

by Leisure World News

The Commission on Common Ownership Communities (CCOC) on Oct. 4 granted Leisure World Community Corporation's (LWCC) and Leisure World of Maryland Corporation's Motion for Relief from Stay, filed Sept. 14, allowing the LWCC board of directors to resume taking actions.

The stay had been in place since Aug. 28, after resident Sheryl Katzman filed a complaint with the CCOC that claimed the LWCC board of directors is illegally seated; county code requires that a community association "must not take any action to enforce or implement the association's decision [i.e. the subject of the CCOC complaint]" while the complaint is processed.

Katzman later filed a Motion to Enforce Stay after the LWCC board of directors held its regular meeting the morning of Aug. 28.

The CCOC has set a closed mediation session on the complaint for Thursday, Oct. 25.

specks atop the “wave.”

An array of “test tiles” in the ceramics studio, small pieces of clay coated with the available glazes, helps craftspeople select their glaze colors. Conenello considers which colors will harmonize well and how they will look on different types of clay.

Glazing techniques such as pouring and splattering produce unpredictable results, and the glaze behaves outside of human control a final time in the kiln. It might drip or leave streaks where her fingers molded the clay.

Some pieces have extra decorations. For a wine cooler she plans to sell, she sculpted a cluster of grapes to affix to the side.

It takes less than an hour for Conenello to finish her part of the labor, and up to months to receive the piece from the studio after it is fired with others’ work in the kiln.

The Path of Artisanhip

Conenello started taking pottery classes alongside her sister, an avid artist, when nearing retirement. While she stumbled through her early attempts, she persisted and reached an advanced level.

She continues to make her pottery in a class in Columbia, Maryland. “There’s always more to learn,” she says. Though Conenello doesn’t expect to reach a professional level, she has ideas for more advanced pottery she would like to try in the future.

She would like to command a heavier chunk of clay, which is more difficult to center upon the wheel and work into a shape, and craft a larger piece from it. Other aspirations include more intricate decorations, vessels that rest on multiple small ‘feet’ on the underside, and porcelain.

Pottery for Sale

The upcoming Arts and Crafts Bazaar will be her first time selling her pottery in Leisure World, but she has sold at other fairs. The location of the sale has some influence on what she chooses to sell. She finds, for instance, that buyers in Florida, where she lives for part of the year, are fond of green.

Her own apartment is decorated with her handmade items, including a fruit bowl, a jar filled with some of her husband’s belongings, a bowl holding electronics on the coffee table, a covered dish that her family uses for baking. Even a mistake unfit for sale—a jar flawed such that the lid is stuck—adorns her bathroom shelf.

Sixty pieces, according to her, is a good amount of merchandise. The number of pieces in her collection builds up over the course of months.

A bowl with irregular bands of brown and cream is her favorite object she’s made. Even so, she is ready to part with it to someone else who sees its beauty. “Often I’ve said, ‘You know what? I can sell my favorite piece and make a new favorite piece,’” she says.

Oct. 30: 'The Future of Eye Research'

by Larry Cohen

Congress established the National Eye Institute (NEI) in 1968 to protect and preserve the vision of the American people. As one of the federal government's National Institutes of Health, NEI conducts and supports research that helps prevent and treat eye diseases and other vision disorders.

Fifty years later, NEI has surpassed many scientific expectations and has so much promise for the future. Dedicated vision researchers and regular folks have achieved much of this hope and success.

Clinical trials in vision research have led to new medications, surgeries and methods for disease detection that have saved or improved the eyesight of millions of people.

On Tuesday, Oct. 30, Dr. Wai Wong, senior researcher at the National Eye Institute, and Dr. Suleiman Alibhai, low vision specialist and a director at Prevention of Blindness Society, present "The Future of Eye Research" at 10 a.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium. Learn about groundbreaking vision research progress that could preserve or restore people's sight, and how you or someone you may know may qualify to assist in this research.

November Meeting

The Group's next meeting is on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 1 p.m. in Clubhouse II.

The Group will follow-up on what members learned at the Oct. 30 presentation.

The Group hopes to see you there.

Energy Savings You Can Tap Into

by Joe Halpin and Radha Pillai

Saving energy is good for the environment and can save money. When a resident makes Energy Star improvements to their home, financial incentives are available from Pepco and local, state and federal governments.

Pepco will install a web-programmable thermostat or outdoor switch in the home and cycle it during peak-use times in exchange for bill credits, at no cost to the homeowner. During “peak demand” times, Pepco’s Energy Wise Rewards program works to reduce electricity usage by “cycling” central air conditioners (AC) or heat pumps (HP), thereby reducing the need for costly, new electrical infrastructure.

For more information, visit (<https://energywiserewards.pepco.com/md/enroll/>) or call (1-866-353-5798).

Peak Energy Demand Days

Pepco’s Peak Energy Savings program can qualify members for credit on their bill when energy demand is at its peak. From June through September between noon-8 p.m., turn off some lights, close the shades or blinds, do not use the washer, dryer, dishwasher and/or stove and increase the home’s thermostat setting by a degree or two. This program is available to individual residences (non-master meter and non-multifamily residences) and certain businesses.

For more information about the program, visit (<https://www.pepco.com/WaysToSave/ForYourHome/Pages/MD/PeakEnergySavingsCredit.aspx>). The program does not require any supplemental equipment. To enroll, call (1-855-730-PEAK) and choose to be notified by email or phone.

Leisure World Master meter customers participate in the Demand Response program and receive robocalls requesting a reduction in electricity use during peak demand days. The savings reduces the electricity cost for all master metered residents and Trust properties, and can result in an annual rebate.

Upgrades

For homes not on the master meter, any Pepco equipment upgrade-related rewards must be done through the PEPCO multifamily program, which requires that energy efficient improvements be made through a bulk purchase of equipment. For more information, contact Pepco contractor Sandy Barrier at (443-718-4866).

Consider also that upgrades to AC or HP equipment for master metered homes reduce the homeowner’s annual utility cost, reflected in the home’s E-rating.

For an E-rating change request form and instructions, visit (residents.lwmc.com) and click on PPD under the Services and Amenities dropdown menu. Then scroll down the page to the E-Rating Change Request. Residents can request a form from their Mutual Assistant or pick one up from PPD.

The submission deadline for the E-rating change request form is due by Aug. 1 each year. The E-rating change is reflected in the following year’s condo fee. Individual home E-rating changes are only for HPs.

For those homes not on the master meter account, Pepco’s Energy Rewards Program will give rebates for lighting, appliances, and heating and cooling equipment. For more information, visit (<https://homeenergysavings.pepco.com/residential/rebates>).

Quick Home Energy Check-Up

Pepco’s Quick Home Energy Check-Up (QHEC) provides a homeowner with a trained energy analyst who will assess the home’s energy use, recommend energy-saving improvements and install energy-saving products, at no charge.

The products include LED light bulbs, pipe wrap for electric hot water heaters, ShowerStart™ showerhead adapter, efficient-flow showerheads, faucet aerators and smart power strips.

QHEC is not available for those who have taken advantage of the program in the past or for residents on the master meter. In an effort to increase participation, a mutual representative should coordinate this program. That person in turn would coordinate the program implementation with one of the selected QHEC contractors.

More information is available at (<https://homeenergysavings.pepco.com/quick-home-energy-check-up-program/overview/how-it-works>) or by calling (1-866-353-5798).

Learn about more energy-related incentives from Pepco by visiting (<http://www.pepco.com/WaysToSave/ForYourHome/Pages/Maryland.aspx>).

State and Local Programs

Montgomery County residents may be eligible for a property tax credit of up to $250 for improvements which reduce their energy demands, such as air-sealing and insulation, energy-efficient heating and cooling equipment, windows and doors.

The application for this credit is available at (<https://www3.montgomerycountymd.gov/311/Solutions.aspx?SolutionId=1-421JCM>) or by calling (240-777-8931).

Maryland’s Residential Clean Energy Grant Program provides grants to homeowners for a variety of clean energy installations, including solar photovoltaic systems, solar water heating systems and geothermal heating and cooling systems.

For more information, visit (<http://energy.maryland.gov/residential/Pages/incentives/CleanEnergyGrants.aspx>). Keep in mind that the homeowner’s mutual must approve of these types of exterior installations.

The Maryland BeSMART Home Loan Program offers low cost financing to improve home energy efficiency through replacement and upgrading of appliances, heating, cooling and ventilation systems and whole-house improvements. To learn more about this program, visit (<http://dhcd.maryland.gov/Residents/Pages/besmart/default.aspx>) or call (301-429-7402). Federal tax credits for all residential renewable energy products have been extended through Dec. 31, 2021. Products eligible for this tax credit must have earned the Energy Star rating (www.energystar.gov/products). For more information or to apply for this credit, reference IRS form 5695.

THOUGHTS & OPINIONS: From Our Residents

A Few Things to Remember

- Relevance: Make sure that your submission is relevant to the LW community as a whole and not to just one person, mutual, or organization.
- Respect: Remember that your opinion is about ideas, not individuals, and please avoid personal attacks.
- Brevity: Being concise will ensure that your opinion will have maximum impact.
- Accuracy: Document all factual assertions. Opinions that are backed up with facts are more powerful, but only if the facts are accurate.
- Ownership: All submissions are subject to editing but you will have the opportunity to approve the edits before publication.

*Opinions are strictly those of the writers. Thoughts and Opinions is maintained by the Communications Advisory Committee.

RESPONSIBLE JOURNALISM

“In my opinion” is a direct admission, yet I didn’t see it expressed once in the lengthy opinion letter on page eight of the Sept. 7, issue of Leisure World News. Authors of opinion letters shouldn’t have to state something so obvious, but I have been instructed to when submitting my own letters.

When opinion letters such as the one in the Sept. 7 edition entitled “Be Careful What You Wish For” expand into what I consider hypotheticals, presumptions and speculation, the reader might start to question the accuracy and the real motivation of the writer. Is the writer basing their opinion on the facts, or are they puffing up the facts to substantiate their opinion?

The headline of this opinion letter alone warns of possible danger while potentially instilling fear in some readers.

Was this letter trying to scare and confuse residents about the unknown? Was this letter trying to create distrust and discord among residents – pitting residents against residents?

Did the author write this extra long opinion letter on his own volition? Just as we need to be careful with the facts, we also need to express our opinions in a responsible way.

For the benefit of all residents, those contributing an article or letter to Leisure World News should all follow the same guidelines, regardless of their positions within Leisure World.

– Carolee Rowse

SAVE SOME MONEY

The Oct. 5 edition of Leisure World News contained five pages of letters about two issues: the administration building and the method of electing board members. It is important that these issues not be confused or conflated.

The method of electing our board has worked for 50 years and no one I know objects to it. The lawsuit to change it was brought by a small group and in my opinion is silly. (I also think it’s silly for Leisure World to spend $25,000 to fight it.

Why not just say to the County Commission that our method has worked for 50 years, but if it’s in violation of County Rules then of course we will change it?)

On the other hand, almost everyone I know thinks that spending $6 million to tear down and replace the Administration Building is a waste of money, especially since there is plenty of space taken by an outside real estate agency and a credit union (not to mention space used by Montgomery Mutual and others).

According to another item in that edition, the Facilities Enhancement Plan fund is growing at the rate of $2 million annually. I believe that having so much money, which comes from the pockets of residents when they buy their units, is just an invitation to spend it. If this two percent resale “tax” were reduced to the one percent it used to be, I bet it wouldn’t be wasted so easily.

– Rodney Brooks

CORRECTION

The Sept. 21 letter titled “New Administration Building” stated that “there was no reliable estimate for the cost of repair” for the current Administration Building,” but speculated that its total cost would be $100,000, based on correspondence from an LWCC board member. The $100,000 figure that was cited in the letter is the additional amount that was needed to repair Clubhouse I on top of what had already been budgeted for the project.

The estimated cost to repair and add space to the current Administration Building was approximately $2.3 million in 2012, according to a Foulger-Pratt study commissioned by the LWCC board. This estimate does not include the cost to repair the Building’s foundation and update 10 of its building codes.

Nov. 3: The Starvation Army Band Returns

The Education and Recreation Department is pleased to welcome The Starvation Army Band back to Leisure World for a performance on Saturday, Nov. 3, at 4:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Tickets are $7 per person and are on sale in both clubhouse E&R offices. Please bring your Leisure World ID.

The Starvation Army Band plays an eclectic mix of Dixieland and swing music, as well as some klezmer and novelty tunes, that the band is sure you will enjoy.

Founded in 1989 as an offshoot of the Columbia Concert Band, the band specializes in Dixieland jazz. Founder Jim Fozard thought that the quirky moniker would elicit amusement and, perhaps, some sympathy from an audience that might not quite know what to expect from the band.

Since then, the band has broadened its repertoire to include klezmer and swing, as well as Dixieland. The band performs throughout the Baltimore-Washington, D.C., area, including regular appearances at the Columbia Lakefront concerts, Columbia Festival of the Arts, Vantage House, the Longfellow July 4 parade and the Hebrew Home of Greater Washington.

All members pursue day jobs along with performing the music they love.

Nov: 4: The Great War in America: WWI and its Aftermath

by Jonas Weiss

Author Garrett Peck returns to Leisure World to discuss his forthcoming book, “The Great War in America: WWI and Its Aftermath,” on Sunday, Nov. 4, at 2:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Armistice Day is Sunday, Nov. 11, marking the centennial anniversary of this “war to end all wars.” Peck will discuss the unintended consequences of the war: race riots, the Red Scare, Prohibition, suffrage and a return to isolationism and a rejection of America’s global role, which resulted in a bloody sequel two decades later.

Peck is also the author of “Prohibition in Washington D.C.” and “Capital Beer: A Heady History of Brewing in Washington, D.C.” His books will be available for purchase after the talk.

Garrett is also a historian and a tour guide, and he leads tours through Smithsonian venues. His Temperance tour of Prohibition-related sites has been featured on C-SPAN Book TV and the History Channel.

Rosalind Kipping hosts this free program.

Nov. 10: Do Your Holiday Shopping at the Arts and Crafts Bazaar

The E&R Department's annual Holiday Arts and Crafts Bazaar is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 10, from 9:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom. Start your holiday shopping right here in your own community. All vendors are Leisure World residents who are selling a variety of gift items – original, new and perfect for the holidays.

Vendor Opportunities

A vendor does not have to belong to a Leisure World arts or crafts group or organization, but must be a resident who has handcrafted the items offered for sale. All items must be new. This is not a flea market; no used, re-gifted or commercially manufactured items can be offered for sale.

E&R is looking for ceramists (poured and thrown), artists, woodworkers, jewelry-makers, photographers, weavers, needle-workers, knitters, crocheters, seamstresses, quilters and anyone else who can offer new and original art and craft items for sale.

This is also a great opportunity for Leisure World groups, organizations and clubs – not just individuals – to raise money for charitable causes or other pursuits.

Registration and Space

Registration is now open in the Clubhouse I E&R office. A limited amount of table space is still available. Registrants must fill out a form indicating what they will be offering for sale.

To accommodate the greatest number of residents and groups, space is limited to a maximum of 12 feet – the equivalent of two 3'x6' tables or one 3'x6' table and one rack. Vendors can rent tables at $18 for 3'x6' and $9 for 3'x3'. One chair is provided for a 3'x3' table, and two chairs for a 3'x6' table. The fee for extra chairs is $1 each. A limited number of clothing racks are available to rent for $10 each.

Please note: If a vendor brings in his/her own rack(s), regardless of size, the vendor will be charged an additional $10 for each rack on the day of the bazaar.

Registration fees can be made by check (payable to Leisure World of Maryland Corporation) or by MasterCard, Discover or Visa (for charges over $10). Registration is first come, first served.

Merchandise may not be placed on chairs, next to or in front of tables and racks. Space is limited; items placed around the rented space impede traffic and are a major safety concern, and therefore will not be permitted.

Tables, chairs or racks cannot be brought into the sale. (Display racks that fit on top of rented tables may be brought in).

Bazaar Day

Fair vendors may begin bringing in their merchandise at 8 a.m. The market opens to the general public at 9:30 a.m.

Vendors are reminded that they must remove all unsold merchandise and debris (boxes, hangers, wrapping materials, etc.) when they leave.

Sales Taxes

Individuals and organizations are responsible for the collection and payment of sales tax. You may obtain this sales tax license from the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation at (taxes.marylandtaxes.gov/Business_Taxes/Business_Tax_Types/Sales_and_Use_Tax/).

Acclaimed international concert pianist Thomas Pandolfi returns to the Leisure World stage on Saturday, Nov. 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Tickets are $10 per person and go on sale on Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 8:30 a.m. in the E&R offices in both clubhouses. Please bring your Leisure World ID.

Pandolfi opens the program with one of his own arrangements, "Rhapsody on Themes from West Side Story," in recognition of Leonard Bernstein's 100th birthday this past August.

His program also includes "Sonata in F Major, K. 332" by Mozart, "Intermezzo No. 1" by Ponce, and several selections by Chopin.

Before performing each selection, Pandolfi sets the mood by giving a brief history of the composer and the piece, thereby allowing the audience to more fully appreciate the music as it is played. As a pianist, he tries to bring excitement, passion, lyricism and expressiveness to each performance, and he wants the audience to be moved by what they hear.

Pandolfi has produced 11 CD recordings and is working on a twelfth. Following the concert, he will sign CDs, a selection of which will be available for purchase at $20 each. Payment may be made by credit card or check payable to Thomas Pandolfi.

■ Jewish Residents of Leisure World

Nov. 8: 'GI Jews: Jewish Americans in World War II'

by Jonas Weiss

The Jewish Residents of Leisure World (JRLW) and Coming of Age in Maryland show the film "GI Jews: Jewish Americans in World War II" (2018, 1 hour 24 minutes, documentary/history, not rated), on Thursday, Nov. 8, at 1:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

The film, which tells the profound and unique story of the 550,000 Jewish men and women who served in World War II, brings to life the history of their particular fight against Hitler, bigotry and intolerance.

They fought for their nation and also waged a more personal fight to save their brethren in Europe. They emerged more powerfully American and more deeply Jewish, determined to continue the fight for equality and tolerance at home.

The screening is co-sponsored by the Foundation for Jewish Studies in Rockville, who will bring a speaker to share insights into the film, as well as lead an enlightening discussion.

Tickets are $8 per person and available beginning Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 8:30 a.m. in the Clubhouse I E&R office. All residents are welcome.

Oct. 26: Health Talk on 'Nocturia: Nighttime Urinary Frequency'

by Stella Shaw

A discussion of nocturia, a urinary ailment that affects many seniors, takes place Friday, Oct. 26, at 10 a.m. in Clubhouse II.

Nocturia is excessive urination during the night. During sleep time, the body produces less urine that is more concentrated. This means that most people don't need to wake up during the night to urinate and can sleep uninterrupted for at least six to eight hours.

Aside from disrupting sleep, nocturia may also be a sign of an underlying medical condition.

Dr. Cheryl Shih of Chesapeake Urology will explain more about nocturia and provide valuable information about it. A board-certified urologic surgeon, Shih received her undergraduate degree from Princeton University and her medical degree from Baylor College of Medicine. She completed her surgical residency at the University of Washington in Seattle.

All residents are welcome to attend this free program.

Oct. 31: Flu Clinic

by Leisure World News

On Wednesday, Oct. 31, MedStar Visiting Nurse Association holds its final flu clinic from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom.

Regular and high-dose flu vaccines are available at no cost to residents with traditional Medicare Part B as their primary insurance. Bring your Medicare card, insurance card and photo ID.

Residents without Medicare also can receive a vaccine; the cost is $30 for a regular dose vaccine and $65 for a high-dose vaccine.

If interested in volunteering at the flu clinic, contact MedStar Visiting Nurse Association at (240-965-2972).

Flu vaccines are also available by appointment only Monday through Friday from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. at the pharmacy at MedStar Health medical center located at 3305 North Leisure World Boulevard.

The pharmacy accepts Medicare and private insurance plans. To check your insurance coverage or to make an appointment, call (301-598-1005).

Medical Cannabis Group Forming

The group will educate residents about medical cannabis, since information about marijuana is often incomplete, inconsistent and, at times, false. As a result, many people are misinformed.

If interested in joining this group, contact its sponsor, Carminetta Verner, at (msshalia@aol.com).

Nov. 14: Meeting Covers Conflict Resolution for Senior Decisions

by Mary Ann Johnston

The Patients Rights Council of Leisure World meets on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 1:30 p.m. in Clubhouse I. The speaker is Christopher Page, executive director of the Conflict Resolution Center of Montgomery County.

The mission of the Center is to help Montgomery County residents manage conflict in a constructive way, by offering problem solving services such as mediation, facilitation, community conferencing and training.

Its services, available to all county residents, aim to promote positive relationships between ethnic, racial, religious and socio-economic groups.

The volunteer mediators meet strict criteria in terms of training and experience.

The Conflict Resolution

Center is a non-profit organization and its services are voluntary, confidential and neutral. It addresses conflict in the workplace, the family, neighborhoods, schools, businesses and organizations.

A relatively new program for the Center is senior mediation, which provides specially-trained mediators to help participants resolve family issues involving healthcare directives, assisted living/nursing home preferences and decisions that are difficult for seniors and their families to make. This program is available throughout Montgomery County.

Individuals may contact the Center directly seeking resolution to a wide range of disputes, or be referred by a nonprofit organization. Programs are available in the schools, and in the court system. To contact the Center online, visit (cremc.org), and click on Contacts, or call (301-652-0717) or (301-652-0718).

About the Council

The purposes of the Patients Rights Council are to inform residents about health issues and to actively oppose physician-assisted suicide.

It is expected that legislation legalizing physician-assisted suicide will be proposed in the 2019 session of the Maryland General Assembly. The Council will keep members informed of the issue as it develops.

All residents and guests are welcome at the Council's meetings.

Voters' Guides Are Out With Everything You Need to Know

by Maxine Lewack

The Voters' Guide is out! Copies were mailed to League of Women Voters members and to all who registered to vote for the first time.

They are available in the lobbies of the high rises, both clubhouses, the Administration Building, Gold Castle Jewelers in Leisure World Plaza and the public libraries. It is also available online at (lwvmocomd.org) or (vote411.org).

The Voters' Guide offers information on elected officials' salaries and term limits, which political parties have fielded a full roster of candidates, how questions posed to the candidates are formulated and conveyed (and what happens if they don't answer or answer late) and interesting biographical facts.

It also lists the days, hours and locations for early voting, the deadlines for submitting absentee ballots and voting hours on Election Day, Tuesday, Nov. 6.

Residents might not be sure of their voter registration status; now is the time to check.

Visit (voterservices.elections.maryland.gov/votersearch) or call the Board of Elections at (240-777-8500).

■ Town Meeting Organization

Oct. 22: TMO Conducts Two Town Hall Meetings

by Janice McLean
and Sheryl S. Katzman

The Town Meeting Organization (TMO) holds a pair of town hall meetings on Monday, Oct. 22, in Clubhouse I. All residents are invited to attend.

The first meeting is from 1:30-4:30 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom. To accommodate residents who are not able to attend during the day, a second meeting is scheduled for 7-9 p.m. in the Maryland Room.

These meetings aim to provide residents an opportunity to learn details and ask questions about the resident complaint filed in August against the Leisure World Community Corporation (LWCC) and Leisure World of Maryland Corporation with the Montgomery County Commission on Common Ownership Communities (CCOC).

The complaint states that the LWCC "[failed] to hold election(s) in violation of State of Maryland Homeowners Association Act" and calls for a determination that Leisure World of Maryland must conduct community-wide elections.

For further information, visit the TMO website at (www.townmeetingorganization.com) or email (admin@townmeetingorganizaiton.com).

Monthly meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I. The next regular meeting is on Thursday, Nov. 15.

The Jewish War Veterans Post 567 is conducting a community-wide census to determine how many military veterans are currently living in Leisure World.

The census will enable Leisure World programs to better address the needs of all military veterans living here, and in particular, to plan community-wide programs and ceremonies dedicated to veterans.

The census is not limited to Jewish veterans; all veterans are invited to participate. Included in the census are any men and women who served in any branch of the armed forces, the Reserves and ROTC programs.

Census questionnaires are available in the Clubhouse I E&R office. Pick one up, fill it out, and return it to the Clubhouse I E&R office by Friday, Nov. 30.

For questions, contact Fred Shapiro at (fshapiro@comcast.net).

'Damn Yankees' Cast On Deck for Opening Night

by Hannelte Allen and Karen Brooks

The cast of "Damn Yankees" has been hard at work preparing what is unquestionably going to be a fantastic show!

Who doesn't want to see Pat McConnell as "ooh la la Lola" and Ernie Poland as the ever-despicable devil "Mr. Applegate"?

Those are just two of the phenomenal actors, singers and dancers who are working hard and thoroughly enjoying themselves. This show is not to be missed!

As always, the Group invites the opening night (Nov. 9) audience to its wine and cheese party after the show.

We look forward to seeing you at the ballpark!

Dates and Times

Evening performances of "Damn Yankees" are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 9; Saturday, Nov. 10; Friday, Nov. 16; and Saturday, Nov. 17.

In addition, matinee performances are at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 11, and Sunday, Nov. 18.

Ticket Sales

Tickets are $10 per person,

paid by either check (payable to Fun and Fancy, or cash).

They are on sale from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays in the Clubhouse I lobby, and Fridays and Saturdays in the Clubhouse II lobby.

Tickets also will be sold before Fun and Fancy's monthly meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium, and just before "Damn Yankees" performances.

Corrections

Sharp eyes have pointed out an error in the Fun and Fancy article in the Oct. 5 edition of Leisure World News. The article stated that the 1957 Senators were aiming to win the National League pennant.

The Senators of the 20th century were never in the National League. They were in the Eastern Division of the American League.

Oct 23: Members Participate in Circles, Curves and Arcs Competition

by Fred Shapiro

Rossmoor Camera Club members meet on Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse II to view entries for the monthly competition, Circles, Curves and Arcs.

The visiting judge is Merry Plocki, owner of a studio and gallery at Artists and Makers Studios 2 in Rockville.

The competition's theme as defined by the Club's board is an image that features a circular course, circuit or orbit, with a relatively smooth connection of bends in a course. Arc is defined as shaped like a bow, curve or arch.

Residents are invited to join Club members to see and hear how Plocki critiques the entries and selects the award winners.

One of the competition's main objectives is to help members learn how they can improve on the photos they take by considering both composition and the technical facets of digital photography.

Competition Judge

Plocki discovered that photography is the best way for her to share how she feels about nature and the world around us. She moved to the Washington, D.C., area to pursue a career in finance and an MBA, but continued to take photos whenever she could.

Photography is now her full-time avocation and vocation. She shoots a wide range of subjects from macro to landscapes, documentary to the abstract and black and white to color. She also shoots portraits and events by commission.

For more information, visit her website at (www.mjplocki.com).

Membership Information

The Club encourages residents to join for the coming year as a means of taking up or improving their use of digital cameras and iPhones.

There are two levels of membership. Residents who expect to compete in the monthly competitions pay dues of $25 for the year; residents who wish to join the Club to learn more about photography but are not interested in competing pay $15 dues.

Mail checks for dues, payable to Rossmoor Camera Club, to Woody Shields at (Rossmoor Camera Club, 3200 N. Leisure World Blvd., Apt. 817, Silver Spring, MD 20906).

New Fall Classes Session Begins Oct. 29

by Ann Bolt

Apples and pumpkins: It's their season, and you'll see them in several paintings now hanging in Clubhouse I.

The exhibit features 20 paintings with subject matter ranging from fall fishing to travel destinations. It includes new or returning exhibitors Myra Wolf, Judy Kirkland and Jo Ross. Other exhibiting artist are Donna Leonard, Marvin Sirkis, Allan Okin, Donna Ward, Ann Bolt, Patty Elton, Bill Bohrer, Diane Blum, Nancy Veit, Patty Marx, Jeanette Shampain, Phyllis Lowinger and Nancy Albrecht. Nancy Veit is fooling us again with her trompe l'oeil.

Other paintings take you on a visual trip to Vancouver, Italy, Alaska and to some unknown, untitled river. As well, there are Ladies in White, Superwoman, Twins (pumpkins) and (glass) Bottles. The paintings were created in watercolor, oil, acrylic, graphite and charcoal, watercolor and ink, and mixed media.

The paintings in the Signal Financial Federal Credit Union continue through the end of the month. Stop in and cast a vote for your favorite painting.

Classes

Now is an excellent time to think about enrolling in a class; a new session starts Monday, Oct. 29. Offerings include oil, acrylic, watercolor, mixed media and Chinese brush painting. A pastel class is tentatively scheduled for Tuesday afternoons. The evening mixed media class will move to Wednesday evenings beginning Wednesday, Oct. 31. And Chinese brush and ink painting class moves to Friday mornings, starting Friday, Nov. 2. Each six-week session costs $65 for residents, $70 for non-residents. A few lockers are available to rent. Membership is $15.

Those interested in having a solo show in either the credit union or Clubhouse II may fill out an application, found in the art studio. Exhibitors must belong to Rossmoor Art Guild and must live in Leisure World. Art experience, achievement and recognition are required for exhibiting in Clubhouse II. Those who have exhibited there include Maggi Mannarino, Marie Powell, Nettie Geier, Houston Hancock, Jordan Levy, Al Temin, Ann Bolt and, more recently, Nancy Bullough and Diane Blum – and many others who have shown their work through the years.

A reminder: The Foundation Art Show is on Thursday, Nov. 1.

RAG welcomes residents and nearby neighbors to become members and enjoy the camaraderie and creativity of the art world. Get in the "zone" and tune the world out for a couple of hours. You'll feel better about yourself and the world.

■ Trivia Group

Sharpen Your Mind, and Keep On Guessing

by Melinda Collis

In case you haven't heard: Leisure World has a thriving Trivia Group! Twenty teams with more than 100 players among them meet Tuesdays at 7 p.m. in the Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom.

There's a no-pressure environment, and having fun is the main goal. Players compete for bragging rights and the prestige of knowing lots of little tidbits of information. Jerry, the Group's trivia guru who runs the games, always says, "If you don't know the answer, at least you can learn something."

Here's another great reason to play: brain fitness and social interactions are the foundations for aging in a healthy manner. Some studies have suggested that thinking games may improve memory, thinking, reaction time and cognitive ability. Games might be especially important later in life, when playing certain games may help fend against degeneration and memory loss by keeping the brain active and sharp.

New players are always welcome – they need only show up on a Tuesday – and can set up their own team or join an existing one.

For more information, contact Melinda Collis at (202-590-1311).

Nov. 12: 'Achieving A Productive and Meaningful Life as a Senior in Our Longevity Economy'

by Fred Shapiro

As people age, they may look back on their past careers and family history and wonder if it all will be lost in time.

On Monday, Nov. 12, The Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL) presents a program to provide some answers to that question when Dr. Louis Solomon speaks on "Achieving A Productive and Meaningful Life as a Senior in Our Longevity Economy."

His program is at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

The program is free, but residents are requested to register beginning Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 8:30 a.m. by either stopping by the Clubhouse I E&R office or calling (301-598-1300).

Dr. Louis Solomon. Photo by Fred Shapiro

About the Presentation

Solomon's presentation focuses on finding opportunities to practice a lifelong profession, and how an older person's skills and experience can help other enterprises thrive.

He also discusses how older adults can turn their stories and life experiences into professionally published books that serve as a permanent record to pass down to future generations.

Solomon ends his presentation by taking questions from the audience.

Presenter Information

Solomon is president and founders of Senior Advisors For Entrepreneurs (SAFE) located in Bethesda.

SAFE arranges professional connections between seniors and enterprises, including government and industry, which need their experience, skills, knowledge and intelligence for short-term engagements. For more information, visit (www.safeproblemsolvers.com).

Solomon has always loved solving problems. He earned his doctorate in engineering from the University of California and was an assistant professor of mechanical engineering at the University of Michigan from 1968 to 1972.

New crop pecans, cinnamon-glazed pecans, chocolate-glazed pecans, Claxton light and dark fruitcakes, and five different assortments of See's chocolates are available at the Rossmoor Women's Club annual candy sale, Monday, Nov. 12 through Friday, Nov. 16, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

New this year, the sale includes See's soft center chocolates ($22 per box), See's truffles ($15 per box) and See's Polar Bear gift box ($8). Pecan fanciers will be happy to hear that the sale again offers pecan caramel chocolate clusters at $8 a bag.

Rossmoor Women's Club volunteers sell the treats, which make perfect gifts. And they're suitable for friends, neighbors – even moody teenagers!

Some items sell out quickly, so don't wait until the last minute.

Purchases may be paid for only by cash or check, payable to Rossmoor Women's Club. Credit cards are not accepted.

Charities

Profits from the sale benefit the Rossmoor Women's Club's many local projects, including college scholarships awarded each May, contributions to Casey House/Montgomery Hospice, and the Betty Ann Krahne Center, which serves women and families seeking refuge from domestic violence.

The Rossmoor Women's Club also donates annually to FISH and Fireside Forum – both in Leisure World – and provides financial and volunteer support to the Head Start pre-kindergarten program at nearby Harmony Hills

Elementary School.

The Club also makes an annual gift to the Fisher House Foundation, which provides homelike accommodations for family members visiting hospitalized service men and women, and veterans.

Coming Up: Potlucks, Benefit, Thanksgiving Buffet and Holiday Project

by Michael LaPoint

The LW LGBT Alliance kicked off the fall season with its monthly meeting and potluck on Sept. 15. After a tasty potluck brunch, members discussed upcoming events and welcomed new members who had joined the group over the summer months.

Upcoming Events

The next monthly meeting and potluck is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 20, at noon in Clubhouse II.

The special guest speaker is Rosalind Kipping of Compassion and Choices. Following the meal and meeting, Kipping will discuss end-of-life issues and planning, and will review the necessary forms and documents needed to ensure an individual's wishes and choices are known and honored. All are invited to attend.

Tuesday, Nov. 6, is Election Day, and the Alliance urges members and friends to be sure to get out and vote (or vote by absentee ballot), as it believes the election will have great consequences for our community.

On Saturday Nov. 17, at 7 p.m., Alliance members will attend the 18th annual fundraiser "A Little Song, A Little Dance" to benefit the Frederick LGBT Center's HIV Coalition and AIDS Response Effort.

In addition to providing funds for this important initiative, the evening's lively entertainment includes music, dance, performers, a silent auction and a photo booth. Contact the Alliance for more information and for carpooling.

The Alliance has reserved a table for the Thursday, Nov. 22, 3 p.m. seating at the Thanksgiving buffet in the Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom. All members and friends are invited to join us for this delicious meal and fellowship.

Special Holiday Initiative

As the holidays approach, the LW LGBT Alliance sponsors a fund drive to provide gifts to children who are in the local foster care system through CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates). To help make the holidays more special for these children, the Alliance has selected gift wish lists from three of the children.

The Alliance will accept contributions at its Saturday, Oct. 20, monthly meeting from those who wish to participate.

More Information

To learn more about the Alliance, or to add your name to its monthly newsletter email list, please email the group at (lwlgbt@gmail.com) or, better still, attend its next monthly potluck meeting.

The Alliance also maintains a Facebook page, which keeps visitors connected to current events of interest to the LGBT community.

Frye provided the history of cannabis and reasons that it became illegal. She explained the current use of medical cannabis and how it is used to treat chronic pain and debilitating illnesses.

Merrill informed the high turn out crowd that a medical marijuana dispensary will open near the Glenmont Metro Station in Silver Spring in October.

At the end of the presentations, there was an extensive question and answer session and assistance was provided for registering with the Maryland Medical Marijuana Commission.

For more information, contact Carminetta Verner at (301-438-0283).

Getting Ready to Vote in the Nov. 6 General Election

by Fred Seelman

Before the Club's next meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse I, citizens will exercise their most important civic duty: voting.

The Club urges members to now turn their attention to getting ready to vote. This should involve answering three questions: Who are the Republican candidates? How can I vote for them? How can I help others vote for them?

Republicans have the following candidates on the Nov. 6 ballot. For more information about them, check their websites: Larry Hogan for governor and Boyd Ruth-erford for lieutenant governor dates for county council members-at-large.

Registered voters have three ways to cast their ballots: through the mail (absentee voting), early voting at early voting centers, and Election

Day voting. For more details, go to the County Board of Elections website at (www.777vote.org) or call (240-777-8550).

There are three ways members can help others vote. First, volun-tee for a Republican candi-date to help them get their message out to the voters.

Second, contact the County Board of Elections at (elections@montgomerycountymd.gov) or (240-777-8500) and inquire about working as an election official.

Third, help the Republican Club on election day at one of the three voting precincts in Leisure World: Clubhouse I, Clubhouse II or the Inter-Faith Chapel, or make calls to fellow Club members to get out the vote. Contact our president or first vice president to offer to volunteer.

Send comments or ques-tions about these or any other Club matters and/or offers to volunteer to Club president Fred Seelman at (fseelman@gmail.com) or first vice presi-dent Ray Spieler at (301-460-3563). Join us for another quality event on Nov. 20, and enjoy our refreshments.

■ Democratic Club

Phone Banks, Mailings Gear Up for Election

by Roger Blacklow

Can you phone bank from home? Mail pre-addressed and stamped postcards from home? If so, contact the Club at (leisureworlddemclub@gmail.com). Election Day is only a couple weeks away, and the Club wants Leisure World to remain the best bastion for Democratic turnout in Montgomery County.

Oct. 24 Rally

Rep. Jamie Raskin, who can always get a crowd going, hosts a Get-Out-the-Vote rally on Wednesday, Oct. 24, at 2 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Joining him on stage in this unity event are: Susie Turnbull, candidate for Lt. governor; state delegate incumbent Bonnie Cullison and candidates Charlotte Crutchfield and Vaughn Stewart; Marc Elrich, candidate for county executive; and County Council incumbents Hans Reimer and Sid Katz, and candidates Gabe Albornoz and Evan Glass.

More elected officials may show up with a possible surprise guest or two. This is a fun event and will maximize the time you have schmoozing with the candidates. So come and join the party.

Remember: Thursday, Oct. 25 to Friday, Nov. 2 is the time for early voting. Election Day is Tuesday, Nov. 6.

For more information on how and where to vote, absentee ballots and more, go to (elections.maryland.gov).

Club Notes

Do you have an idea, possibly about a future speaker or event? Contact the Club at (leisureworlddemclub@gmail.com). Or come to Club board meetings, which are the first Thursday of every month in Clubhouse I.

The Club continues to gain membership and has passed the 600 mark. Join us by sending your contribution of $10 per person to (Jon Fife, 3200 N. Leisure World Blvd, Apt. 1001, Silver Spring, MD 20906). A contribution automatically provides members a subscrip-tion to the Club's in-house newsletter, the "Donkey Dispatch."

Nov. 11: Kristallnacht Observance

by Fred Firnbacher

Jewish Residents of Leisure World (JRLW) observes the 80th anniversary of Kristallnacht on Sunday, Nov. 11, at 7:30 p.m. in Clubhouse II. The keynote speaker is JRLW member Joseph Turtill, who lived in Austria after the Germans annexed that country.

In November 1938, a 17-year-old Jew living in Paris named Herschel Grynszpan received news that his family had been deported from their home in Germany to the Polish border, where they were stranded and mistreated.

An enraged Herschel went to the German Embassy and shot a diplomat named Ernst Von Rath. On Nov. 9, Von Rath died.

The Nazi propaganda chief, Josef Goebbels, saw the killing as an opportunity to take the persecution of the Jews to the next level. With Hitler’s consent, Goebbels called for a pogrom against Jews.

Within hours, Nazi storm-troopers were rampaging through almost every town and village in Germany and Austria. Synagogues were desecrated and set afire by the Nazis. Jewish businesses and homes were broken into and plundered.

Most Jewish males were arrested and sent to concentration camps, and some were killed. Many consider this night to be the beginning of the Holocaust.

Kristallnacht, or “Crystal Night” in English, is also referred to as the Night of Broken Glass, a reference to the broken shards of glass from Jewish-owned stores that littered the streets.

The Kristallnacht Observance is sponsored by JRLW and free of charge. All residents are invited to attend.

All of Baby Boomer Club's walking groups welcome anyone who likes to walk; there is no requirement to join!

Residents who wish to carpool are asked to contact Joyce Richardson at (301-598-7098) or (777cheekie333@gmail.com) by Thursday evening.

This group usually walks about three miles, but some walk halfway in and then turn around.

about 1.1 miles. Turn left on Hillandale Road and drive 0.4 miles. Turn right onto Little Falls Parkway; parking is about 100 yards ahead.

- Nov. 2 – Rock Creek Trail (Rockville) Meet in the lower circular parking lot at 1:15 p.m. Bring water. Discover iOS 12's Do Not Disturb Feature

by Brent Malcolm

The most hailed feature of iOS 12 is undoubtedly Do Not Disturb (DND), which has been completely overhauled so it can – among other things and most important – learn to turn itself off.

One problem with prior versions was that manually invoked DND sessions didn't end at a reasonable time but instead remained active until 8 a.m. the next day.

In iOS 12, a user can still turn DND on manually with a single tap on its button in Control Center and end DND automatically when it disables itself on the schedule set in Settings > Do Not Disturb. Now, by using force-touch on the DND button in the Control Center, you bring up the DND card, which provides five options: (1) For 1 hour. (2) Until this evening. This setting will silence calls until 7 p.m. (3) Until I leave this location. This option is particularly useful when you're in a doctor appointment or at a movie theater, for example; it will remove the DND when you leave a particular spot. (4) Until the end of the next event. When you enable DND during an event that's on your calendar, this fourth choice appears on the DND card, giving you the option of turning DND off at the end of the event. As soon as your scheduled appointment is over, you'll receive notifications again. (5) Schedule. Tap this button to open Settings > Do Not Disturb.

Writers Share Memories of Baseball and Childhood

by Gladys Blank

At the Group's Oct. 4 meeting Grace Cooper read a lovely poem about the significance of time in our lives.

Radha Pillai shared a few of her many childhood thrills – of climbing trees higher than her brother, and feeding and playing with calves. The Group's members enjoyed hearing about them all.

One member wrote of the passing of a dear sister and reminisced about how funny and sharp she had been.

Phil Wendkos submitted a interesting piece entitled "Good People of the United States." Marion Bedell read a humorous essay recalling the ups and downs of taking "The Test" for an entrance exam.

"Is Deer Hunting Really Better than Sex?" by Woody Shields was not only entertaining but educational as well. Gladys Blank wrote of her long-time interest and love of the game of baseball that she shared with the Washington Post columnist Tom Boswell.

Doug Kiessling regaled the Group with his childhood memory of the trials and tribulations of painting a small house on the family property.

Keeping Maryland's Seniors Safe

Delegate Kramer has led the charge in Annapolis to ensure Maryland's seniors are safe and protected from financial exploitation:

- Created Maryland's Silver Alert to find and bring home seniors who are reported missing
- Established an automated system to check on the welfare of seniors living alone
- Required financial institutions and their employees to report suspected financial elder abuse
- Protected senior homeowners from unscrupulous lenders using reverse mortgage products
- Helped senior victims of financial abuse recover lost assets

Supporting the Special Needs Community

Kramer made it easier for differently-abled members of our community to be self-sufficient and productive:

- Established program to raise funds for housing and job opportunities for residents with developmental disabilities

Taking Care of Our Animals

A true animal lover, Delegate Kramer believes that the way we treat animals speaks volumes about who we are as humans. That's why he:

- Stopped dog sales from cruel puppy mills and "roadside stands"
- Ended dangerous surgeries by non-veterinarians
- Banned the cruel practice of silencing dogs and cats by severing their vocal chords

Protecting Consumers

No one should have their hard-earned money taken from them by bad businesses or high-pressure sales jobs, which is why Kramer:

- Stopped fraudulent charges from being placed on a person's phone bill
- Created strict standards to protect consumers from high pressure door-to-door sales and made it easier to cancel contracts for unneeded work or unfair pricing

Making our Communities Safe

Delegate Ben Kramer is committed to the safety of our community and preventing crime:

- Wrote "Noah's Law", a national model, which requires convicted drunk drivers to install an ignition interlock in their car
- Expanded hate crimes laws to protect women and the disabled
- Wrote the DNA law that has taken sex offenders off the streets

Migration Across Countries and Chessboards

by Bernie Ascher

More than 258 million people worldwide are living outside the country of their birth, and at least 60,000 have died during their migration in the last 18 years, according to the United Nations.

Recently, at least one million people left Syria because of civil war; hundreds of thousands left Myanmar (Burma) because of persecution; and 5,000 per day are leaving Venezuela because of hyperinflation and chaotic economic conditions.

The massive movement of humans creates serious problems for countries in many regions, while the migrants themselves suffer physical, medical and emotional hardships – and even death – along the way.

At the same time, but for different reasons, the migration of animals, birds, insects and fishes also creates problems for governments. These creatures generally move on a seasonal basis, seeking warm weather, warm waters and feeding grounds. They do not settle in any particular country permanently; they generally move back and forth.

These migrant creatures do not respect international boundaries. They swim, run and fly across borders as they please. Governments and humanitarian organizations, however, are concerned about declines in the populations of various migrant species such as jaguars, Siberian cranes, Monarch butterflies and certain whales. Blue whales were nearly extinct until the International Convention for the Regulation of Whaling came into effect in 1966.

Other international agreements regarding the migration of animals, birds and fishes include the 1916 Migratory Bird Treaty between the United States and Canada (expanded to cover Mexico, Japan and Russia in later years) and the Convention on the Conservation of Migratory Species of Wild Animals with 124 countries (as of 2017).

With respect to humans, last July all members of the United Nations, except the U.S., agreed to a Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. Formal adoption is scheduled for December in Marrakesh, Morocco.

The talks originated in 2016, following a declaration by all 193 members to create new mechanisms to protect the rights of migrants and refugees by ensuring their safe resettlement and access to employment and education.

The U.S. participated in the negotiations until last December when the Trump Administration withdrew, asserting that the agreement was not compatible with national sovereignty and would undermine efforts of individual countries to control national borders.

At a press conference welcoming the new agreement, UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres stated: “Countries have the right and even the responsibility to determine their own migration policies, and to responsibly manage their borders. But they must do so in full respect for human rights.”

Building a wall across the entire southern border of the United States would affect the migration of animals, particularly jaguars, low-flying owls, other birds, butterflies, moths and other insects. The REAL ID Act of 2005 authorizes the Department of Homeland Security to waive local, state and federal laws to expedite the construction of barriers along the U.S.-Mexico border.

“So far,” according to Mother Nature Network, “37 laws have been waived permanently on the border, including the Endangered Species Act, the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, the American Eagle Protection Act...” Already, roughly 35 percent of the 2,000-mile border with Mexico has been fenced.

At Leisure World, there is no wall to climb and no passport is needed to play chess. Chess itself is a game of migration as players move pieces constantly to other spaces on the board. In the game on this page, it is Black’s turn to move. What is Black’s best move?

The solution follows the usual announcement that the Chess Club meets in on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1-4 p.m. in Clubhouse II.

SOLUTION: Black moves the Rook to f2. Checkmate!

So, do not wait for an end to international migration. Do not wait for completion of a U.S. border wall. Do not wait for migratory birds to return from Mexico. Play chess now!

EDUCATION

The Musical Mind: How Music Can Positively Transform Your Life Forever: Instructor Dr. Harry Dunstan believes that music must be experienced and that music also has the capacity to help us heal ourselves.

Dunstan begins with an overview of the basic elements that constitute music: melody, rhythm, tempo, harmony, tonality/modality, texture, forms and medium. In the second session, he explains how the brain/mind/body perceives these elements, leading participants to a fuller understand of how humans experience them. Using the concepts from the first two sessions, participants learn what the difference is between the musical brain and the musical mind, and how engaged listening to music leads to a more enhanced life. In the final session, participants will explore how to make music his/her most effective medicine and connect with a higher consciousness. During this session, Dunstan makes specific recommendations on how to listen and experience music in a way to transform one's life.

Class meets Fridays, Nov. 2-30 (no class Nov. 23), 11 a.m.-noon. Fee: $30. Register at Clubhouse I.

EXERCISE

NEW – Beginner and Advanced Tai Chi with Steve: A must for seniors! Tai Chi builds strength in muscles and bones, promotes a healthy heart, and is fun and easy to do. It improves endurance, flexibility, breathing, and circulation.

The class begins with 30 minutes of stretching and muscle strengthening exercises that promote greater agility, better posture and strengthen muscles. This is followed by meditation for 10 minutes and Tai Chi for 20 minutes. Tai Chi is the best way to improve balance and coordination, thereby decreasing the risk of falling and fractures.

Class meets Tuesdays and Thursdays, Oct. 30-Jan. 31, 2019, 9:30-10:30 a.m. No class will be held on the following dates: Nov. 6, Nov. 22, Dec. 25, Dec. 27 or Jan. 1, 2019. The instructor is Steve McCleary.

For more information, call Maureen McCleary at (301-598-1145). Fee: $45 for one day per week; $75 for both days. Register at Clubhouse II.

NEW – Move It or Lose It: Enjoy dancing to the rhythm of a beat? These aerobic exercises will keep you moving and up on your feet.

Movements are designed to promote cardiovascular health while having fun. Warm up and cool down are designed to strengthen and tone.

Questions? Contact Betty Smith, Certified Group Exercise Instructor, at (301-598-4245).

Class meets Wednesdays, Nov. 28-Dec. 26, 4-5 p.m. Fee: $29. Register at Clubhouse II.

NEW – Senior Sneakers:

Get up and go with a safe, heart-healthy cardio workout that is gentle on the joints. The workout includes easy-to-follow low-impact moves and upper-body strength training. Have fun and move to the music through a variety of exercises designed to increase your cardio fitness level, strength, range of movement, and activities for daily living. Bring your hand-held weights and work at your own pace.

Class meets Mondays (with Shirley), Nov. 5-Dec. 17, and Thursdays (with Sue), Nov. 8-Dec. 20, 9-9:45 a.m. You can take the class on Mondays or Thursdays, or sign up for both days. (No classes will be held the week of Nov. 19-23.) Fee: $36, one day per week; $60 for both days. Register at Clubhouse II.

NEW – Mild Exercise with Shirley: All exercises, seated or standing, are led by instructor Shirley Lloyd.

Class meets Tuesdays, Nov. 6-Dec. 18, and Wednesdays, Nov. 7-Dec. 10, 11-11:45 a.m. You can take the class on Tuesdays or Wednesdays, or sign up for both days. (No classes will be held the week of Nov. 19-23.) Fee: $36, one day per week; $60 for both days. Register at Clubhouse II.

Zumba Gold with Denny – Mondays or Fridays: This program was designed for the older active adult, a person who has not been exercising in a long time or individuals who may be limited physically. The biggest difference between Zumba Gold and Zumba Basic is that Zumba Gold is done at a much lower intensity. It is just as much fun, just not as fast! Zumba Gold utilizes the same great Latin styles of music and dance that are used in the Zumba basic program. Class meets Mondays, Nov. 5-Dec. 17 (no class Nov. 26), 10:30 a.m. or Fridays, Nov. 9-Dec. 21 (no class Nov. 23), 1 p.m. Fee: $37.50 for one day; $72 for two days. Register at Clubhouse II.

Tap Dancing in a Chair with Carol Neckar: This is great way to have fun, learn something new and exercise! If you are an experienced tapper and miss it, or a beginner who always wanted to tap, but your body says “no,” this is the class for you. For experienced tappers, this will be a “remember when” and an “ain’t this great!” review. For beginners, it will be an easy start with the basics, moving to delightful music that will make your feet want to dance. It’s going to be a lot of fun.

Experienced tappers who don’t need a chair are welcome to take the class, but all students work from a chair.

No tap shoes are required, but participants must bring a pair of hard sole shoes.

Carol began taking tap lessons at age four, continuing through high school when she taught tap to offset the cost of lessons, and performed in recitals and community theater. In college, she taught dance for the Physical Education Department and, in the summer, continued to perform in local theater. While her career took her in another direction, her love affair with dance has never ended.

If you have questions, call Carol at (301-598-5980).

Class meets Thursdays, Oct 25-Dec. 6 (no class Nov. 22), 4-4:45 p.m. Fee: $38. Register at Clubhouse II.

Ballet Exercises for Seniors: Get ready to move like a dancer! No experience required. Enjoy ballet movements at the barre for seniors. These exercises promote balance while improving muscle tone and posture. Have fun and get fit. Low impact; learn the vocabulary of ballet: pli  , releve and tendu. For more information, call Betty at (301-598-4245).

Class meets Wednesdays, Oct. 24-Nov. 21, 2 p.m. Fee: $29. Register at Clubhouse II.

WATER EXERCISE

NEW – Water Exercise with Nancy: Participants will gain strength, stamina and tone from this cardio class. Dumbbells are used, although they are not required, and are available for purchase from the instructor.

Class meets Tuesdays, Nov. 6-Dec. 18, and Thursdays, Nov. 8-Dec. 20, 11 a.m.-noon. (No classes will be held the week of Nov. 19-23.) You can take the class on Tuesdays or Thursdays, or sign up for both days. Fee: $36, one day per week; $60 for both days. Register at Clubhouse II.

NEW – Non-impact Fusion Water Exercise with Beth: This class is held in the round leisure pool (warm water). Dance, yoga poses, and cardio movements are all fused together to give students an awesome, fun class. Participants will improve their posture, balance, flexibility and muscle strength.

Class meets Tuesdays, Nov. 6-Dec. 18, and Thursdays, Nov. 8-Dec. 20, 1-2 p.m.

(No classes will be held the week of Nov. 19-23.) You can take the class on Tuesdays or Thursdays, or sign up for both days. Fee: $36, one day per week; $60 for both days. Register at Clubhouse II.

NEW – Aqua Fit with Shirley: This unique class blends the best of both worlds using water aerobics and yoga. Water aerobics is done in the lap pool for 30 minutes, focusing on cardio and strength. The class then moves to the social warm water pool and finishes up with yoga stretches that focus on balance and posture.

Class meets Wednesdays, Nov. 7-Dec. 19, from 1-2 p.m. (No classes will be held the week of Nov. 19-23.) Fee: $36, one day per week; $60, when taken with one day of another water class. Register at Clubhouse II.
