Physical Properties Department Outsources Renovation and Remodeling Projects

by Stacy Smith, Leisure World News

At a sprawling table in a Rockville kitchen and bath design studio, brothers Brian and Drew Willson tinker with plans for renovation projects, hashing out the details together to ensure their client is satisfied with the results.

The duo has completed renovations and other home construction projects locally for 42 years, a service they've always extended to the residents of Leisure World.

But recently, the Willsons contracted with the Physical Properties Department (PPD) to complete the kitchen and bath renovation and remodeling projects that, up until this spring, PPD had completed in-house.

By outsourcing renovations and remodeling, PPD reduces its labor, time and financial expenditures, said Thomas Snyder, assistant general manager of PPD facilities and services.

Board Approves 2017 Audit Report, Contingency Fund Transfer

by Stacy Smith, Leisure World News

The Leisure World Community Corporation (LWCC) board of directors passed a motion to approve the 2017 Audit Report of the Leisure World of Maryland Trust at its regular meeting on April 24.

The CPA firm of Malvin, Riggins & Company performed the audit report. Approval was recommended by the Audit Advisory Committee.

In its March 21 written report to the LWCC board, the firm noted that "all significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period" and that "no new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during 2017."

Fund Transfer

A motion approving the transfer of the 2017 community facilities operating surplus of $12,208 to the Contingency Fund soundly passed. The Contingency Fund is used working on two projects at Leisure World under the auspices of PPD in March, often works closely with the department when a renovation requires plumbing, electrical, HVAC and other service and repair expertise.

“It works to the residents’ advantage, because [PPD] has intimate knowledge of all the buildings; so we do try to utilize them,” Willson said.

Starting a Project

Residents who are thinking of renovating or remodeling a room in their home are welcome to stop by the PPD showroom or Willson’s off-site studio, where they will find a variety of cabinetry, counters, fixtures, hardware and other accessories available for purchase for kitchen and bathroom projects.

Drew manages the studio while Brian typically visits with clients in their homes.

“We go over what [the resident’s] vision is,” Willson said.

Brian measures the kitchen or bathroom and draws up a design and price estimate, often making recommendations to the client along the way. Clients can visit Willson’s studio to work with him to revise a renovation’s preliminary designs.

Clients can choose products and accessories from what is available in the PPD showroom and off-site studio, or select products on their own or within Willson’s suggested retail outlets. Willson often selects and purchases products on behalf of his clients’ wishes.

“The price that I pay is the price that [the client] would pay,” Willson said.

And from requests for roll out trays and easy-to-reach cabinets, to ADA-compliant ramps and other accessories, each client is free to design to his or her specifications.

Willson’s is a family-owned business; Brian joined on after building his first home at just 19-years-old.

“My dad was a builder, so I grew up with a hammer in my hand,” he said.

to cover unforeseen Trust expenses.

In its rationale, the Budget and Finance Advisory Committee suggested that adding money to the Contingency Fund would prepare it for potential uninsured storm damage claims and unbudgeted projects currently under consideration.

Gate Access Software

The LWCC board passed a motion that recommends deferring funding of Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) controlled gate access software. The motion requests that the Security & Transportation Advisory Committee provide information on the software’s operational impact and technical aspects.

RFID is a form of wireless communication that uses electromagnetic fields to automatically identify tags attached to objects. Using RFID controlled gate access at an approximate capital cost of $126,807.40 would augment security as vehicles enter and exit through the gates, according to the Committee.

Charter Change

The LWCC board unanimously passed a motion to approve the Insurance Advisory Committee’s charter amendment.

With an amended charter, the Committee hopes to gain more participation from different mutuals by opening membership to residents who have general business experience or experience in condominium or HOA management.

For more information about the Insurance Advisory Committee, sign in to (residents.lwmc.com), select Documents under the Documents drop-down arrow and click on the Advisory and Special Committees folder to search for Insurance. Residents may also contact Committee chair Gerry Sommer at (301-598-6789).

Updates

- Maureen Freeman, Director of Communications, presented an interim report outlining the department’s internal and external communication platforms and services. A full report with proposals for development will be sent to the LWCC board of directors in June.
- Health Advisory Committee member Cathy Galano reported that nearly 76.8 percent of MedStar Health medical center patients this quarter rated their visit to the center with a 9 or 10 on a scale of 1-10. Galano attributed a better patient experience to improved staff training.

The next regular meeting of the LWCC board of directors is Tuesday, May 22, at 9:30 a.m. in Clubhouse I.

Where In Leisure World?

The mysterious letter “R” found in the last edition of Leisure World News helps spell “Veterans” on a sign at Veterans Park, the strip of Trust property located in front of Clubhouse I that welcomes residents and guests who enter Leisure World through the main gate.

Veterans Park is the site of a wreath laying scheduled for Monday, May 28, Memorial Day, in honor of military veterans. All residents are welcome. For details, see the Events and Entertainment section of this publication. Photos by Leisure World News

THOUGHTS & OPINIONS: From Our Residents

Wednesday Classy Jazz Band

Why would a Leisure World restaurant eliminate a program that has been very successful? On the fourth Wednesday of each month, The Classy Jazz Band plays a dance/dinner program in the Clubhouse Grille that has been enjoyed by a full house.

If it's a question of having other bands, there are three other Wednesdays and many more evenings for other bands to be featured.

Don't mess with success!

– Susan and Jonas Weiss

Leisure World is Not a Country Club

Some people like to refer to Leisure World as a country club, but it is not. In a country club, the golf course is most often the star of the show, and that's okay because generally nobody resides in a country club. Even though Leisure World can look and feel like a country club, it is actually a gated, age-restricted, residential community. In this community, the residents should be the star of the show, not the golf course.

Did anyone see the small article on page 48 of Leisure World News' April 6, 2018 issue? The headline for the article was a warning to all non-golfers, "No Walking Permitted on the Golf Course." I am aware that these golf course pedestrian rules are not new to Leisure World, and I understand why the Leisure World Community Corporation (LWCC) board of directors and management want to enforce them. For the record, I am keenly aware that this golf course controversy has been going on for years. But I think it's time for the majority of residents to make their opinions known to management and the LWCC board.

I don't harbor any bad feelings toward the golfers, however, they are only a minority of residents. I do resent the LWCC board of directors and management requiring all residents to help subsidize the golf course. Residents are also expected to support the maintenance of the golf course; yet, the non-golfing majority is ordered to not trespass on our own golf course, 12 hours a day, every day. Enough of this nonsense. Leisure World is a large residential community, and we residents should have the right to a friendly, inclusive atmosphere.

In my opinion, we should keep the driving range and replace nine holes of the course with two or three large "miniature golf" courses as a compromise – giving many more residents and their grandchildren a chance to use and enjoy these underused, most beautiful acres in our community.

May 6: Civil Rights and Affirmative Action

by Jonas Weiss

Donald Wendell, a civil rights leader, presents a talk on civil rights and affirmative action at a Fireside Forum program on Sunday, May 6, at 2:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Wendell joined CORE in 1949 at the invitation of Farmer and organized a CORE chapter at City College of New York.

He has enjoyed a distinguished career as a trade unionist, civil rights activist and social reformer.

Wendell has received numerous awards and honors including the Living Treasures Award by the Office of Civil Rights “in recognition of his outstanding contribution to civil rights.” He lives in Leisure World with his wife, Patricia.

May 18-20: Production Pays Tribute to World War II Veterans

by Fred Shapiro

“A Musical Tribute to World War II Veterans” returns for three performances on Friday, May 18, and Saturday, May 19, at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday, May 20, at 2 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Tickets, $10 per person (check only, payable to LWMC), are available in the Clubhouse I E&R office. Military veterans from all eras are asked to RSVP at the clubhouse but are admitted free of charge.

Set in a simulated radio station, the show uses projected newsreels that follow the course of the war from the bombing of Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941 to the end of the war with the Japanese surrender on Sept. 2, 1945.

Music from the era is featured throughout the show. Attendees will recall wartime favorites such as “Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy” by the Andrews Sisters, “Lili Marlene” sung by Marlene Dietrich, “Der Fuehrer’s Face” by Spike Jones and “As Time Goes By” from the movie “Casablanca.”

At one point in the show, all veterans are asked to stand and be recognized for their service.

Many residents may recall listening to news accounts of the war or seeing off friends and family members who served in the military. Some residents, such as George Jacobs, the show’s producer, have a more personal connection to the performance.

Jacobs served in the Air Force during World War II. As he stood in the audience at the March performance listening to the Air Force theme play on the loud speaker, visions of his B-17 “Yankee Gal” crew flashed through his mind.

“I was not only a part of the [show’s] team, but also a World War II G.I. sitting in the audience enjoying the tribute,” he said.

Sponsored by the Jewish War Veterans Charles B. Krieger Post 567, all proceeds from the show will be distributed to a number of veteran’s organizations.

June 15: An Evening with the Riccardis

Get ready for an evening of sidesplitting fun on Friday, June 15, at 7 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium when Sandy and Richard Riccardi return.

Combining comedy cabaret with parody, this husband and wife team of professional musicians has over 35 million views on social media and is performing their all-comedy show, "Tastefully Raunchy" for Leisure World. It describes their cracked and bush-whacked road to happiness.

This original cabaret act, with Sandy singing as Richard plays piano, will have you laughing out loud.

They have been described as a blend of Tom Lehrer, Victor Borge, Madeleine Kahn and PDQ Bach. Or, if you will, Captain and Tenille, Nichols and May and George Burns and Gracie Allen. Cabaret Scenes Magazine calls it "A Musical Saturday Night Live... One helluva rib-tickling night out!"

Richard has played for such megastars as Tom Jones, Joel Gray, Martha Raye, Diahann Carrol and Wesla Whitfield. He was the associate conductor for the third national Broadway tour of "Annie" and has played with the San Francisco Symphony, the San Francisco Opera and the San Francisco Ballet. As well, he records at Skywalker Ranch for movies and videos, and may even be the guy playing the piano for your cellphone ringtone.

Sandy spent 11 years performing in musical theater and light opera with New York Gilbert and Sullivan Players, the Westchester Broadway Theater and others. She received a master's of music degree from the Manhattan School of Music.

Sponsored by the E&R Department, tickets are $12 per person and go on sale at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday, May 8, in both clubhouse E&R offices. Please bring you Leisure World ID.

May 19: '1804: The Hidden History of Haiti'

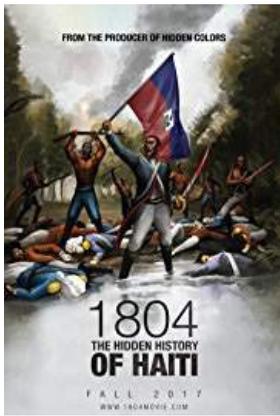

by Patricia Means

On Saturday, May 19, LWAAAC presents the documentary film, "1804: The Hidden History of Haiti" (2017, 1 hour 55 minutes, documentary, not rated) at 2 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

This film is an untold history of the Haitian Revolution and presents in-depth portrayals of Francois Makandal, Duffy Bookman, Toussaint Louverture and Jean-Jacques Dessalines as principal players in the fight for independence.

The documentary provides a look into the strategies, motivations and mindsets that led to the only known slave population that successfully overthrew the oppressors and formed a nation free from slavery and ruled by non-whites and former slaves.

The Haitian anti-slavery and anti-colonial insurrection by self-liberated slaves against French colonial rule was widely seen as a defining moment for Europeans and Americans.

Directed and produced by Tariq Nasheed, the film's cast includes Wyclef Jean, Akala and Bayyinah Bello.

Admission is free; tickets are not required. All residents are invited.

May 23: 'A Short Stay in Switzerland'

by Rosalind Kipping

On Wednesday, May 23, at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I, Compassion and Choices present the BBC TV movie "A Short Stay in Switzerland" (2009, 1 hour 30 minutes, biography/drama/romance, not rated) followed by a discussion about the Swiss Dignitas Clinic.

Not long after the death of her husband from an incurable neurological disease, Dr. Anne Turner (Julie Walters) is diagnosed with a near identical illness. With determined rationality, Anne decides that when her illness reaches a critical point, she will take her own life.

To do this, she needs her children's support to travel to the Dignitas Clinic in Switzerland. But the more her children struggle to understand their mother's desire to die, the further they pull apart, and the magnitude of the situation threatens to tear the family to pieces.

The presentation is free and open to all residents; tickets are not required.

Sunday Afternoon at the Movies

May 27: 'Going in Style'

The E&R Department is pleased to present "Sunday Afternoon at the Movies." The movies are shown at 2 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

On Sunday, May 27, the featured film is "Going in Style" (2017, 1 hour 58 minutes, comedy/crime, rated PG-13 for drug content, language and some suggestive material).

Cheated out of their pensions, three elderly friends decide to extract justice from the system by robbing a bank and then heading for Las Vegas.

Willie Davis (Morgan Freeman) needs a kidney transplant and Joe Harding (Michael Caine) is about to lose his house. Albert "Al" Garner (Alan Arkin) is not keen on the idea of robbing a bank, but will go along with his friends.

Their grand plan might have worked, but it starts to fall apart when dogged FBI agent Arlen Hamer (Matt Dillon) picks up their trail.

The film also features Ann-Margaret, Christopher Lloyd and John Ortiz.

Free tickets, limit two per person, are required and can be obtained beginning

Tuesday, May 8, at 8:30 a.m. from either clubhouse E&R office. Please bring your Leisure World ID.

Sunday movie screenings are for your enjoyment; there is no charge. Be sure to pick up your ticket(s) in advance if you plan to attend. Please note that no one will be seated after 2 p.m.

May 30: JRLW Presents 'Bombshell: The Hedy Lamarr Story'

by Jonas Weiss

Jewish Residents of Leisure World (JRLW) and Coming of Age in Maryland present the movie "Bombshell: The Hedy Lamarr Story" (2017, 1 hour 28 minutes, documentary/biography/history, not rated) on Wednesday, May 30, at 1:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

An Austrian Jewish émigré, Hedy Lamarr became a Hollywood film star known as the world's most beautiful woman, but few people know she was also an ingenious inventor who revolutionized modern communication and worked to help defeat the Nazis during World War II.

With her friend, composer George Antheil, she developed a frequency-hopping communications system that prevented Allied torpedoes from being tracked or jammed, and a radio-signaling device to keep enemies from decoding messages.

Some of the principles of their work may be incorporated in Bluetooth technology. A discussion follows the presentation.

Tickets, $7 per person, (checks only, payable to JRLW) are available beginning Tuesday, May 8, in the Clubhouse I E&R office.

All residents are welcome.

■ Low Vision Support Group

May 9: Vision Specialist Addresses Group

by Larry Cohen

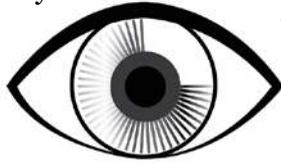

Join the Low Vision Support Group at their next meeting on Wednesday, May 9, at 1 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

The meeting's speaker is Dr. Belinda Weinberg, the newest low vision specialist at the Prevention of Blindness Society's (POB) Low Vision Learning Center in Washington, D.C., which is scheduled to open soon.

Weinberg graduated from Pennsylvania College of Optometry and most recently completed a New England College of Optometry low vision and ocular disease residency at the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs' Connecticut Healthcare System in West Haven, Connecticut.

There, she provided rehabilitation for blind and visually impaired patients as well as managed patients with an array of ocular diseases. At the POB Low Vision Learning Center, she will provide individualized care for her patients, addressing their unique needs to help maximize their quality of life.

Spread the Word

The Low Vision Support Group encourages friends and family of low vision residents to help keep them informed of the Group's meetings and activities.

Information empowers individuals to make the medical choices that are right for them.

Genetics plays a role in many eye diseases. For Eastern Europeans, age-related macular degeneration is common, while glaucoma often disproportionately affects African-Americans.

Early onset detection can reverse or slow the progression of some eye diseases and conditions.

The American Academy of Ophthalmology (AAO) has released a new video titled "There Is Something You Can Do." The powerful six-minute video encourages all eye care professionals to adopt what David W. Parke II, chief executive officer of the AAO, calls "the new standard of care."

Simply put, it is "the referral of those with vision loss to low vision rehabilitation services" as early as possible.

by Sandra McLeskey

Don't forget to get tickets for the panel discussion "Alternative Ways to Care for Yourself" held on Tuesday, May 15, at 10:30 a.m. in Clubhouse I. Beth Armagost, massage therapist; Gail Koffman, acupuncturist; and Karen Basinger, nutritionist each explain how their practices can enhance clients' health and quality of life.

Armagost is a licensed massage therapist with a strong background in anatomy. She brings a "full system" approach to massage. If requested, she will consult with the client's other health-care providers to develop an integrated plan.

Basinger is a nutritionist at MedStar Health. She holds bachelor's and master's degrees in nutrition and has extensive experience in counseling patients with a variety of health challenges in diet and nutrition.

Koffman is a nurse practitioner that specializes in acupuncture. She is a graduate of the Helms Medical Institute and the Maryland University of Integrative Health (formerly Tai Sophia Institute) with a master's in acupuncture, and is licensed in Maryland.

Each of these practitioners offers services in the MedStar Health medical center in Leisure World. The panel discussion promises to be an interesting introduction to their services.

■ Patients Rights Council of Leisure World

Council Takes Summer Break, Returns in September

by Mary Ann Johnston

The Patients Rights Council of Leisure World does not meet in May. Please visit the Council's table at the Health and Wellness Expo on Thursday, May 24, between 10 a.m.-2 p.m. in the Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom.

The Patients Rights Council opposes legislation that legalizes physician-assisted suicide (PAS) and educates residents on health and end-of-life issues.

PAS legislation was not introduced in Maryland in 2018, an election year, but the Council expects to see such legislation introduced again in the 2019 Maryland legislative session. Previous years saw PAS bills die in committee.

Patients Rights Council meetings resume in September. The Council is planning excellent speakers and programs to educate its members on the dangers of PAS and what it can do to prevent this legislation in Maryland.

■ Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL)

June 11: Genetics and Cancer Research

by Fred Shapiro

In light of the considerable research effort undertaken to understand cancer and its treatment, the Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL) presents a program on Monday, June 11, featuring Dr. Christine Ross of the National Cancer Institute, a part of the National Institutes of Health. Her topic is “Genetics and Cancer Research.” The program is at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

Dr. Christine Ross, courtesy photo

Ross and her colleagues are researching how cancer that has spread is different from its original tumor. Frequently, the cancer that spreads to a new organ is no longer sensitive to treatment that worked well on the original tumor.

Results indicate that cancer cells in the lungs may be sensitive to drugs that are already available and known to be safe. They have also found that the original tumor may contain some clues about its destination in the body.

Knowing this, researchers can, hopefully, make a diagnostic test to predict where the cancer will spread.

Ross attended Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. She majored in biochemistry and molecular biology, with a minor in Spanish.

The June 11 program is free and tickets are not required, but residents are asked to register beginning Tuesday, May 8, at 8:30 a.m. by stopping by the Clubhouse I E&R office or calling (301-598-1300).

May 25: ‘What’s Up? Your Balance, Your Sixth Sense’

by Fred Shapiro

A likely problem for some residents are injuries incurred by falling due to loss of balance.

The Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL) presents a talk by Dr. Belen Hurlle from the National Institutes of Health entitled “What’s Up? Your Balance, Your Sixth Sense.” The program is on Friday, May 25, at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

Do you experience loss of balance when standing or walking? Individuals who have vertigo – the feeling that they or everything around them is spinning – probably have a problem in their inner ear, which contains many tiny structures that together make up a person’s balance control center.

The spinning sensation and dizziness can limit a person’s activities and make him or her feel sick. Join Hurlle in exploring the sense of balance from birth to old age, with an emphasis on some simple maneuvers individuals can do at home that might bring relief to some types of vertigo.

Hurle develops models of public engagement related to genetics and public health. Specifically, she identifies target populations and public health issues in need of education programs and develops partnerships around them between the National Human

Dr. Belen Hurlle, courtesy photo

Genome Research Institute (NHGRI) and communities of interest.

She holds a doctorate in biology from the University of Oviedo in Spain. She joined the NHGRI in November 2002 after completing four years of postdoctoral training in molecular genetics at Washington University in St. Louis studying the inner ear and the sense of balance.

Attend the May 25 presentation to learn ways to cope with vertigo and loss of balance.

Admission is free and tickets are not required, but residents are requested to register beginning Tuesday, May 8, at 8:30 a.m. by stopping by the Clubhouse I E&R office or calling (301-598-1300).

Volunteers Keep FISH Running

by Beth Leanza

FISH volunteers are like librarians who lend out items but, instead of lending books, they lend medical and assistive equipment. FISH's inventory includes wheelchairs, walkers, commodes and shower chairs.

Volunteers keep records of what has been lent and to whom. Unlike the public libraries, all of FISH's items are donated. So FISH is not as anxious to make sure the items return. FISH recommends a one to three month loan period.

FISH also gives away canes, elevated toilet seats, crutches and easy-reachers. The group also receives donations of incontinence aids, pads and nutrition beverages.

FISH likes to help other clubs and organizations at Leisure World by accepting donations on their behalf. The Lions Club collects glasses and hearing aids, and the Kiwanis Club helps Ronald McDonald House by collecting can tabs.

Residents who have lost a personal item are encouraged to contact FISH. When calling the office, ask for Lost and Found.

Volunteers are in the FISH office Monday to Friday (except for major holidays) from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. The phone number is (301-598-1345).

FISH is always looking for new members. If interested, contact president Beth Leanza at (301-598-4569). FISH suggests a training/orientation session for new volunteers. Volunteers may be placed on a sub list, or sometimes a regular session is available.

DEMOCRAT
COUNTY EXECUTIVE

David is a progressive Democrat and lifelong resident of Montgomery County. It's where he went to school, met his wife and where they're raising their family. It's also where he started and grew a healthcare business that became a Fortune 500 company with thousands of employees.

Our County Council hasn't done enough to address some of our most pressing issues and has become dependent on raising property taxes to fund county services. As County Executive, David will fight to make our county the best place in the nation. He'll leverage his successful business background to implement innovative solutions to improve the quality of life for all residents without raising taxes. Key priorities include:

- Grow our economy, create more high-wage jobs and generate new revenue to pay for education, transportation and other county programs and services without raising your taxes.
- Improve transportation accessibility by making Ride On buses free, enhancing pedestrian safety measures and implementing "smart" traffic lights across the county to reduce congestion, travel times and emissions. Longer term, expand on-demand rideshare vans for point-to-point transportation.
- Expand the availability of affordable senior housing by putting a stop to increasing property taxes and enhancing our affordable housing program for low-income, older adults with new and creative solutions.
- Launch our "Ask-A-Pharmacist" program to save seniors on out-of-pocket prescription drug costs and add telemedicine technology in our senior centers for immediate access to medical professionals.
- Invest in our education system to close the achievement gap by expanding early childhood education and adding more programs to ensure all students graduate high school college- or career-ready.
- Keep our schools safe by providing free gun safes and safety demonstrations to MCPS parents and launching an anonymous tip app in our schools.

May 9: Program Features 'Weird Stuff Out West'

by Frank Roddy

On Wednesday, May 9, the Gem, Lapidary and Mineral Society of Leisure World presents the program "Weird Stuff Out West" to acquaint residents with the unusual geological formations in the U.S. West that one might typically miss when visiting national parks.

The program is at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse II, and Frank Roddy, president of the Gem, Lapidary and Mineral Society of Leisure World, is the speaker.

The East Coast does not have slot canyons, hoodoos, haboob or many other similar geological formations that are found on the West Coast, so come to the next meeting to learn about these wonders.

Slot canyons form when water flows through cracks in the harder surface rock and erodes softer rock beneath. Hoodoos, "legend people" in Paiute mythology, have boulders delicately balanced on the tops of tall columns.

Lenticular clouds make a volcano look as if it is erupting. Terrible jokulhlaups, Icelandic for glacial floods, occurred on Mount Rainier in 1963 and 1998, but did not kill anyone.

Volcanic lahars, Indonesian for volcanic mudflows, have killed many people in the U.S. and a number of towns are threatened by another potential eruption. A haboob, Arabic for dust storm, can occur in the western deserts at any time.

All of these phenomena are illustrated through Roddy's photos. Come join the group on May 9 to learn about U.S. geology and meet some interesting people.

Roddy's interest in lapidary arts (stone cutting and polishing for jewelry) was piqued when his father made jewelry by cutting and polishing stones.

For information about the lapidary shop, contact shop steward Mark Parker at (240-

Members Choose Favorite Art Pieces for Display

by Reese Barnett

Club members recently took stock of the ceramic artwork they have created over the years and chose their favorites.

Come to the Clubhouse II lobby near the E&R office to view this eclectic, handpicked collection of ceramic pieces, which is on display in the cabinet through May.

Workshop

Club members attended a lively workshop conducted by Janice Handley on March 10.

Members learned how to effortlessly draw and paint flowers on a ceramic tile. The flowers were simple in design, but through easy-to-follow painting techniques, they became intricate and lovely works of art.

Additional members-only workshops are in the planning stages, and details will be posted in the ceramics studio.

Gift Shop

Residents looking for a housewarming, thank you, wedding or other type of gift are encouraged to stop by the Club's gift shop.

It includes a rotating stock of goodies created by the Club's ceramicists, and they are eager to help shoppers select just the right item for them.

The Club does slip casting, using liquid clay to create a piece from a mold. The Club's mold room is jammed full of molds, both old favorites and new ones that were recently purchased.

Photo Competition Season Comes to an End

by Fred Shapiro

The Rossmoor Camera Club concludes its 2017-2018 season with a final meeting on Tuesday, May 8, at 6 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

After conducting the business portion of the meeting, attendees will watch a slideshow featuring Club members' favorite photos and a 2017 Photographic Society of America (PSA) Chapter Showcase.

The meeting also includes passage of newly amended by-laws, which will be circulated to all members prior to the meeting; selection of four competition topics for the 2020-2012 season; and the election of officers for the 2018-2019 year.

Members Learn to Create Traditional Chinese Art

by Ann Bolt

The Rossmoor Art Guild (RAG) and guests were entertained and enlightened by Bertrand Mao at the art studio's Spring Fling on April 21.

He briefly touched on holding brushes, using the right kind of ink and creating lines incorporating most of the value scale.

Lots of pressure on the brush yields a heavy dark line, while using only the tip gives delicate details.

Mao works in the traditional Chinese art forms of Shan-Shui painting, Chinese calligraphy and the Four Gentlemen of Chinese brush painting – the plum blossom, chrysanthemum, bamboo and orchid.

Shan-Shui involves depicting scenery or natural landscapes using brush and ink. It is the highest form of Chinese painting and incorporates the bird's eye view of the scene.

Shan-Shui translates to mountain-water and often depicts a scene that only exists in one's memory or desires.

Mao's brushstrokes have the feel and rhythm of music and dance. He finished his painting with a poem written in calligraphy, and stamped it with a personal seal.

His graceful presentation left some in the audience wishing for more of a chance to explore this artistic expression.

Sign up in the studio if interested in studying more of the Chinese painting technique.

Classes and Exhibits

The spring class sessions end Saturday, May 19, and resume the week of Monday, May 21. That is a good time to find an en plein air group and move outside to paint. Leisure World has many wonderful vistas to capture with brush and paint.

Whether a painting is created inside or outside, it can be submitted for the next exhibits that begin on Saturday, May 5, in Clubhouse I and Signal Financial Federal Credit Union.

Paintings for the exhibit must be entered by Friday, May 4. Several first-time exhibitors are showing their fresh and charming work.

Those who receive the most votes on their painting at the Credit Union receive a gift card in recognition of their achievement.

Many opportunities to enter or visit exhibits exist during this time of year. La Galeria at Ranazul Restaurant in Fulton (or Maple Lawn) features members from RAG, and Brookside Gardens in Wheaton includes the work of several members in May. RAG has its own show at La Galeria at Ranazul Restaurant in June.

Whether using a Chinese or Leisure World brushstroke, just keep painting!

Performers Say Farewell to the '60s

by Hannelle Allen

Fun and Fancy's musical celebration of the '60s has ended.

The four performances of "Broadway Melodies of the 60's," directed by Allan Okin and produced by Abigail Murton and Carol Neckar, were a follow-up to last fall's celebration of the popular music of that period.

Participating in the production, either onstage or off, was a wonderful experience for all concerned, and the audiences gave the show rave reviews.

Many thanks are due to all who worked so hard, but particular thanks are due to hat designers Bob and Ron Stewart, who provided those incredible feathery concoctions worn in the finale.

Coming up is the big fall production of "Damn Yankees."

Poetry Readers Group

The Fun and Fancy Poetry Readers Group holds an organizational meeting on Sunday, May 6, at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse II.

Note: this is not a permanent meeting day of the week or time.

The meeting is an opportunity to select favorite poems and read them aloud to an appreciative group of fellow poetry lovers.

Come to the meeting with a poem of your choosing and Group members will arrange dates and times for future meetings.

Anyone who wishes to join the group must be a paid-up member of Fun and Fancy.

For more information, contact Irene Lunenfeld Shaulis at (lis4972@verizon.net).

■ Gilbert and Sullivan Society of Leisure World

May 8-9: Auditions Held for 'The Pirates of Penzance'

by Maggi Lindley

It is finally time for auditions for Gilbert and Sullivan's production of "The Pirates of Penzance." Auditions for the principal parts are on Tuesday, May 8, and Wednesday, May 9, at 7 p.m. in the Clubhouse II auditorium.

Residents who wish to audition for a principal part are asked to come prepared to sing a piece of their choice and to read from the script. The following male roles will be cast: Major General Stanley, The Pirate King, Samuel (his Lieutenant), Frederic (Pirate's apprentice) and Edward (Sergeant of Police).

The female roles are: Mabel (a high soprano), Edith, Kate, Isabel (daughters of the Major General) and Ruth (alto; a pirate maid of all work).

The Society will audition those who are new to the group, and they are required to sing a song of their choosing. Singing auditions give the group an idea of where to place each singer within the chorus. The chorus is comprised of pirates, policemen and daughters of the Major General.

The group looks forward to welcoming you. Former Gilbert and Sullivan chorus members are not required to audition.

Rehearsals

Rehearsals begin on Tuesday, June 5, at 7 p.m. and take place each Tuesday and Thursday through June and July. Beginning Monday, July 30, the group adds Mondays to the rehearsal schedule, rehearsing three times a week until tech week begins on Monday, Aug. 20. Dress rehearsals are on Wednesday, Aug. 22.

Spring Fling

The kick-off party, or "Spring Fling" for members of G&S, is on Wednesday, May 16, at 6 p.m. in the Fairways South party room. Be prepared to pay $10 dues at the door, and have a good evening of fun and fellowship.

General Information

The Gilbert and Sullivan Society meets on the first Thursday of every month at 1 p.m. in Clubhouse II. The Society welcomes new members at any time. The group has many other tasks besides singing that need to be completed during production week. For questions, contact Maggi Lindley at (magz-lindley@gmail.com) and place "G&S" in the subject line.

■ Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL)

June 4: Author Explores Domestic Terrorism

by Fred Shapiro

Residents who read the newspaper or view other media outlets often are confronted with near daily acts of terrorism that occur in the U.S. and abroad.

On Monday, June 4, the Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL) sponsors a program by Norman Brewer, author of "Blending In: A Tale of Homegrown Terrorism," at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse I.

Brewer's novel is about two men determined to bring down the U.S. government. Prominently featured in the novel is an elderly couple that inadvertently find themselves standing in the way of the terrorists and their next attack.

Several domestic attacks after 9/11 were carried out by poorly trained societal misfits. By contrast, Stickman and Maple, the main terrorists in Brewer's book, are well trained and have jobs that allow them to strike and then blend into their community.

"I asked what would happen if you had a couple of relatively smart terrorists who were well trained and did not want to go down the road of martyrdom, and who wanted to not only wreak destruction, but wanted to live to carry out more destruction," Brewer said.

After a career in journalism, Brewer joined the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) in the Department of Homeland Security. He was TSA's director of employee communications, which gave him broad exposure to terrorism issues and tactics.

The June 4 program is free and tickets are not required, but residents are requested to register beginning Tuesday, May 8, at 8:30 a.m. by either stopping by the Clubhouse I E&R office, or by calling (301-598-1300).

meets on Monday, May 14, at 1:30 p.m. in Clubhouse I. The topic is the upcoming Festival of Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks.

Many things are associated with Shavuot, such as receiving the Torah at Sinai, counting the Omer, eating blintzes, eating dairy, reading the Story of Ruth and more.

But do we know where all these traditions arise? Is Shavuot a harvest festival or a religious festival? Is it biblically ordained or rabbinic? Even the actual date of the festival is a bit fuzzy.

Join the Group and contribute to the ongoing discussion. Bring answers, or even more questions. All are welcome.

■ Inter-Faith Missions Committee

May 7-8: Donate to A Wider Circle

by Bonnie Bonner

It's spring cleaning time, which means that residents are encouraged to look through their closets and consider donating unused or unwanted items to the Inter-Faith

Missions Committee's 9th annual bedding donation drive for A Wider Circle.

Residents may drop off donations on Monday, May 7, and Tuesday, May 8, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at The Inter-Faith Chapel's portico. A Wider Circle asks for donated towels, sheet sets, comforters and blankets in good condition with no rips or stains.

A Wider Circle focuses on providing basic need items, education and long-term support to create lasting change in the lives of families they serve. Their Neighbor-to-Neighbor program provides furniture and household goods to families transitioning out of shelters, escaping domestic violence or otherwise living without basic needs items.

Each year, A Wider Circle furnishes the homes of more than 4,000 families, helping to create the stability and dignity that everyone deserves.

A Wider Circle uses the phrase "dignity condition" to describe their minimum standard for donations. Please consider donating the best of what you have to someone who may have very little.

The May 7 and 8 donation drive is for bedding only. Residents who would like to donate furniture or kitchen items may contact A Wider Circle at (301-608-3504) or visit the organization online at (www.awidercircle.org) to arrange a pickup.

May 10: Donor Luncheon at Norbeck Country Club

by Carole Mund

Join NA'AMAT in celebrating Shabbat services on Friday, May 4, at 7:30 p.m. at The Inter-Faith Chapel.

Each year, NA'AMAT has the privilege of sponsoring and supporting the monthly services provided by the Jewish Residents of Leisure World.

The coffee and cake (Oneg) following the service provides time to meet and greet members of the community.

Donor Luncheon

The donor luncheon is on Thursday, May 10, at 11:30 a.m. at Norbeck Country Club.

It is always a wonderful event with good food and entertainment. Prince Havelly returns, back by popular demand. His repertoire includes music and songs from a variety of genres.

He truly sounds like the artists who made the songs famous.

The event celebrates members' participation during the past year. The many activities members enjoy not only create opportunities for socialization with friends and neighbors, but also serve as fundraisers to support the many programs NA'AMAT provides.

Donor credit is simply money attributed to each member over the cost for participating in activities sponsored by NA'AMAT. By now, many members have received notification of their accumulated donor credit.

Participants who have achieved the individual $50 goal are invited to attend. New donations can meet the goal.

The cost to attend the donor luncheon is $35. Send checks, payable to NA'AMAT RBZ, to Theda Rosenblum at (3330 North Leisure World Blvd., Apt 115, Silver Spring, MD 20906).

For questions, contact Theda at (301-598-9105). Include the names of those with whom you'd like to sit.

Executive Board Welcomes All

Get involved in the planning of next year's events. By getting involved, volunteers have the opportunity to meet new friends and connect with an organization that makes a difference in the lives of so many.

NA'AMAT is a charitable organization dedicated to help NA'AMAT Israel provide educational daycare, vocational training and legal aid for women, services and assistance for new immigrants and centers for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence. It was formally known as Pioneer Women.

Attend the Club's next executive board meeting on Tuesday, May 15, at 10:30 a.m. in Clubhouse I, and become more active and make a difference.

Tribute Cards

Tribute cards are an excellent way to support and maintain the essential programs NA'AMAT provides, as well as attain donor credit.

NA'AMAT has cards to honor all occasions, from congratulations for a special event to memorial cards. Each card is $3.50 if purchased and sent by you, or $4.50 if sent by Linda Schoolnick, tribute chairperson. Full donor credit is given for each card.

For questions, contact Linda at (301-681-1076).

Trips

An overnight trip to Dover Downs in Delaware is scheduled for Wednesday, May 16, and Thursday, May 17.

See the Club Trips section for more information.

For more information about NA'AMAT RBZ Club, contact co-presidents Trudy Stone at (301-438-0016) or Gladys Blank at (301-438-9666).

■ Jewish Discussion Group

Israel's Endurance and Another Lively Discussion

by Jerome "Jerry" Cohen

Israel's 70th Independence Day Anniversary is Monday, May 14.

Israel has transformed from essentially a strip of desert, roughly the size of New Jersey, the fifth smallest state in the U.S., into the Middle East's most powerful economy and nation.

Israel has achieved military superiority in the region, is a cutting-edge producer of technology and has some of the best schools and universities in the world.

Since its origin in 1948, Israel has been under siege by its neighbors but continues to persevere and prosper.

Discussion Sessions

At the next session on Sunday, May 27, the discussion group continues its lively discussions of current events impacting Israel and the Jewish global community.

A lineup of expert speakers, as well as short reports of special interest from the group's regular participants, are expected soon.

At the April session, topics discussed included:

- Natalie Portman's rejection of Israel's acclaimed annual Genesis Prize
- the destruction of the Hamas tunnel network in Gaza

- Iceland's proposed circumcision ban
- Israel at age 70
- a survey indicating America's growing unawareness of the Holocaust
- the increasing Syrian threat in the region backed by the prospect of advanced Russian anti-aircraft missiles systems

General Information

The group invites people of all faiths to attend its free discussion group sessions.

The group meets year-round on the fourth Sunday of each month in Clubhouse II. The group has plenty of room for more participants, and all are welcome.

Residents who would like to consider doing a presentation or who would like to recommend an expert to present a talk at one of the meetings are asked to contact Jerry Cohen, group moderator, at (240-970-5024) or (jcohen@jccbb.com).

Residents can also contact Jerry for additional information or to have their email address added to the monthly notification list.

Detecting and Avoiding Scams

by John Moens

On April 16, Montgomery County police officer Sharif Hidayat addressed residents on scam detection and avoidance, and what victims can do if they are targeted.

Common scams include calls from someone pretending to be with the IRS. The caller might tell the scam's target that he or she owes money and can pay using a credit card. The caller might even threaten to have the person arrested if the debt is not immediately paid.

Remember: the IRS does not call individuals for information or to collect money.

Many scams involve phony contractors. Check a contractor's credentials with The Better Business Bureau to verify their legitimacy.

Individuals can also search the Maryland Judiciary Case Search at (<http://casesearch.courts.state.md.us/casesearch/>) for information.

Some scammers call older adults claiming that their grandchild is in trouble and needs money, and others offer to repair a car, windows, roof or anything else for a hefty fee.

Residents who suspect they are victims of a scam are asked to call the Montgomery County police non-emergency number at (301-279-8000).

Residents can also call the Montgomery County Office of Consumer Protection at 311.

Pet Event

The Chapter holds a pet event on Monday, May 21, at 2 p.m. in the Clubhouse I Crystal Ballroom.

Del. Ben Kramer discusses legislation to protect animals. Kramer is accompanied by Emily Hovermale, Maryland state director of The Humane Society of the United States.

Several vendor representatives discuss their services and products, and the event also includes a screening of "The Secret Life of Dogs," a documentary about dogs (but NARFE love cats, too). Service animals only in the clubhouse, please.

The luncheon on Monday, June 18, at the Clubhouse Grille includes a choice between chicken or salmon, and salad, baked potato, coffee or tea and a dessert brownie. The cost of the luncheon is $17.

Send checks, payable to NARFE, to Jewel Lee at (3528 Chiswick Ct 38-C Silver Spring, MD 20906). Include your choice of entrée on your check. All residents are welcome.

■ Going It Alone Club

June Meeting and a Robocall Reminder

by Elizabeth Brooks-Evans

The Going It Alone Club (GIAC), which meets every Saturday from 2-4 p.m. in Clubhouse II, holds its election of officers during an annual membership meeting on Saturday, June 23.

The positions of president, vice president and treasurer are open, so members are invited to nominate potential candidates or to volunteer for these positions by contacting Pat Connelly at (301-598-9369) or Elizabeth Brooks-Evans at (240-242-4433).

Robocall

Members can expect to receive a robocall in the near future to hear details about the June 23 meeting. The call will come from a company called Technology Solutions. Answer the call with some type of greeting to activate the automated message, and then wait a few seconds for the message to begin.

Armchair Travel

On Saturday, May 5, at 2 p.m., armchair travelers visit Cornwall in the far southwest of England. The famous travel guide Rick Steves leads them through a tin mine, salty pirates' town and local fishing villages. In addition, expect to find forgotten stone circles and chase wild ponies while hiking in Dartmoor National Park.

Games

After travel, bridge and Rubik's cube games begin at 2:30 p.m. Bingo is played on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month, and Pokeno on the second and third Saturdays from 2:30-4 p.m.

Sylvia Pachenker is still searching for a member to join her in the fun of calling the bingo game. Anyone interested should contact her at (301-598-5325).

Trips

GIAC is sponsoring the following trips, open to all residents and their guests:

- May 22 – Partake in “High Tea” at Camellia’s Sin Tea

Parlor, with side trips to Meadowbrooke Gourds in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and Baugher’s Farm Market in Westminster, Maryland.

- June 4-8 – Enjoy “Cape Cod and the Islands,” an exciting five-day bus trip to Martha’s Vineyard, and more. This trip is full, however there is a waiting list.
- July 24 – Experience the musical “Jesus” at Sight and Sound Theater in Pennsylvania after a smorgasbord lunch at the Bird-In-Hand Restaurant.
- Sept. 20 – Take a trip to Harris’ Crab House on the Chesapeake Bay for an all-you-can-eat feast, followed by a stop on the way home at the Amish Market in Annapolis, Maryland, to shop for fruits and vegetables, gifts and crafts, candy and home-made ice cream.

Sign-ups for trips take place during Saturday Afternoon Live (SAL) from 1:30-3 p.m. in Clubhouse II, when Club members Joe Parker and Sylvia Pachenker are available to receive payments and answer questions.

See the Club Trips section for more details on the May 22, July 24 and Sept. 20 trips.

The GIAC newsletter also has trip information and is available at SAL. For more information about trips, call Parker at (301-598-3457) or Pachenker at (301-598-5325).

Membership

The membership period is from July 1 through June 30 each year. New members can register to join, and current members are welcome to renew.

Those wishing to sign up for membership can do so during SAL from 1:30-3 p.m. in Clubhouse II, when representatives are available to provide information and answer questions about the Club and its activities.

Residents interested in more information about membership can call Sylvia Pachenker at (301-598-5325).

May 16: Spring Luncheon at Manor Country Club

by Marcia L. Elbrand

Set for Wednesday, May 16, at noon, the Rossmoor Women's Club (RWC) holds a spring luncheon at nearby Manor Country Club located at 14901 Carrolton Road in Rockville. The event is open to both members and guests.

The menu includes a choice of Caesar salad with grilled salmon or Cobb salad topped with grilled chicken breast. Warm rolls and butter, lemonade, iced or hot tea and coffee are served. Warm brownie sundae is the featured dessert.

One lucky luncheon attendee will win a free ticket to the RWC's upcoming 50th anniversary celebration, "Cheers for Fifty Years!" held on Sunday, Sept. 23.

To attend the luncheon, send checks, $35 per person, payable to Rossmoor Women's Club, to Carolyn Thompson at (15000 Pennfield Cir., Apt. 202, Silver Spring, MD 20906).

When sending checks to Thompson, be sure to include your chosen entrée and a contact phone number. Checks must be received by Friday, May 11; no refunds are made after that date.

Donations

As a special opportunity to make a meaningful contribution to the community, luncheon guests are welcome to bring "wish list items" for women and children being served at the Betty Ann Krahnke Center, a local shelter for those seeking refuge from domestic abuse.

The Center welcomes gently used twin bed sheets, blankets, towels and summer clothing for both mothers and children. Disposable diapers, baby wipes and full-sized health and personal care items are always needed. New toys are also welcome.

Checks, payable to Rossmoor Women's Club (memo line: Betty Ann Krahnke Center), are also gratefully accepted. RWC volunteers will transport all donated items to the off-site location where shelter staff members will pick up the items.

Other Charities

The Center is one of a dozen local charities that receive annual donations from RWC. Two other major beneficiaries of RWC funds are James Hubert Blake High School and Montgomery College, where scholarships are awarded each year.

Several of the six 2018 scholarship recipients, chosen on the basis of academics and personal essays, are attending the luncheon, and will briefly describe their career hopes.

Donation checks to boost the scholarship amounts can either be brought to the luncheon or mailed to Club president Aggie Eastham at (3100 N. Leisure World Blvd, #126, Silver Spring, MD 20906). Be sure to write "scholarships" on the check's memo line.

Membership

"Individuals who have considered joining our community-focused group can do so right now," said membership chair Arlene Siller.

In addition to the organizations previously mentioned, the RWC also supports hospice care, accommodations for family members visiting Wounded Warriors and students in the Head Start program at Harmony Hills Elementary School.

To renew membership or become a new member, send a check for $40 annual dues, payable to Rossmoor Women's Club, to Arlene Siller at (3100 N. Leisure World Blvd., Apt. 909, Silver Spring, MD 20906).

For questions, contact her at (abs929@yahoo.com) or (301-460-7859).

Boomers Stay Fit and Active

by Beth Leanza

Residents who like to dance to music of the '50s and '60s may be interested in the Sock Hop Club, an offshoot of the Baby Boomer Club.

They meet on every third Saturday of the month at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse II. Bring your own snacks and beverages, plus $5 to pay the band.

Movies and More

About once a month in the Clubhouse II auditorium, members gather at 7 p.m. to watch a movie and socialize over snacks. On Friday, May 18, the Club shows "The Ottoman Lieutenant." "Dunkirk" is shown on Friday, June 22.

The Club's successful potlucks take a break for the summer. In June, the Club has a barbecue at East Norbeck Park. For a small fee, usually $10, members can eat hamburgers (beef, veggie, turkey), hot dogs and more.

A few members go to Rockville each month for dinner and a movie. They sometimes attend Toby's Dinner Theatre in Columbia for a show and buffet.

Members get together to share board games as well.

Friday Hikes with Dawn

Many walkers meet up at the walk site, but if you want to carpool, contact Dawn Carlisle at (301-598-7098) by Thursday evening. Always bring water to each hike.

- May 11 – Wheaton Regional Park (Silver Spring) Meet in the parking lot near the merry-go-round at 10:15 a.m. Bring water and a lunch.

Exit through the Connecticut Avenue Gate and turn left onto Georgia Avenue. Turn left onto Shorefield Road and continue for several blocks to the parking lot.

- May 18 – Brookside Nature Center (Silver Spring) Meet at the Nature Center at 10:15 a.m. Bring water and a lunch. The Nature Center is on the right.

Sunday Morning Walks

For a longer walk (about three miles), meet up on Sunday mornings at the corner of Leisure World Boulevard and Arden Court (across from Kelmscot Drive). Usually, the walkers go out to breakfast after the walk.

Weeknight Walks

A shorter walk (about one mile) is available on weekday nights. A small group meets at 7:15 p.m. in the Clubhouse I lobby.

They walk around the Broadwalk in Montgomery Mutual. Because no one makes an announcement (or carries a sign!), if you see a group; introduce yourself.

Volkssport Walks

One Club member is also a member of the American Volkssport Association. He posts their walk information on (bbclw@googlegroups.com). Under Calendar, click on "Walks."

Mah Jongg

Experienced mah jongg players can join a group that meets on Tuesday or Wednesday nights at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse II. For more information, email Donna Copeland at (dc@grandmathegeek.com).

Join Us and Connect

Residents interested in joining the Club are encouraged to come to a movie and snack night.

Residents can also send a check for $5, payable to Baby Boomer Club, to membership chair Susan Landesberg at (3505 Twin Branches Ct. 37-C). Enclose your address and phone number, if not on the check, and email address.

Baby Boomers communicate mostly by email, so add the Club's email address, (bbclw@googlegroups.com), to your contacts to ensure Club emails reach your inbox. The Club keeps its emails limited to activities members might enjoy.

Residents who don't have email should write "no email" on their check. The Club strongly suggests connecting with members who have email.

Residents who have joined the Club but are not receiving emails are asked to contact Beth Leanza at (301-598-4569) or (bethlea12020@gmail.com).

iOS Control Center Part 4

by Ron Masi

The Club continues its exploration of often-overlooked iOS (iPhone/iPad) capabilities.

Visit (www.mac.computerctr.org) and click on the In The News tab at the top of the page to review previous iOS Control Center articles.

Screen Recording, Screen Brightness, Text Size and Do Not Disturb are four icons with many capabilities.

The Screen Recording icon looks like a target. It allows users to record what is happening on their screen, just like a movie. Tap the icon, and after a visual countdown of three seconds, the device starts recording what's on the screen.

To stop, tap the red banner, or go back to the Control Center and tap the target icon. When stopped, the user receives an on-screen notification that the recording has been saved to (Apple photos program) Photos. Clicking that notice will start playing what is recorded.

Users can control if they record with or without sound. To do this, firmly hold the Screen Recording icon, and then tap start or stop on the microphone that appears.

If users record a portion of a video, newscast, or other media it can be stored in Photos and shared with others.

The Screen Brightness icon in Control Center looks like a tower with a sun at the bottom. To increase the screen's brightness, drag the sun up, and drag it down for a dimmer screen.

Access Night Shift and True Tone by firmly pressing and holding the brightness icon. Night Shift uses the device's clock and geolocation to automatically adjust the colors, resulting in a better night's sleep.

True Tone uses sensors that measure the ambient light color and brightness to adjust display.

The Text Size icon looks like a small "A" next to a larger "A." By tapping it, users see what looks like a tower with a slider in it. Slide it up for larger fonts on almost everything on the screen, and down for smaller.

The "text size" at the top shows the relative size change. This is helpful for users who struggle to read small print.

Text Size controls are also found in Settings > Display & Brightness; but it is faster to use it in the Control Center.

The Do Not Disturb icon looks like a crescent moon. Users can use it if they do not want to be disturbed, or disturb others, at any time, such as while napping, at the doctor's office, in a meeting or while driving. Tapping gives the message: "You will not receive notifications while you are driving."

Users with an iOS 11 or later model will know when they are moving faster than walking and will automatically turn this feature on. The iPhone stays silent and dark. Those trying to reach this user will get an automatic reply. If the sender types the word "urgent," the notice comes through.

Passengers who want to receive notifications can tap the message and select the option to tap "I'm not Driving." Settings > Do Not Disturb has specific parameters; users can schedule times they don't want to be disturbed.

Don't forget to visit the LW Apple Club online at (mac.computerctr.org/).

■ Comedy and Humor Club

Confucius and Other Sayings, Real and Fake

by Al Karr

A highlight at a recent Comedy and Humor Club meeting was a presentation of sayings that Confucius never uttered, presented by member Fred Firnbacher. Other Club members related more of "his" sayings.

The Club encourages anyone who enjoys telling or hearing rib ticklers to join the Club at its weekly meetings on Tuesdays from 1:30-3 p.m. in Clubhouse II. We're sure you'll be glad you did.

At the recent Tuesday comedy caper, those grabbing the standup mike included Fred Firnbacher, Wally Becker, treasurer Sumner Levin, Skip Schoening, vice president John Lass and Al Karr.

Here is a sampling of Firnbacher's "Things Confucius Never Said:"

- A man attracted to a pretty nurse must be patient; he who lives in glass house should change clothes in the basement; a fellow who leaps from a cliff jumps to a conclusion, and war decides not who is right, but who is left.

Other jokes shared include the following:

- Wally – A visitor to a pig farm asked the farmer why one of the hogs has a wooden leg. The farmer replied that the pig is special; he once saved the lives of the farmer and his wife by oinking at their door and waking them during a house fire. "But why the peg leg," he asked the farmer. "You don't eat a pig like that all at once," the farmer said.
- Skip –A person who jumps into the river in Paris is in Seine.
- John – I'd grow my own food if I could find bacon seeds; So when is this "old enough to know better" supposed to kick in?; Exercise? I thought you said extra fries; I just did a week of cardio after walking into a spider web.

■ Writers of Leisure World

Fond Memories of Travels Far and Wide

by Gladys Blank

Members' readings at the April 19 meeting were varied and informative.

Grace Cooper's poem reminded the group of the pleasures of getting together to enjoy the various festive occasions of the year.

"Madre Mia" by Lee Hardy recalled her mom's life – a life well spent.

Douglas Kiessling's trip to Ireland, especially a tour of the Guinness Brewery, was entertaining, as was Jane Hawes' recollection of her time in South Korea attending a party similar to Geisha parties in Japan.

Her thoughts and musings about using online websites to find new friends were amusing.

Woody Shields' read his informative essay, "The Great Deception," about deer population management.

Verna Denny covered the ups and downs of using the New York City subway system during a trip.

A new visitor to the group wrote about her trials and tribulations while attending Edmondson High School when Baltimore desegregated the all-white schools, and how interested she was to read an article about an area in Leisure World named Edmonson.

Gladys Blank regaled the group with a piece about an upcoming Mother's Day trip to tour colonial history in Alexandria, Virginia, and the very unusual guide in charge of the event.

"I Never Really Grappled" by Susie Hooper Billstein, discusses her adoption at five days old and learning years later about her biological parents and siblings.

Meetings are on the first and third Thursday of each month at 11 a.m. in Clubhouse I. All residents are welcome to attend.
