The notice of any special meeting shall state the time and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof. Section 4. Roster of Unit Owners. Each unit owner shall furnish the Council of Unit Owners with his name and current mailing address.

Section 5. Notice of Meetings. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to mail or otherwise deliver a notice of each annual and special meeting of the Council of Unit Owners, stating the purpose thereof as well as the time and place where it is to be held, to each unit owner at his address as it appears on the Notice by either such method shall be considered as notice served and proof of such notice shall be made by the affidavit of the person giving such notice. Attendance by a unit owner at any annual or special meeting shall be a waiver of notice by him of the time, place and purpose thereof. Notice of any annual or special meeting of the unit owners may also be waived by any unit owner either prior to, at or after any such meeting.

Section 6. Quorum. The presence, either in person or by proxy, of unit owners representing at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the total votes of the Council of Unit Owners shall be requisite for, and shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of members.

Section 8. Voting. At every meeting of the unit owners, each of the unit owners shall have the right to cast the number of votes appurtenant to his unit, as established in "EXHIBIT C" of the Declaration, on each question. The votes of the unit owners representing fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of the unit owners present and voting, in person or by proxy, shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of the Condominium Act, or of the Articles of Incorporation of the Council of Unit Owners or of the Declaration or of these Bylaws, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control. The vote for any condominium unit which is owned by more than one person may be exercised by any of them present at any meeting unless any objection or protest by any other owner of such condominium unit is noted at such meeting. In the event all of the co-owners of such condominium unit who are present at any meeting of the unit owners are unable to agree on the matter in which the vote for such condominium unit shall be cast on any particular question, then such vote shall not be counted for purposes of deciding the question. In the event any condominium unit is owned by a corporation, then the vote appurtenant to such condominium unit shall be cast by a person designated in a certificate signed by the president or any vice president and attested by the secretary or an assistant secretary of such corporation and filed with the Secretary of the Council of Unit Owners at or prior to the meeting. Any such certificate shall remain valid until revoked or superseded in writing. The vote by it to that unit or, if the Board of Directors so decides, shall be computed under any other method established by the Board that is reasonably designed to measure the expected use of electricity by that unit during that year, and (2) may include additional amounts with respect to any bonus or Florida room or other additional rooms of the unit or space therein;

(b) an equal amount for each unit in the condominium to cover the cost of garbage and trash collection and of facilities and other services furnished for that year under the Leisure World of Maryland Trust Agreement of March 9, 1966 (recorded at Liber 3479, Folio 396, in the land records of Montgomery County, Maryland), as amended;

(c) an amount equal to the unit owner's proportionate share (determined in accordance with the percentage interests in common expenses and common profits of the condominium set forth in Exhibit C attached to the Declaration) of the same required to meet the other annual expenses of the condominium, including:

- (1) the cost of necessary management and administration;
- (2) the amount of all taxes and assessments levied against the Council of Unit Owners or upon any property which it may own or which it is otherwise required to pay;
- (3) the cost of fire and extended liability insurance on the project and the cost of such other insurance as the Council of Unit Owners may secure;
- (4) the cost of furnishing or securing water and sewer service, and (except to the extent included in clause (a) or (b) of this section) other services or utilities not separately metered or billed directly to the unit by the utility or other company
- (5) the cost of funding contributions to the "Paid-in-Surplus" account of the Council of Unit Owners and the cost of funding all reserves established by the Council of Unit Owners, or under such Trust Agreement of March 9, 1966, including, when appropriate, a general operating reserve and a reserve for replacements;
- (6) the estimated cost of repair, maintenance, and replacement of the common elements of the condominium to be made by the Council of Unit Owners; and
- (7) the cost of all other operating expenses of the condominium and of other facilities and service furnished or secured by it (except to the extent included in clause (a) of this section).

The Board of Directors shall determine the amount of the assessments at least annually, but may do so at more frequent intervals should circumstances so require. Upon resolution of both the Board of Directors and the unit owners representing at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the total votes of the unit owners, installments of annual assessments may be levied and collected on a quarterly, semi-annual or annual basis rather than on the monthly basis hereinabove provided for.

Liber 4866
Folio 897

The Board of Directors of the Council of Unit Owners shall make reasonable efforts to fix the amount of the assessment against each condominium unit for each annual assessment period at least thirty (30) days in advance of the commencement of such period and shall, at that time, prepare a roster of the condominium units and assessments applicable thereto which shall be kept in the office of the Council of Unit Owners and shall be open to inspection by the owner or mortgagee of any condominium unit, and by their respective duly authorized agents and attorneys, upon reasonable notice to the Board of Directors. Written notice of the assessments shall thereupon be sent to the unit owners. The omission of the Board of Directors, before the expiration of any annual assessment period, to fix assessments for that or the next such period shall not be deemed a waiver or modification in any respect of the provisions of this Article, or a release of any unit owner from the obligation to pay the assessment, or any installment thereof, for that or any subsequent assessment period; but the assessment fixed for the preceding period shall continue until a new assessment is fixed. No unit owner may exempt himself from liability for assessments or carrying charges by a waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the common elements or by abandonment of any condominium unit belonging to him.

Section 2. Budget. The Board of Directors, with the assistance and counsel of the Management Agent, shall prepare and adopt a budget for each annual assessment period which shall include estimates of the funds required by the Council of Unit Owners to meet its annual expenses and other amounts referred to in Section 1 of this Article for that period. The budget herein required to be prepared and adopted by the Board of Directors shall be in a format consistent with the classification of the accounts of the Council of Unit Owners, as hereinafter in these Bylaws provided for, and shall provide for sufficient estimates on a monthly basis, to permit comparison to and analysis of deviations from the various periodic reports of the actual results of operations and the actual financial condition of the Council of Unit Owners, on both a current basis and for prior corresponding periods, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting practices, consistently applied. Copies of the budget shall be available for examination by the unit owners and by their duly authorized agents and attorneys, and to the institutional holder of any first mortgage on any condominium unit in the condominium and by their duly authorized agents and attorneys during normal business hours for purposes reasonably related to their respective interests.

Section 3. Special Assessments. In addition to the regular assessments authorized by this Article, the Council of Unit Owners may levy in any assessment year a special assessment or assessments, applicable to that year only, for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction or reconstruction, unexpected repair or replacement of a described capital improvement located upon the condominium, including the necessary fixtures and personal property related thereto, or for such other purpose as the Board of Directors may consider appropriate; provided, however, that any such special assessment shall have the assent of the unit owners representing two-thirds (2/3) of the total votes of the Council of Unit Owners. A special meeting of the unit owners shall be duly called for this purpose.

Folio 898

Section 4. Reserve for Replacements. The Council of Unit Owners shall establish and maintain a reserve fund for replacements by the allocation and payment monthly to such reserve fund of an amount to be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors. Such fund shall be conclusively deemed to be a common expense. Such fund shall be deposited in a special account with a lending institution the accounts of which are insured by an agency of any state or an agency of the United States of America or may, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, be invested in obligations of, or fully guaranteed as to principal by, any state or the United States of America. The reserve for replacements may be expended only for the purpose of effecting the replacement of the common elements and equipment of the condominium and for start-up costs and operating contingencies of a nonrecurring nature. The proportionate interest of any unit owner in any reserve for replacements and any other reserves established by the Council of Unit Owners shall be considered an appurtenance of his condominium unit and shall not be separately withdrawn, assigned or transferred or otherwise separated from the condominium unit to which it appertains and shall be deemed to be transferred with such condominium unit.

Section 5. Non-Payment of Assessments - Statement of Condominium Lien. Any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration or these Bylaws, and any installment thereof, which is not paid on the date when due shall be delinquent and shall entitle the Council of Unit Owners to claim the amount of such assessment, together with interest thereon and the actual costs of collection thereof, as a lien on the condominium unit against which it is assessed; provided, however, that such lien shall be effective only after a Statement of Condominium Lien is recorded among the Land Records for Montgomery County, Maryland, stating the description of the condominium unit, the name of the unit owner of record, the amount due and the period for which the assessment is due. Any such Statement of Condominium Lien shall be in substantially the following form or as may otherwise be required by the Condominium Act:

STATEMENT OF CONDOMINIUM LIEN

This is to certify that _____ owner(s) of Unit No. _____ in "MUTUAL 14-CONDOMINIUM OF ROSSMOOR", (is)(are) indebted to the Council of Unit Owners in the amount of $_____ as of _____, 19____ for (his)(their) proportionate share of common expenses of the condominium for the period from _____, 19__ to _____ 19__, plus interest thereon at the rate of eight percent (8%), costs of collection and reasonable attorney's fees.

I HEREBY AFFIRM under penalties of perjury that the information contained in the foregoing Statement of Condominium Lien is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Officer (or Agent)

The Statement of Condominium Lien shall be signed and verified as required in the Condominium Act by any officer of the Council of Unit Owners, or by the Management Agent or any duly authorized representative thereof, or by any agent, attorney or other person duly authorized by the Board of Directors of the Council of Unit Owners for such purpose.

Upon recordation of the Statement of Condominium Lien as aforesaid, the lien shall bind the condominium unit described in the Statement of Condominium Lien in the hands of the unit owner, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives and assigns. The personal obligation of the unit owner to pay the assessment shall, however, remain his personal obligation for the statutory period and a suit to recover a money judgment for non-payment of any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration or these Bylaws, or any installments thereof, may be maintained without foreclosing or waiving the lien established by the Statement of Condominium Lien to secure payment of such assessment. Upon full payment of the amount for which the lien is claimed the unit owner shall be entitled to a recordable satisfaction of the lien. Any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration or these Bylaws, and any installment thereof, which is not paid when due may, upon resolution of the Board of Directors, subject the unit owner obligated to pay the same to the payment of such penalty or "late charge" as the Board of Directors may fix and the Council of Unit Owners may bring an action at law against the unit owner personally obligated to pay the same or may, after the recordation of the Statement of Condominium Lien provided for in this Article and in the Condominium Act, foreclose the lien against the condominium unit or units then belonging to said unit owner in the same manner, and subject to the same requirements, now or hereafter provided for the foreclosure of mortgages or deeds of trust in the State of Maryland containing a power of sale or an assent to a decree; in either of which events interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum, actual costs of collection and reasonable attorney's fees of not less than twenty percent (20%) of the sum claimed shall be added to the amount of each assessment. Suit for any deficiency following foreclosure may be maintained in the same proceeding. No suit may be brought to foreclose the lien except after ten (10) days' written notice to the unit owner given by registered mail - return receipt requested to the address of the unit owner shown on the roster of unit owners maintained by the Council of Unit Owners.

In the event any proceeding to foreclose the lien for any assessment due the Council of Unit Owners pursuant to this Article is commenced with respect to any condominium unit or units in the condominium, then the owner of such condominium unit or units, upon resolution of the Board of Directors, may be required to pay reasonable rental for such unit or units and the Council of Unit Owners shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same.

The Board of Directors may post a list of members who are delinquent in the payment of any assessments or other fees which may be due the Council of Unit Owners, including any installments thereof which becomes delinquent, in any prominent location within the condominium.

Liber 4866
Folio 900

Section 6. Priority of Lien. The lien established by the recordation of a Statement of Condominium Lien as in this Article provided, shall have preference over any other assessments, liens, judgments or charges of whatever nature, except the following:

- (a) general and special assessments for ad valorem real estate taxes on the condominium unit; and
- (b) the lien of any bona fide deed of trust, mortgage or other encumbrance duly recorded on the condominium unit prior to the recordation of the Statement of Condominium Lien, or duly recorded on the condominium unit after receipt by the holder of any such mortgage (or the holder of the indebtedness or note secured thereby) of a certificate or statement in writing signed by an officer or agent of the Council of Unit Owners stating the payments on account of all assessments levied by the Council of Unit Owners against the condominium unit were current as of the date of recordation of such deed of trust, mortgage instrument or other encumbrance.

The lien established by the recordation of a Statement of Condominium Lien, as in this Article provided, shall be subordinate to the lien of any deed of trust, mortgage or other encumbrance duly recorded on the condominium unit and made in good faith and for value received; provided, however, that such subordination shall apply only to assessments, and installments thereof, which have become due and payable prior to a sale or transfer of the condominium unit pursuant to a foreclosure or any deed, assignment or other proceeding or arrangement in lieu of foreclosure. Any holder of any deed of trust, mortgage or other encumbrance duly recorded on the condominium unit and made in good faith and for value received who comes into possession of the condominium unit pursuant to a foreclosure or any deed, assignment or other proceeding or arrangement in lieu of foreclosure and any other purchaser at a foreclosure sale, shall take the condominium unit free of any claims for unpaid common expense assessments and carrying charges levied against the condominium unit which accrue prior to the time such holder comes into possession of the condominium unit or prior to the foreclosure sale, except for claims for a proportionate share of such unpaid common expense assessments and carrying charges resulting from reallocation of such unpaid common expense assessments or carrying charges among all of the condominium units in the condominium. Such foreclosure, deed, assignment or other proceeding or arrangement in lieu of foreclosure shall not relieve the mortgagee in possession or the purchaser at any foreclosure sale from any liability for any common expense assessments and carrying charges thereafter becoming due, or from the lien established by the recordation of a Statement of Condominium Lien with respect to any common expense assessments and carrying charges thereafter becoming due.

No amendment to this Section shall affect the rights of the holder of any such deed of trust, mortgage or other encumbrance recorded prior to the recordation of such amendment unless the holder of such deed of trust, mortgage or other encumbrance shall join in the execution of such amendment.

Section 7. Additional Rights of Mortgagees - Notice. The Council of Unit Owners shall promptly notify the holder of the first mortgage on any condominium unit for which any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration or these Bylaws, or any installment thereof, becomes delinquent for a period in excess of thirty (30) days and the Council of Unit Owners shall promptly notify the holder of the first mortgage on any condominium unit with respect to which any default in any provision of the Declaration or these Bylaws remains uncured for a period in excess of thirty (30) days following the date of such default. Any failure to give any such notice shall not affect the priorities established by this Article, the validity of any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration or these Bylaws or the validity of any lien to secure the same.

No suit or other proceeding may be brought to foreclose the lien for any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration or these Bylaws except after ten (10) days' written notice to the holder of the first mortgage on the condominium unit which is the subject matter of such suit or proceeding.

Section 8. Acceleration of Installments. Upon default in the payment of any one or more monthly installments of any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration of these Bylaws, or any other installment thereof, the entire balance of said assessment may be accelerated at the option of the Board of Directors and be declared due and payable in full.

Section 9. Assessment Certificates. The Council of Unit Owners shall, upon demand at any time, furnish to any unit owner liable for any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration or these Bylaws (or any other party legitimately interested in the same) a certificate in writing signed by an officer or agent of the Council of Unit Owners, setting forth the status of said assessment, i.e., whether the same is paid or unpaid. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the payment of any installment of any assessment therein stated to have been paid. A charge not to exceed Thirty Dollars ($30.00) may be levied in advance by the Council of Unit Owners for each certificate so delivered, except that no charge shall be levied against any institutional mortgagee of any condominium unit in the condominium who requests such a certificate.

Section 10. Additional Default. Any recorded first mortgage secured on a condominium unit in the condominium shall provide that any default by the mortgagor in the payment of any assessment levied pursuant to the Declaration or these Bylaws, or any installment thereof, shall likewise be a default in such mortgage (or the indebtedness or note secured thereby). Such mortgages shall also provide that; in the event of any default thereunder, the mortgagee shall have the right, at its option exercised by notice in writing to the mortgagor and the Secretary of the Council of Unit Owners, to cast the votes appurtenant to the condominium unit which is security for the repayment of the mortgage debt at all meetings of the unit owners. Failure to include such provisions in any such mortgage shall not affect the validity or priority thereof and the protection extended to the holder of such mortgage (or the holder of the indebtedness or note secured thereby) by reason of the provisions of this Article, shall not be altered, modified, or diminished by reason of any such failure.

ARTICLE IX

Use Restrictions

Section 1. Residential Use - Age Limitations. Etc. Except for such condominium units as may be designated in the Declaration or on the Condominium Plat for commercial or other non-residential purposes, if any, and except for such temporary non-residential uses as may be permitted by the Board of Directors from time to time, all condominium units shall be used for private residential purposes exclusively. Nothing in this Section, or hereinelsewhere, shall be construed to prohibit the Declarant from the use of any condominium units which the Declarant owns for promotional or display purposes, as "model apartments", a sales office or the like, or from leasing any unit or units which the Declarant owns except that Declarant shall nevertheless be bound by the provisions of Section 2 of this Article. No more than two (2) persons may permanently reside in any one-bedroom condominium unit, and no more than three (3) persons may permanently reside in any two-bedroom condominium unit without prior written approval of the Board of Directors. It is the policy of this Mutual to provide housing for older persons. Implementation of this policy and other reasonable restrictions on occupancy or residents under 55 years of age in the units of this Mutual shall be governed by rules established by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Leasing. No portion of any condominium unit (other than the entire unit) shall be leased for any period. Any owner of any condominium unit who shall lease such unit shall, promptly following the execution of any such lease, forward a conformed copy thereof to the Board of Directors. All leases shall be in writing. Any such lease shall contain a provision to the effect that the rights of the tenant to use and occupy the condominium unit shall be subject and subordinate in all respects to the provisions of the Declaration and these Bylaws and to such other reasonable rules and regulations relating to the use of the common elements, or other "house rules", as the Board of Directors may from time to time promulgate and shall provide, further, that any failure by the tenant to comply with the provisions of such documents shall be a default under the lease. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any institutional first mortgagee of any condominium unit who comes into possession of the unit by reason of any remedies provided by law or in such mortgage or as a result of a foreclosure sale or other judicial sale or as a result of any proceeding, arrangement, assignment or deed in lieu of foreclosure. No condominium unit within the condominium shall be rented for transient or hotel purposes or, without the prior written approval of the Board of Directors, for any period less than three (3) months.

Section 3. Prohibited Uses and Nuisances. Except for the activities of the Declarant and its agents in connection with the construction of the condominium, and except as may be reasonable and necessary in connection with the maintenance, improvement, repair or reconstruction of any portion of the condominium by the Declarant or the Council of Unit Owners:

- (a) no noxious or offensive trade or activity shall be carried on within the condominium or within any condominium unit, nor shall anything be done therein or thereon which may be or become an annoyance to the neighborhood or the other unit owners. No nuisances shall be permitted within the condominium, nor shall any use or practice be permitted which is or becomes a source of annoyance to the unit owners or which interferes with the peaceful use and possession thereof by the unit owners.
- (b) there shall be no obstruction of any of the common elements. Nothing shall be stored upon any of the common elements, excepting those areas designated for storage of personal property by the owners of the condominium units.
- (c) nothing shall be done or maintained in any condominium unit or upon any of the common elements which will increase the rate of insurance on any condominium unit or the common elements, or result in the cancellation thereof, without the prior written approval of the Board of Directors. Nothing shall be done or maintained in any condominium unit or upon the common element which would be in violation of any law. No waste shall be committed upon any of the common elements.
- (d) no structural alteration, construction, addition or removal of any condominium unit or the common elements shall be commenced or constructed except in strict accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws.
- (e) the maintenance, keeping, breeding, boarding and/or raising of animals, livestock, or poultry of any kind, regardless of number, shall be and is hereby prohibited within any condominium unit or upon any of the common elements, except that this shall not prohibit the keeping of a dog, cat, or caged birds as domestic pets provided that they are not kept or maintained for commercial purposes or for breeding. Pets shall not be permitted upon the general common elements of the condominium unless accompanied by an adult and unless they are carried or leashed. Any unit owner who keeps or maintains any pet upon any portion of the condominium shall be deemed to have indemnified and agreed to hold the Council of Unit Owners, each of the unit owners and the Declarant and Management Agent free and harmless from any loss, claim or liability of any kind or character whatever arising by reason of keeping or maintaining such pet within the condominium. All pets must be registered with the Board of Directors and shall otherwise be registered and inoculated as required by law. The Board of Directors shall have the right to order any person whose pet is a nuisance, to remove such pet from the premises and the Board of Directors, after affording the right to a hearing to the unit owner affected, shall have the exclusive authority to declare any pet a nuisance.

- (f) except for such signs as may be posted by the Declarant or the Council of Unit Owners for promotional or marketing purposes, traffic control or the like, no signs of any character shall be erected, posted or displayed upon, in, from, or about any condominium unit or the common elements without the prior consent in writing of the Board of Directors and under such conditions as they may establish. The provisions of this subsection shall not be applicable to the institutional holder of any first mortgage which comes into possession of any condominium unit by reason of any remedies provided by law or in such mortgage or as a result of a foreclosure sale or other judicial sale or other proceeding, arrangement, assignment or deed in lieu of foreclosure.
- (g) except as hereinelsewhere provided for, no junk vehicle or other vehicle on which current registration plates are not displayed, trailer, truck, camper, camp truck, house trailer, boat or the like shall be kept upon any of the general common elements, nor shall the repair or extraordinary maintenance of automobiles or other vehicles be carried out on any of the common elements or within or upon any condominium unit.
- (h) except as hereinelsewhere provided, no part of the common elements shall be used for commercial activities of any character. This subsection shall not apply to the use of the common elements and of condominium units by the Declarant for display, marketing, promotional or sales purposes or as "model" condominium units.

Liber 4866

- (i) no burning of any trash and no unreasonable or unsightly accumulation or storage of litter, new or used building materials, or trash of any other kind shall be permitted within any condominium unit or upon any of the common elements. Trash and garbage containers shall not be permitted to remain in public view, except on days of collection. All refuse shall be deposited with care in containers or trash chutes designated for such purpose during such hours as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.
- (j) no structure of a temporary character, trailer, tent, shack, barn or other outbuilding shall be maintained upon any common elements at any time. Outdoor clothes dryers or clothes lines shall not be maintained upon any of the common elements at any item. No clothing, laundry or the like shall be hung from any part of any condominium unit or upon any of the common elements or from or upon any balcony or patio.
- (k) no outside television or radio aerial or antenna, or other aerial or antenna, for reception or transmission, shall be maintained upon any condominium unit or upon any of the common elements without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors.
- (l) nothing shall be stored upon any balcony or patio, nor shall the cooking or preparation of food be permitted upon any balcony or upon any portion of the general common elements of the project, except with the consent of the Board of Directors.
- (m) no unlawful use shall be made of any condominium unit or any portion of the common elements and all laws, zoning and other ordinances, regulations or governmental and other municipal bodies and the like shall be observed at all times.
- (n) no unit owner shall engage or direct any employee of the Council of Unit Owners or the Management Agent on any private business of the unit owner during the hours such employee is employed by the Council of Unit Owners or the Management Agent nor shall any member direct, supervise or in any manner attempt to assert control over any such employee.
- (o) there shall be no violation of any rules for the use of the common elements, or other "house rules", which may from time to time be adopted by the Board of Directors and promulgated among the unit owners by them in writing, and the Board of Directors is hereby and elsewhere in these Bylaws authorized to adopt and promulgate such rules. The procedures and other provisions of section of the Real Property Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland do not apply to the adoption, amendment or repeal of rules by the Board of Directors. Instead, the Board shall send (which, for purposes of this section, means mail or otherwise deliver) to each owner and lessee (if any) of a unit of the Condominium, a copy of any proposal for the adoption, repeal, or amendment of any rule, together with the text of the rule or amendment and with notice of the date by which the recipients may comment in writing. That date may not be less than 15 days after the date the notice is sent. After considering any such comments, the Board shall act to adopt the proposal with any modifications it may determine, or to withdraw it. The Board shall send to all unit owners and lessees a report of its action, including (except in the case of withdrawal of the proposal) the text of any rule or amendment it adopts. The report shall also specify an effective date for the rule, repeal, or amendment to which it relates, which may not be less than 10 days after the date on which the report is sent.

- (a) it shall send (which, for purposes of this section, means mail or otherwise deliver) to the alleged violator written demand to cease the alleged violation which shall
 - (1) state the alleged violation;
 - (2) state the action required to abate the violation; and

- (b) within 12 months of the demand if the violation continues past the period allowed for abatement without penalty, or if the same rule is violated subsequently, or if the Board proposes to impose a sanction for a violation that has occurred, the Board shall send to the alleged violator written notice of an opportunity for a hearing, to be held by the Board, containing:

- (1) a description of the alleged violation or violations;

Within 15 days after the date set for the hearing ends (or within 15 days after the date set for the hearing if the alleged violator does not take advantage of the opportunity for a hearing), the Board shall render a decision on the alleged violation and shall promptly send a copy thereof to all parties to the proceedings.
- (d) The owner of a unit and its lessee (if any) shall each be treated as a full party to proceedings under this section even though such owner or such lessee is not the alleged violator, if the alleged violator was, at the time of the alleged violation that is the subject of such proceedings, an occupant of that unit or a guest of the owner, lessee, or other occupant of the unit.
- (e) If the Board's decision under the section is against the alleged violator, the Board may take any one or more of the following actions against any one or more of the following persons: impose a fine on, assess damages against, suspend the voting privileges of, or otherwise limit the rights of the alleged violator and (if different) the owner, lessee, or other occupant of a unit, if the alleged violator was, at the time of the alleged violation that is the subject of the proceedings under this section, an occupant of that unit or a guest of such owner, lessee, or other occupant. In addition, the legal remedies specified in subsection (c) of section 11-113 of the Real Property Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland (relating to law suits because of noncompliance with law, declaration, bylaws, or a decision under that section) apply to any such decision of the Board to the same extent as they apply to decisions under that section.

Section 4. Drapery Liners. In order to preserve the harmony of the exterior design of the building, the Board of Directors shall have the authority to require that all drapery liners shall be of a uniform color and material as selected, from time to time, by the Board of Directors. Drapery liners installed in any condominium unit shall be maintained and periodically replaced at the expense of the owner of such unit and not at common expense.

Section 1. Architectural and Environmental Control Committee. Except for the construction of the condominium by the Declarant or its agents and any improvements to any condominium unit or to the common elements accomplished concurrently with said original construction, and except for purposes of proper maintenance and repair or as otherwise in the Condominium Act or these Bylaws provided, it shall be prohibited for any unit owner to install, erect, attach, apply, past, hinge, screw, nail, build, alter, remove or construct any lighting, shades, screens, awnings, patio covers, decorations, fences, walls, aerials, antennas, radio or television broadcasting or receiving devices, slabs, sidewalks, curbs, gutters, patios, balconies, porches, driveways, walls or to make any change or otherwise alter (including any alteration in color) in any manner whatsoever the exterior of any condominium unit or upon any of the common elements within the project or to combine or otherwise join two or more condominium units, or to partition the same after combination, or to remove or alter any window or exterior doors of any condominium unit, or to make any change or alteration within any condominium unit which will alter the structural integrity of any building or otherwise affect the property, interest or welfare of any other unit owner, materially increase the cost of operating or insuring the condominium or impair any easement, until the complete plans and specifications, showing the location, nature, shape and change (including, without limitation, any other information specified by the Board of Directors or its designated committee) shall have been submitted to and approved in writing as to safety, the effect of any such alterations on the costs of maintaining and insuring the condominium and harmony of design, color and location in relation to surrounding structures and topography, by the Board of Directors of the Council of Unit Owners, or by an Architectural and Environmental Control Committee designated by the Board of Directors. Directors of the Council of Unit Owners and such persons shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the event the Board of Directors fails to appoint an Architectural and Environmental Control Committee, then the Board of Directors shall constitute the Committee. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Architectural and Environmental Control Committee shall be required in order to adopt or promulgate any rule or regulation, or to make any finding, determination, ruling or order, or to issue any permit, consent, authorization, approval or the like pursuant to the authority contained in this Article.

Parking

Section 1. General Requirements. All parking areas within the condominium shall be considered part of the general common elements. Parking may be regulated by the Board of Directors and parking spaces may initially be assigned by the Declarant and thereafter by the Board of Directors. No unit owner shall make use of any parking space other than the space or spaces appurtenant or assigned to his condominium unit by the Board of Directors, if any, without the express written consent of both the unit owner to whom such space has been assigned and the Board of Directors, nor shall any unit owner invite, encourage or permit the use by his guests of parking spaces appurtenant or assigned to condominium units other than his own. No vehicle belonging to any unit owner, or to any guest or employee of any unit owner, shall be parked in a manner which unreasonably interferes with or impedes ready vehicular access to any parking space assigned to any other unit owner. Nothing shall be stored

Each unit owner shall comply in all respects with such supplementary rules and regulations which are not inconsistent with the provisions of these Bylaws which the Board of Directors may from time to time adopt and promulgate with respect to parking and traffic control within the condominium and the Board of Directors is hereby, and elsewhere in these Bylaws authorized to adopt such rules and regulations.

Rights of First Refusal

Section 1. Right of First Refusal. In the event the owner of any condominium unit wishes to transfer the title thereto (and as a condition precedent to each and every such transfer) and shall have received a bona fide offer to purchase the same, such unit owner shall notify the Board of Directors in writing that the condominium unit is for sale and shall supply the Board of Directors with an executed copy of such offer and the terms thereof, including the name of the prospective-purchaser and such other information as the Board of Directors, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, may request. For a period of ten (10) days following receipt of the aforesaid notice by the Board of Directors, the Council of Unit Owners shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase the subject condominium unit upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the offer therefor. The failure or refusal by the Board of Directors to exercise the right of first refusal shall not constitute or be deemed a waiver of such right in the event the owner of any condominium unit receives any subsequent bona fide offer to purchase the same from the same or a different party.

Section 3. Certificate of Termination. The Council of Unit Owners shall upon demand at any time, furnish to any unit owner, or other party legitimately interested in the same, a certificate in writing signed by an officer of the Council of Unit Owners, or execute an appropriate certificate on any deed for any condominium unit, stating that the requirements of this Article have been complied with or duly waived by the Board of Directors and that the rights of the Board of Directors thereunder have been terminated. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the compliance with the requirements of this Article for all persons who rely thereon in good faith.
