

A Guide to Leisure World's Walking Paths

Providing “A Guide to Leisure World’s Walking Paths”
was made possible by a generous donation from

Deborah Younkers, Realtor® & Lynn Pugh, Realtor®
Serving the Leisure World community for over 20 years

Licensed real estate agents in Maryland, D.C. and Virginia
Thinking about buying, selling or renting at Leisure World?
Call or text:

Deborah 240-460-9557

Lynn 301-332-8809

We love referrals and are honored to work with anyone you refer to buy or sell a home.

Office phone: 301-681-0550

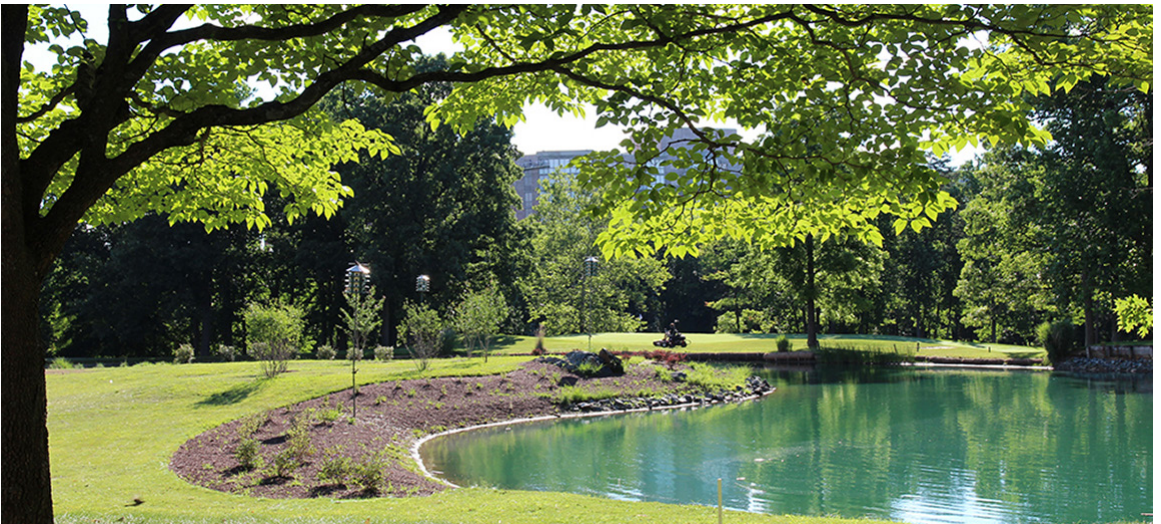

April 2026

Walking Paths with Scenic Views

From watching the sun set over the golf course, to spotting a family of deer as they graze at dawn, Leisure World's walking paths offer scenic views of the community throughout the year.

Walkers and joggers can get in their daily dose of exercise, safe in the knowledge that a shady spot or bench for resting is right around the bend.

Grab your favorite pair of athletic shoes and take a stroll around any of Leisure World's four walking paths.

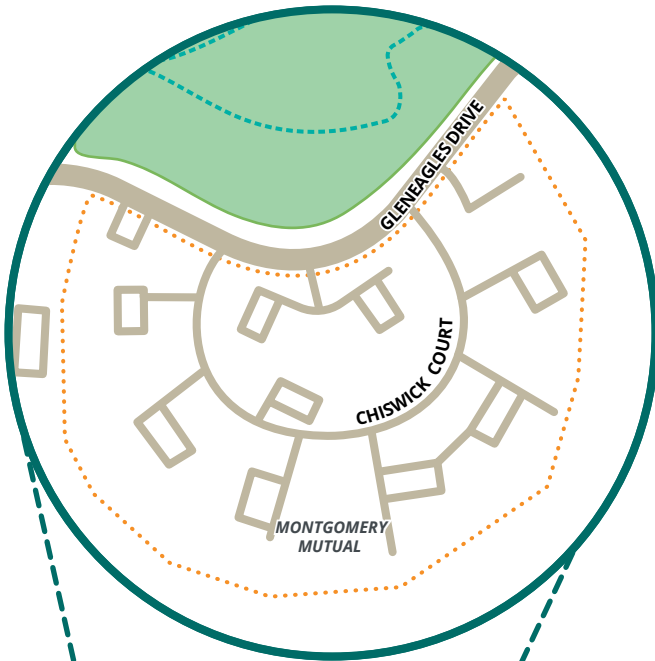

The Broadwalk

Distance:
nearly one-mile loop

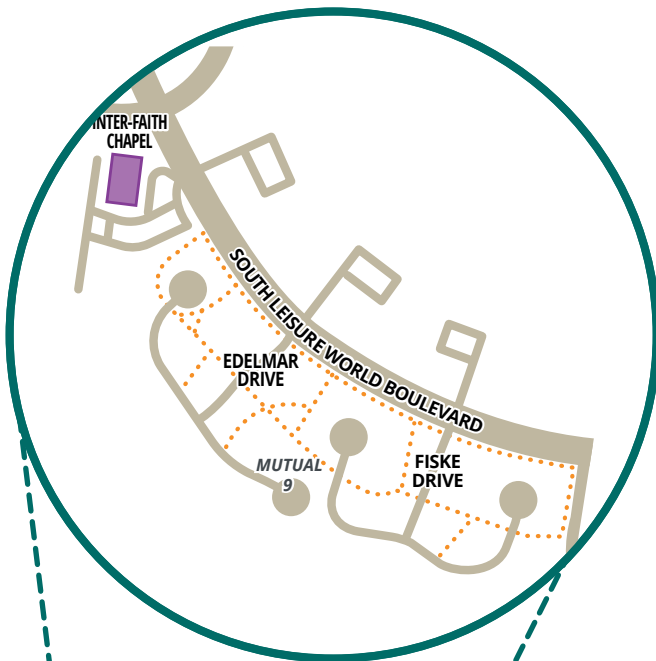

Location:
within Montgomery Mutual

Views:
bordered by Leisure World Boulevard and Gleneagles Drive

Notes and Features:
walkers should park their cars in the main lot or on South Leisure World Boulevard, not in the courts

Mutual 9

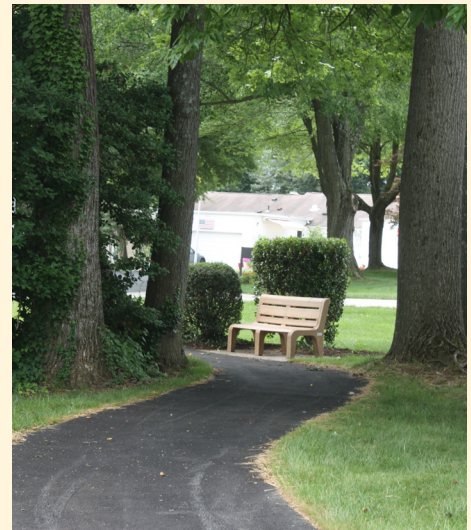

Distance:
roughly 0.6-mile

Location:
between The Inter-Faith
Chapel and Connecticut Avenue

Views:
grazes the backyards of
single-family homes

- Notes and Features:
- slight inclines and plenty of shade; an excellent choice for residents who want to comfortably enjoy the outdoors with minimal exertion
 - walkers can park their cars along South Leisure World Boulevard, or use The Inter-Faith Chapel's parking lot if no events are scheduled at that time

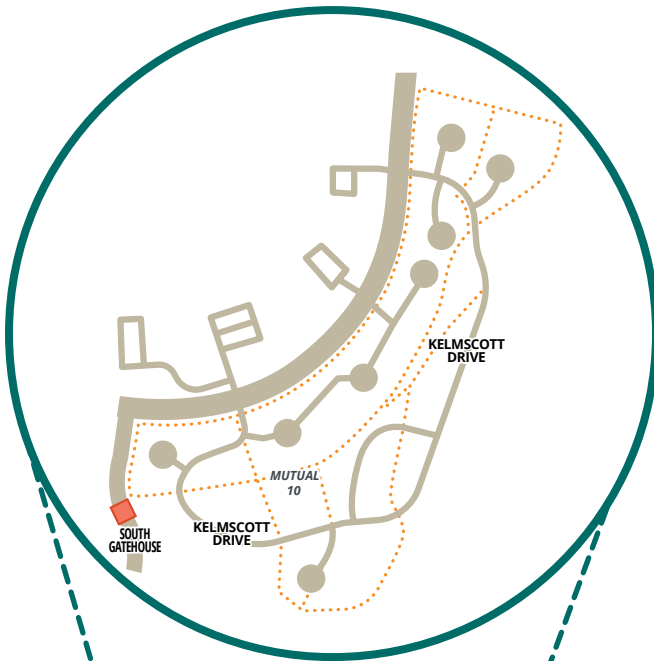

Mutual 10

Distance:
roughly 0.9 loop

Location:
just south of Leisure World Boulevard and sandwiched between Connecticut Avenue and Kelmescott Drive

Views:
cuts between single-family homes, personal gardens and manicured
lawns

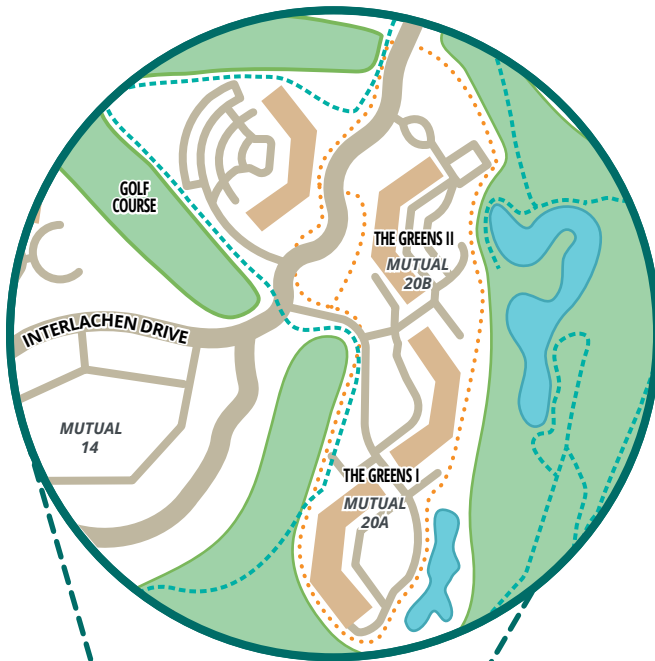

The Greens I & II

Distance:
nearly 0.9-mile course

Location:
encircling the mutuals' first three buildings

Views:
offers scenic views of the golf course

Notes and Features:
more than 15 benches along the pathways provide walkers plenty of respite

Leisure World's Wild World

All of the photos of animals shown below were captured by Leisure World residents within the community. Can you name these animals?

A

B

E

D

C

Answers: A. Pileated Woodpecker, B. Canada Goslings, C. Red Fox with kit, D. American bullfrog, E. Tree Swallow